

A man and a woman are separated by a chain-link fence. The man, on the left, is wearing a green plaid shirt and blue jeans, leaning against the fence and looking towards the woman. The woman, on the right, is wearing a black jacket and shorts, standing on top of the fence and looking back at him. The background is a cloudy sky.

Single Girl's Manifesta Jerusha Stewart, 2005-11 Ever wonder why you're the last single girl among all your married girlfriends? Do you have a gorgeous, talented, witty daughter, sister, or best friend who just can't seem to find the perfect mate? Don't stress; you and that fabulous woman you know have something in common with 96 million other Americans: You're single. Let's face it: if you're single, it's because you CHOOSE to be, not because you're DOOMED to be. The Single Girl's Manifesta is glorious vindication for those who are not held captive literally or figuratively by the tyranny of the "We." After author Jerusha Stewart found herself wondering about her own single status, she interviewed hundreds of compatriots across the country about their choice to remain single. Jerusha leaves no stone unturned as she explores the pleasures of single living. You may be the last single girl in your crowd, but you've saved the best for last. The Single Girl's Manifesta lets readers in on how to value being single, not be daunted by dating mishaps, manage life's milestones when you're unmarried, banish the fear of buying a home, dining out, or traipsing round the world solo. Embrace the inner truths that lead you to finally answer the question: Why am I single? This outlandish ode to singles is packed with engaging quizzes, revitalizing rituals, sizzling love letters, and a killer recipe for Morning After French Toast. It's for the woman who has it all without having to tie the knot. So the next time you and your girlfriends are about to indulge in another poor single-me conversation, open this book instead and jumpstart the sensational solo life you deserve.

Parenting Brett Ullman, 2020-07-31 After more than two decades and over two thousand presentations, my interactions with parents reveal that although most want to learn and parent their best, they feel ill-equipped. Kids don't come with manuals. The goal of this book is to equip and empower you as a parent, grandparent, or youth leader to help kids navigate all aspects of life in the current culture. How do we sift through the unending philosophies on parenting and be intentional in how we choose what's best for our family? The number of voices is overwhelming. This book distills the essential elements of parenting so you can apply them in your own home. It approaches parenting from a Christian perspective and is filled with practical advice that is applicable to everyone. As we explore the foundations of parenting, we will look at: Parenting: What are the stages of parenting? What is the current state of parenting? What is the purpose of parenting? Parenting styles: What are they and which ones should I be using? What might I need to alter about my current parenting style? Progression of parenting: What are the skills our children need to learn? Time: What does quality time and being present with my kids look like Communication How can I gain better communication skills so that I can more effectively connect with my kids Discipline How do I effectively discipline my children Family discipleship Why is our worldview important and how we can raise kids with a Christian worldview Mental Health How do we address issues like anxiety panic attacks and depression Engaging the Culture How do we empower our kids to engage the culture around us without compromising their faith Media How can we help our kids navigate technology Sexuality How do we direct our kids towards healthy sexuality Pornography What is the prevalence of pornography and how do we address its impact on our kids Dating How do we best avoid pitfalls in dating Finances and education How can we help our children make sound financial and education choices Drugs and alcohol What tools are available to assist in drug proofing our kids Loneliness How do we prevent disconnection in our kids and help them to create community
