The New Politics of Energy Security in the European Union and Beyond Andrea

Prontera,2017-05-18 Combining theoretical reflections and empirical insights from paradigmatic case studies in the area of external energy governance pipeline politics Liquefied Natural Gas development and offshore petroleum policy and politics this ground breaking study demonstrates that a distinctive and new politics of energy security is definitively emerging in the European Union Innovative not only in regard to the case studies presented which include the Caspian region the Baltic Mediterrean countries Central Asia and EU Russia relations but also in regard to the analytical framework adopted an International Political Economy approach informed by an historical institutional perspective the book challenges the common view of the de politicisation of energy security supported by the mainstream market approach and the power politics and zero sum game view supported by the geopolitical perspective This book places the study of EU energy politics in the broader evolving context of global energy markets and explores the complex interactions between EU and national political dynamics and between energy security and environmental concerns at the local level

Metamorphosis of Turkish Foreign Policy in the 21st Century NERGİZ ÖZKURAL KÖROĞLU,HAMOON KHELGHAT-DOOST,2023-04-21

The fading of the post WWII order called for Turkey to take on a new role in this new multi centered and multipolar era with new players emerging from different regions across the globe The new enterprising and humanitarian foreign policy is an effort to locate Turkey better in the 21st global politics While the literature on principles of Turkish foreign policy is abundant the actual mechanisms by which these principles are implemented in practice are still ambiguous to most scholars and foreign policy practitioners especially within the country s newly developed Turkish foreign policy framework This edited volume directs to shed light on this little explored aspect of Turkish foreign policy By critically analyzing several cases from different geographical locations this volume explains why Turkey developed a new foreign policy framework and by which mechanisms this new foreign policy framework has been implemented around the world This volume also critically explores how the new Turkish foreign policy framework customizes its tools and capacities in various international regions around the world

Human Security in the Middle East and North Africa Alaa Al-Din Arafat,2024-12-20

This book analyzes major human security threats in the MENA region including food water energy climate and health security It also examines sectarian conflict terrorism and poverty in the region The author highlights the relationship between human security concerns and conventional or military security threats He demonstrates how MENA nations failed to respond to the region's human security threats and to develop a human security formula and regional security architecture that included both human and conventional security threats Therefore this book concludes that the MENA region's future will be determined by its governments ability to address human security threats

Euro-Mediterranean Security: A Search for Partnership Sven Biscop, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 This work provides a clearer understanding of the EU's approach towards security in the Mediterranean After examining the EU's interests and the potential threats to security in the region it analyzes EU security policy towards the region as a whole through the Euro Mediterranean Partnership and towards all disputes and conflicts in the area It recommends opening up the European Security and Defence Policy to Mediterranean participation in order to establish a deep and equitable security partnership between both shores The book argues that this way the EU could implement its innovative comprehensive and co operative approach to security Rather than focusing on the military aspect alone this approach takes into account all dimensions of security political socio economic cultural and ecological and is based on partnership rather than confrontation It therefore contrasts quite sharply with the policies advocated in the US National Security Strategy
