guide to the interconnections of religion and global politics Biblical Interpretation and Doctrinal Formulation in the Reformed Tradition Arie C. Leder, Richard A. Muller, 2014-04-16 The Reformed tradition is characterized by a rigorous commitment to theological formulation yet it is equally known for its commitment to rooting its life and practice in the authority of God's Word. While these two commitments are commonly acknowledged, the path from biblical interpretation to doctrinal formulation is often overlooked. Examining a diverse group of thinkers across the chronological and international spectrum of the Reformed tradition, this book demonstrates the depth and intricacies involved in the tasks of exegesis and dogmatic construction, the ways they intersect, and the effect it has on the church. Leder 14 Herman Hoeksema was Right on the three points that really matter John Bolt Spiritual Art and Art Education Janis Lander, 2013-12-17 This book is a study of contemporary spirituality as it is practiced in the world today, characterized by its secular and inclusive nature and applied to art and art education. It identifies the issues facing a formal introduction of contemporary spiritual concepts into a secular and multicultural arts educational environment. Lander begins by separating the notion of the spiritual from the study of organized religions. She uses examples of art from different cultures in contemporary spiritual systems, making the study a reference book for contemporary spirituality and spirituality in art education with usable definitions and practical examples suitable for scholars in art and visual studies, art education, and contemporary spirituality Rethinking Religion and Politics in a Plural World Julia Berger, 2021-01-14 In this book, Julia Berger examines internal meaning-making structures and processes driving NGO behavior, identifying constructs from within a religious tradition that forge new ways of pursuing social change. She evaluates the operation of a distinct rationality, arguing that action is guided not simply by beliefs and values but also by a combination of elements so intrinsic as to constitute an organizational DNA. These hidden structures and rationalities manifest themselves in new modes of engagement and agency; they help us to see the pivotal role of religion in shaping notions of peace, progress, and modernity. To demonstrate the operation and salience of such a rationality, Berger draws on the example of the worldwide Baha'i community Emerging in 19th century Iran the community's theological engagement with questions of justice the unity of humankind and the emerging global order constitute one of the most distinct and compelling yet least researched examples of religious engagement with the pressing questions of our time Analyzing events spanning a 75 year period from 1945-2020 this book provides a unique historical and contemporary perspective on the evolving role of religion and civil society in the modern world On Human Nature Michel Tibayrenc, Francisco J.
