Seeing America First:

See America First Marguerite Shaffer, 2013-08-06 In See America First Marguerite Shaffer chronicles the birth of modern American tourism between 1880 and 1940 linking tourism to the simultaneous growth of national transportation systems print media a national market and a middle class with money and time to spend on leisure Focusing on the See America First slogan and idea employed at different times by railroads guidebook publishers Western boosters and Good Roads advocates she describes both the modern marketing strategies used to promote tourism and the messages of patriotism and loyalty embedded in the tourist experience She shows how tourists as consumers participated in the search for a national identity that could assuage their anxieties about American society and culture Generously illustrated with images from advertisements guidebooks and travelogues See America First demonstrates that the promotion of tourist landscapes and the consumption of tourist experiences were central to the development of an American identity Seeing America University of Rochester. Memorial Art Gallery, 2006 A stunning full color volume that examines 82 pieces in the University of Rochester Memorial Art Gallery's American collection and their connections to American history culture literature and politics Seeing America is the first ever catalog of the University of Rochester Memorial Art Gallery's American collection Founded in 1913 the Memorial Art Gallery was created in conjunction with the University of Rochester so that it would function within a scholarly milieu yet at the same time perform service as a community museum From its conception it has been an ardent advocate for American art which so many counterpart institutions snubbed until at least the 1930s and more often until well after World War II in favor of European and Asian art The 336 page full color volume examines 82 objects and their connections to American history culture literature and politics The 73 articles present a running commentary on each piece by knowledgeable and thoughtful contemporary scholars and artists writing with expertise and insight ultimately presenting a new and deeper understanding that enhances the reader viewer's appreciation of the work The tour ranges from Colonial times to the twenty first century from Maine to Florida to the far West from mighty historical subjects to intimate byways from august figures and events to the humblest and most anonymous The diversity of American experience on display here reminds us that the best American art is inextricably bound up with the essential truths of American experience Green Voices Richard D. Besel, Bernard K. Duffy, 2016-02-25 Essays addressing relatively unknown or unexamined speeches delivered by famous or influential environmental figures The written works of nature's leading advocates from Charles Sumner and John Muir to Rachel Carson and President Jimmy Carter to name a few have been the subject of many texts but their speeches remain relatively unknown or unexamined Green Voices aims to redress this situation After all when it comes to the leaders heroes and activists of the environmental movement their speeches formed part of the fertile earth from which uniquely American environmental expectations assumptions and norms germinated and grew Despite having in common a definitively rhetorical focus the contributions in this book reflect a variety of methods and approaches Some concentrate on a single speaker and a single speech Others look at several speeches Some are historical in orientation while others are more theoretical In other words this collection examines the broad sweep of US environmental history from the perspective of our most famous and influential environmental figures Pilgrimage to the National Parks Lynn Ross-Bryant,2013 National Parks America s Best Idea were from the first seen as sacred sites embodying the God given specialness of American people and American land and from the first they were also marked as tourist attractions The inherent tensions between these two realities ensured the parks would be stages where the country s conflicting values would be performed and contested As pilgrimage sites embody the values and beliefs of those who are drawn to them so Americans could travel to these sacred places to honor experience and be restored by the powers that had created the American land and the American enterprise This book explores the importance of the discourse of nature in American culture arguing that the attributes and symbolic power that had first been associated with the new world and then the frontier were embodied in the National Parks Author Ross Bryant focuses on National Parks as pilgrimage sites around which a discourse of nature developed and argues the centrality of religion in understanding the dynamics of both the language and the ritual manifestations related to National Parks Beyond the specific contribution to a richer analysis of the National Parks and their role in understanding nature and religion in the U S this volume contributes to the emerging field of religion and the environment larger issues in the study of religion e g cultural events and the spatial element in meaning making and the study of non institutional religion Regional Visionaries and Metropolitan Boosters Matthew Dalbey,2002-06-30 Dalbey Jackson State U hypothesizes that US regional parkways of the 1920s and 1930s emerged out of two conflicting visions of regional planning and examines how the conflict impacted the development of Skyline Drive in Virginia and the proposed Green Mountain Parkway in Vermont The regional view he says coalesced around the work of Benton MacKaye Lewis Mumford and the Regional Planning Association of America and the metropolitan view grew out of market oriented economic boosterism efforts and was supported by Thomas Adams and the Regional Plan of New York and its Environs He also shows how the tussle between vision and reality social reform or economic optimization continues to inform planning Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR American Druggist and Pharmaceutical Record ,1916 Proceedings of the ...
