A Christian Theology on Man's Need of Redemption, God's Redemptive Purpose, and Christ's Redemptive Work Dr. John Thomas Wylie, 2019-10-31 This publication A Christian Theology On Man's Need Of Redemption God's Redemptive Purpose And Christ's Redemptive Work is proposed to cover commonly three points in the field of Christian doctrine I understand the treatment is insufficient The idea of the subject blocks sufficiency Who could give a sufficient treatment to such a subject There are radical and quick changes occurring in the field of theology One endeavors the supposition that the vast majority of the progressions are currently the correct way Men are turning their contemplations toward the need and reality of revelation of man's wrongdoing sin and powerlessness of both the individual and social disappointment of man without God of the sufficiency of God's grace for man's need and of the centrality of Jesus Christ and his saving work for mankind's history The matter of Christian religious theology is to analyze and set out as exactly as possible precisely as could be allowed how God saves men in this truly evil world not to hypothesize about what God would have done in an entirely different sort of world It ought to be recalled that theology is concerned first last and constantly with the character of God Theology is concerned about nothing else other than to express how God saves men in an evil world Man does not live by bread alone It is increasingly essential that man have something to live for than that he have something to live on and existence without God isn't true life Present day man needs to confront that reality and acknowledge it No mention of the work of the Holy Spirit is mentioned for it is covered in a previous publication entitled The Holy Spirit Finally Reverend Dr Wylie is devoted to publishing books that spread the gospel of Jesus Christ helping Christians to live as per that gospel advance restoration revival in the church give testimony regarding Jesus Christ Christian Unity and Fellowship in Christian Love
