British working class male novelists and I selected British woman writers from Writing on the Line and found that most of them now have Wikipedia pages I first made a list of links Wanting to take this further I first looked to focus on novels and short story writers but this category started to break up as many writers wrote in many idioms producing fact fiction poetry plays screenwriting and journalism I decided on an arbitrary cut off point of writers born before 1962 When I first made the list I was thinking how few working class women novelists had been published in this period But then the lists of books by each author started to stack up and there s plenty to read and much that I missed even really hearing about Of course it focuses on the most successful others who produced a community published autobiography or self published novel did not get a Wikipedia page and they should really be included every life counts Others only published an autobiography perhaps in the last years of life but were extraordinary writers and people We could also discuss the genre snobbery in literary circles that puts crime young peoples literature romantic and fantasy fiction and perhaps historical based narratives in a lower category than the novel

Good Wives Margaret Forster, 2012-07-31 What is a good wife The bestselling author of Hidden Lives explores four marriages including her own in different times and societies to find the answer In 1848 Mary Moffatt became the wife of the missionary and explorer David Livingstone and her obedience and devotion eventually killed her In 1960 Margaret Forster married her school sweetheart Hunter Davies in a London Registry Office and interpreted the role very differently Between these two marriages is a huge gulf in which the notion of marriage changed immeasurably Forster traces the shift in emphasis from submission to partnership first through the marriage of one unconventional American Fanny Osbourne to Robert Louis Stevenson in the late nineteenth century and then through that of Jennie Lee to Aneurin Bevan in the 1930s Why does a woman still want to be a wife in the twenty first century What is the value of marriage today Why do couples still marry in church These are some of the questions Forster asks as she weaves the personal experience of forty years through the stories of three wives who have long fascinated her
