Kenneth Cole, Kenneth Cole Ph.D., 2011-04-01 Messengers of Love, Light & Grace Terry Lynn Taylor, 2011-02-08 Time and time again as humans we box ourselves into corners, lose sight of the important things, and fail to heed the creative and intuitive voices that offer us assistance. According to Terry Lynn Taylor, one of the best known and well-recognized experts on angels, it is in such moments that we should turn to angels. They are always there to help. All we have to do is ask. In her new book Messengers of Love, Light and Grace, Terry explains how to recognize and access the angels in our lives. She offers a creative approach for having our wants and needs met by calling on our angels to work their magic. According to Terry, this process is far more than angels simply answering our prayers. Rather, they guide us in the right direction through intuitive communications that allow us to generate the answers to our questions and problems ourselves.

The Asymptote of Love James Kellenberger, 2018-10-16 In The Asymptote of Love, James Kellenberger develops a theory of religious love that resists essentialist definitions of the term and brings into conversation historical debates on love in Western philosophy and Christian theology. He argues that if love can be likened to a mathematical asymptote—which is a straight line that infinitely approaches a curve but never quite reaches it—then the asymptote of love reaches toward the infinite endpoint of love at its uttermost: namely, God's love. Drawing upon a broad range of thinkers who have put forth classic debates on love, such as St. Augustine of Hippo, Anders Nygren, and St. Thomas Aquinas, as well as some lesser-known figures in the debate, such as Leo Tolstoy and Albert Schweitzer, Kellenberger explains the profound connection between human agape and God's infinite love in its capacity to offer both directive guidance and to exist beyond human conception.

Moral Responsibility, Authenticity, and Education Ishtiyaque Haji, Stefaan E. Cuypers, 2008-06-25 The primary purpose of this book is to explain the distinction on the one hand between indoctrination and education and on the other between responsibility subverting manipulation and mere causation Both are elucidated by an appeal to common ground an account of when our motivations and other springs of action are truly our own or authentic The book progresses from analyses of the sort of agency that responsibility requires and the authenticity of our motivations together with a discussion of the relevance of these analyses to manipulation and related problems in the philosophy of education to a defense of the thesis that responsibility from love s standpoint is of vital significance and the implications of this thesis for what the authors deem to be legitimate goals of education and other issues in free will Philosophers and advanced students working in free will moral psychology and the philosophy of education will find this text to be extremely useful
