Giglio, 1996 Rethinking (In)Security in the European Union Claudia Anamaria Iov, 2020-05-14 This book is the result of a series of studies devoted to assessing the consequences of migration from the perspective of the migration identity in security causality with a specific focus on the Roma issue in France It demonstrates that in the context of the new European agenda on security following the events of 9 11 immigrants in general and the Roma in particular have found themselves trapped in a spiral of insecurity through which migration has been raised to the level of meta problem and they have become scapegoats The book argues that these issues reflect a broader political discussion on the EU s identity and social policy It shows that the socio economic and security dimension of the Roma dossier is a case that may require policymakers in Brussels to rethink the EU s social responsibilities towards its citizens thus giving up their
