Love Talk A Model Of Erotic Communication:

Love Talk Natalie Bacon, Ralph Bacon, 1985 The New Ourselves, Growing Older Paula Brown Doress-Worters, Diana Laskin Siegal, 1994 Offers women over forty advice on housing health and more Books in Print Supplement, 1985 Communication Yearbook 35 Charles T. Salmon, 2012-03-28 Communication Yearbook 34 continues the tradition of publishing state of the discipline literature reviews and essays Editor Charles T Salmon presents a volume that is highly international and interdisciplinary in scope with authors and chapters representing the broad global interests of the International Communication Association The volume is organized into three sections pertaining to interdisciplinary theory normative ideals and political realities and communication and societies in transition Internationally renowned scholars serve as respondents for the three sections With a blend of chapters emphasizing timely public policy concerns and enduring theoretical questions this volume will be valuable to scholars throughout the discipline of communication studies

Erotic Communications George N. Gordon, 1980 Sexualities: Some elements for an account of the social organisation of sexualities Kenneth Plummer, 2002 Volume 3 Difference and Diversity of Sexualities This section examines the politics power and critique of sexual categories including bisexuality sex addiction prostitution and sadomasochism

Desire for Love Marina Ragachewskaya, 2012-11-15 Desire for Love The Secret Longings of the Human Heart in D H Lawrence's Works is a collection of essays dedicated to several novels novellas short stories and non fiction by D H Lawrence one of the great 20th century English writers With the help of the psychoanalytic textual approach Marina Ragachewskaya analyses subtle expressions of the emotional sphere in Lawrence's characters and their desire for love which is realised linguistically stylistically and symbolically The discussion of the writer's textual subtleties suggests emotional education and intellectual delight The book offers an outline of Lawrence's own psychoanalytic theory and how it is implemented in his fiction Specific issues such as love discourse the unnamed eros a Jungian quest in search of love Doppelgangers love of power and the power of love sublimation and the language of dance as well as love in the time of war pertain to the discovery of unconscious desires and a culture of feeling in Lawrence Comparisons with other authors are surprisingly rare in Lawrence studies To fill this gap the volume also contains an essay on Lawrence's war stories analysed alongside Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway and Pat Barker's Regeneration This inquiry into genuine human feeling will be equally attractive to literature scholars students and general readers

Ourselves, Growing Older Paula Brown Doress-Worters, Diana Laskin Siegal, 1987 For women over age thirty five Teaching, Friendship and Humanity Nuraan Davids, Yusef Waghid, 2020-08-27 This book extends liberal understandings in and about democratic citizenship education in relation to university pedagogy more specifically higher teaching and learning The authors argument is in defence of cultivating humanity through higher educational encounters on the basis of virtues that connect with the idea of love Unlike romantic and erotic love the book examines love in relation to educational encounters whereby humans or citizens can engage autonomously deliberatively and responsibly yet lovingly The rationale for focussing on the notion of philia love in educational encounters the authors argue is that doing so allows our current understandings of such encounters to be expanded beyond mere talk of reasonable engagements autonomous action deliberative iterations and simple action toward emotive enactments that could enhance human relations in educational encounters

Dante in Conversation with Contemporary Theorists Blaise Cirelli, 2024-12-09 Dante's Divine Comedy appears on the reading list of almost every university's Humanities Studies department But often it is thought of as a relic from the past What if instead of considering the Divine Comedy as a historical artifact one engaged the text as a work pertinent to the moment Can we learn anything about our present situation by reading the Divine Comedy Blaise Cirelli brings the Divine Comedy to life by challenging readers to consider how contemporary theorists might question Dante about his work Where would Dante and the theorists agree and where might they disagree And which side might the reader of this text choose This book will both enrich our understanding of Dante's Divine Comedy and challenge us to think afresh about our own beliefs

The Body, Desire and Storytelling in Novels by J. M. Coetzee Olfa Belgacem, 2018-10-26 Asserting that Coetzee's representation of the body as subject to dismemberment counters the colonial representation of the other's body as exotic and erotically charged this study inspects the ambivalence pertaining to Coetzee's embodied representation of the other and reveals the risks that come with such contrapuntal reiteration Through the study of the narrative identity of the colonial other and her his body's representation the book also unveils the author's own authorial identity exposed through the repetitive narrative patterns and characterization choices

Díaz,2022-09-13 Queer God de Amor explores the mystery of God and the relationship between divine and human persons It does so by turning to the sixteenth century writings of John of the Cross on mystical union with God and the metaphor of sexual relationship that he uses to describe this union Juan s mystical theology which highlights the notion of God as lover and God's erotic like relationship with human persons provides a fitting source for rethinking the Christian doctrine of God in John's own words as un no sé qué (I know not what). In critical conversations with contemporary queer theologies it retrieves from John a preferential option for human sexuality as an experience in daily life that is rich with possibilities for re-sourcing and imagining the Christian doctrine of God. Consistent with other liberating perspectives it outs God from heteronormative closets and restores human sexuality as a resource for theology. This outing of divine queerness that is the ineffability of divine life helps to align reflections on the mystery of God with the faith experiences of queer Catholics. By engaging Juan de la Cruz through queer Latinx eyes Miguel D. Az continues the objective of this series to disrupt the cartography of theology latinamente.
