

The book cover features a dark, atmospheric photograph of a city at night. In the background, several tall, illuminated skyscrapers rise against a deep blue sky. In the foreground, a bridge or highway is visible, with blurred streaks of red and yellow light from cars, suggesting motion. The title is printed in large, bold, white capital letters in the upper right, while the subtitle is in smaller, orange capital letters below it. The author's name is in white capital letters at the bottom right.

The Territories of Identity Soumyen Bandyopadhyay, Guillermo Garma Montiel, 2013-11-20 The expedited globalised process of exchange and new forms of cultural production have transformed old established notions of identity calling into question their conceptual foundations This book explores the spatial and representational dimension of this phenomenon by addressing how the reshaping of the key themes of place architecture and memory are altering the nature as well as our understanding of identity Cutting across boundaries the book drives discussion of identity beyond the well worn concern for its loss within a globalised context and importantly provides links between identity place memory and representation in architecture Examining a range of case studies from Australia Germany India Japan Mexico Poland Puerto Rico Turkey and Singapore as well as with contributions cutting across geographical and temporal boundaries this volume addresses such issues as architecture technology place and memory critical issues in the monitoring and mapping of identity shift within a rapidly globalising context With contributions from renowned authors in the field including Nicholas Temple Patsy Hely Robert Brown Liane Lefaivre John Hendrix Ana Souto Fiona MacLaren Stephen Walker Nezar AlSayyad Andrzej Piotrowski Catherine Ettinger Luz Marie Rodriguez and Raymond Quek this book presents fresh insights and diverse perspectives on the evolving question of identity and globalisation

The Making of Sporting Cultures John Hughson, 2013-09-13 The Making of Sporting Cultures presents an analysis of western sport by examining how the collective passions and feelings of people have contributed to the making of sport as a way of life The popularity of sport is so pronounced in some cases that we speak of certain sports as national pastimes Baseball in the United States soccer in Britain and cricket in the Caribbean are among the relevant examples discussed Rather than regarding the historical development of sport as the outcome of passive spectator reception this work is interested in how sporting cultures have been made and developed over time through the active engagement of its enthusiasts This is to study the history of sport not only from below but also from within as a means to understanding the deep relationship between sport and people within class contexts the middle class as well as the working class Contestation over the making of sport along axes of race gender and class are discussed where relevant A range of cultural writers and theorists are examined in regard to both how their writing can help us understand the making of sport and as to how sport might be located within an overall cultural context in different places and times The book will appeal to students and academics within humanities disciplines such as cultural studies history and sociology and to those in sport studies programmes interested in the historical cultural and social aspects of sport This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society

Topophilia and Topophobia Xing Ruan, Paul Hogben, 2020-10-28 This book is about the love and hate relations that humans establish with their habitat which have been coined by discerning modern thinkers as topophilia and topophobia Whilst such affiliations with the topos our manmade as well as natural habitat have been traced back to antiquity a wide range of twentieth century cases are studied here and reflected upon by dwelling on this framework The book provides a timely reminder that the qualitative aspects of the topos sensual as well as intellectual should not be disregarded in the face of rapid technological development and the mass of building that has occurred since the turn of the millennium Topophilia and Topophobia offers speculative and historical reflections on the human habitat of the century that has just passed authored by some of the world's leading scholars and architects including Joseph Rykwert Yi Fu Tuan Vittorio Gregotti and Jean Louis Cohen Human habitats ranging broadly from the cities of the twentieth century highbrow modern architecture both in Western countries and in Asia to non architect planner designed vernacular settlements and landscapes are reviewed under the themes of topophilia and topophobia across the disciplines of architecture landscape studies philosophy human geography and urban planning

economic and architectural history this book explores the role of key patrons in Siena's urban projects including Pope Pius II Piccolomini and his family and the quasi despot Pandolfo Petrucci Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology Julia Twigg, Wendy Martin, 2015-06-12 Later years are changing under the impact of demographic social and cultural shifts No longer confined to the sphere of social welfare they are now studied within a wider cultural framework that encompasses new experiences and new modes of being Drawing on influences from the arts and humanities and deploying diverse methodologies visual literary spatial and theoretical perspectives Cultural Gerontology has brought new aspects of later life into view This major new publication draws together these currents including Theory and Methods Embodiment Identities and Social Relationships Consumption and Leisure and Time and Space Based on specially commissioned chapters by leading international authors the Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology will provide concise authoritative reviews of the key debates and themes shaping this exciting new field Utopias and Architecture Nathaniel Coleman, 2007-05-07 Utopian thought though commonly characterized as projecting a future without a past depends on golden models for re-invention of what is Through a detailed and innovative re-assessment of the work of three architects who sought to represent a utopian content in their work and a consideration of the thoughts of a range of leading writers Coleman offers the reader a unique perspective of idealism in architectural design With unparalleled depth and focus of vision on the work of Le Corbusier Louis I Kahn and Aldo van Eyck this book persuasively challenges predominant assumptions in current architectural discourse forging a new approach to the invention of welcoming built environments and transcending the limitations of both the postmodern and hyper-modern stance and orthodox modernist architecture The Seduction of Place Joseph Rykwert, 2013-11-06 No other place on earth is as full both of promise and of dread as the city it is at once alienating and exciting These concentrations of people have not however come about as the result of vast immutable impersonal forces but because of human choices The worsening or betterment of urban life will also be the result of choices Our choices That cities display and represent the personal desires of their inhabitants is central to Joseph Rykwert's argument in The Seduction of Place Insisting that they are the physical constructs of communities he travels through history to trace their roots in ancient times and outlines current attempts and future possibilities to improve the metropolis Rykwert includes a broad range of urban landscapes 18th and 19th century Paris and London the current sprawl of Mexico City and Cairo planned cities like Brasilia and finally New York the world capital Always opinionated and often controversial Rykwert assesses how and why urban projects from the past succeeded or failed and what lessons can be drawn from them for the future Ultimately The Seduction of Place is a deeply felt and powerfully reasoned call for a commitment by every citizen to the creation of a more humane place to live Blueprint for Reconstruction Vincent Frank Bedogno, 2010-04-14 Inspired by a vision of soaring towers high speed transit cars pristine skies and blossoming gardens we move beyond today's automobile based urban model and embrace a design where the freedom of the individual is paramount and the human energy that defines city life flows unimpeded within an urban matrix engineered to allow for its highest expression Author Vincent Frank Bedogne drafts a blueprint for what humanity's Evolution of Consciousness and adoption of Economics of Fulfillment make it possible to achieve perfection of life on earth We draw a plan for reconstruction of the earth's urban and ecological infrastructure the city of tomorrow the countryside of tomorrow how we will get around and communicate We embrace a new environmentalism explore future sources of energy reveal the solution to humanity's present energy crisis and look at how we will build to withstand the climatic rigors imposed by a biosphere in evolution Discourse and Crisis Antoon De Rycker,Zuraidah Mohd Don,2013-12-15 Discourse and Crisis Critical perspectives brings together an exciting collection of studies into crisis as text and context as unfolding process and unresolved problem Crisis is viewed as a complex phenomenon that in its prevalence disruptiveness and appearance of inevitability is both socially produced and discursively constituted The book offers multiple critical perspectives in depth linguistically informed analyses of the discourses of power and collaboration implicated in crisis construal and recovery detailed examination of the critical role that language plays during the crisis life cycle and further problematization of the semiotic material complexity of crisis and its usefulness as an analytical concept The research focus is on the discursive and interactive mediation of crisis in organizational political and media texts The volume contains contributions from across the world offering a polyphonic overview of discourse and crisis research This impressive volume will be useful to researchers and academics working on the intersection of crisis language and communication It is also of interest to practitioners in organizational management politics and policy and media

Tragic Views of the Human Condition Lourens Minnema,2013-06-06 Can tragic views of the human condition as known to Westerners through Greek and Shakespearean tragedy be identified outside European culture in the Indian culture of Hindu epic drama In what respects can the Mahabharata epic's and the Bhagavadgita's views of the human condition be called tragic in the Greek and Shakespearean senses of the word Tragic views of the human condition are primarily embedded in stories Only afterwards are these views expounded in theories of tragedy and in philosophical anthropologies Minnema identifies these embedded views of human nature by discussing the ways in which tragic stories raise a variety of anthropological issues issues such as coping with evil suffering war death values power sacrifice ritual communication gender honour injustice knowledge fate freedom Each chapter represents one cluster of tragic issues that are explored in terms of their particular Greek English Indian settings before being compared cross culturally In the end the underlying question is are Indian views of the human condition very different from Western views The Patina of Place Kingston Wm Heath,2001 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the booming textile industry turned many New England towns and villages into industrialized urban centers This rapid urbanization transformed not only the economic base but the regional identity of communities such as New Bedford as new housing forms emerged to accommodate the largely immigrant workforce of the mills The Form of Cities Alexander R. Cuthbert,2008-04-15 The Form of Cities offers readers a considered theoretical introduction to the art of designing cities Demonstrates that cities are replete with symbolic values collective memory association and conflict Proposes a new theoretical understanding of urban design based in political economy Demonstrates different ways of conceptualising the city whether through aesthetics or the prism of gender for example Written in an engaging and jargon free style but retains a sophisticated interpretative edge Complements Designing Cities by the same author Blackwell 2003 Cities in the World: 1500-2000: v. 3 Adrian Green, 2018-12-13 Papers presented at the Cities in the World conference held at Southampton University and organised through the Society for Post Medieval Archaeology challenged the commonly held perception that cities are about the present and the future not about the past All cities have an innate sense of the past and this volume encompassing as it does Visualizing the City Alan

Marcus, Dietrich Neumann, 2024-11-01 This anthology presents a range of interdisciplinary explorations into the urban environment through film photography digital imagery maps and signage Contributors examine our fascination with the city through the history of art and architecture urban studies environmental studies cultural geography and screen studies Bringing together a wide spectrum of urban contexts Visualizing the City's diverse essays explore visual representations of urbanism and modernity reflected through the prism of global cultures using an engaging variety of methods and texts

Utopia(s) - Worlds and Frontiers of the Imaginary Maria do Rosário Monteiro, Mário S. Ming Kong, Maria João Pereira Neto, 2016-11-03 The idea of Utopia springs from a natural desire of transformation of evolution pertaining to humankind and therefore one can find expressions of utopian desire in every civilization Having to do explicitly with human condition Utopia accompanies closely cultural evolution almost as a symbiotic organism Maintaining its roots deeply attached to ancient myths utopian expression followed and sometimes preceded cultural transformation Through the next almost five hundred pages virtually one for each year since Utopia was published researchers in the fields of Architecture and Urbanism Arts and Humanities present the results of their studies within the different areas of expertise under the umbrella of Utopia Past present and future come together in one book They do not offer their readers any golden key Many questions will remain unanswered as they should The texts presented in Proportion Harmonies and Identities UTOPIA S WORLDS AND FRONTIERS OF THE IMAGINARY were compiled with the intent to establish a platform for the presentation interaction and dissemination of researches It aims also to foster the awareness and discussion on the topics of Harmony and Proportion with a focus on different utopian visions and readings relevant to the arts sciences and humanities and their importance and benefits for the community at large The Great Inversion and the Future of the American City Alan Ehrenhalt, 2013-01-22 Eye opening and thoroughly engaging this is an indispensable look at American urban suburban society and its future In The Great Inversion Alan Ehrenhalt one of our leading urbanologists reveals how the roles of America's cities and suburbs are changing places young adults and affluent retirees moving in while immigrants and the less affluent are moving out and addresses the implications of these shifts for the future of our society Ehrenhalt shows us how the commercial canyons of lower Manhattan are becoming residential neighborhoods and how mass transit has revitalized inner city communities in Chicago and Brooklyn He explains why car dominated cities like Phoenix and Charlotte have sought to build twenty first century downtowns from scratch while sprawling postwar suburbs are seeking to attract young people with their own form of urbanized experience
