Mathew And Margins:

Matthew and the Margins Warren Carter,2000 This verse by verse commentary presents the Gospel of Matthew as a counter narrative that shapes the group of Jesus followers as an alternative community able to resist the dominant authorities both in Rome and in the synagogue The Gospel anticipates the time when Jesus will return and establish God s reign over all including the powers in Rome Breaking Matthew into five narrative blocks Carter carefully considers historical literary cultural and ecclesial factors as he explores the themes of marginality and power A masterful introduction outlines these approaches and surveys other studies on Matthew

God Will Judge Each One According to Works Kyoung-Shik Kim,2011 This monograph provides a fresh perspective on judgment according to works by challenging both the majority scholarly view and the new perspective advocated by E P Sanders James D G Dunn and N T Wright Employing intertextuality and early Jewish mediation of scripture this study examines the idea of judgment according to works with reference to Psalm 62 13 in early Jewish literature and the New Testament The originality of this study is to highlight the significance of Psalm 62 13 in the context of judgment according to works and to argue that the texts dealing with judgment according to works in the New Testament are to be understood as interpretations of Psalm 62 13 and its broad context

Regulating Pharmaceutical Prices in India Ajay Bhaskarabhatla,2018-08-01 This book presents an extensive study on the effectiveness of recent regulations on pharmaceutical prices in India exploring the weaknesses in the design and implementation of pharmaceutical price controls and investigating what can be done to fix the broken system In addition it examines the extent to which essential medicines are actually made affordable by price controls The book argues that companies make the pharmaceutical price control regime largely ineffective by coordinating to increase pre regulation prices by diversifying horizontally away from the regulated markets and increasing prices in the unregulated markets by manipulating trade margins and by refusing to comply with the regulation because the penalties remains negligible The book draws on extensive empirical research involving India s 2013 Drug Price Control Order and widely used medicines such as paracetamol and metformin to illustrate how firms have weakened regulation It argues that the regulatory regime can be strengthened by using systematic analysis of product and region level data in the Indian pharmaceutical industry and by screening for the strategies that firms currently employ to circumvent regulation In closing it discusses recent efforts to strengthen the implementation of price controls in India and expanding the scope of price controls to medical devices

European Garden Flora Stuart Max Walters, James Cullen, 1984 The European Garden Flora is the definitive manual for the accurate identification of cultivated ornamental plants It is designed to meet the highest scientific standards but the vocabulary is kept as uncomplicated as possible so that it is fully accessible to the informed gardener and landscape architect as well as to the professional botanists Although based upon Europe the series will be an extremely useful reference on plants in cultivation throughout the world Families genera and species are described keys are provided and guidance is given on the cultivation of each genus Volume I is the first in a series of six it contains accounts of the ferns and their allies the conifers and 16 families of monocotyledons including the Liliaceae Amaryllidaceae and Iridaceae to which most of the popular bulbous garden plants belong      Imperial Powers and Humanitarian Interventions Raphaël Cheriau, 2021-05-03 In the second half of the nineteenth century the Zanzibar Sultanate became the focal point of European imperial and humanitarian policies most notably Britain France and Germany In fact the Sultanate was one of the few places in the world where humanitarianism and imperialism met in the most obvious fashion This crucial encounter was perfectly embodied by the iconic meeting of Dr Livingstone and Henry Morton Stanley in 1871 This book challenges the common presumption that those humanitarian concerns only served to conceal vile colonial interests It brings the repression of the East African slave trade at sea and the expansion of empires into a new light in comparing French and British archives for the first time Raphaël Cheriau argues that the brutal power politics of recent humanitarian interventions have shaped historians perspectives on earlier interventions but that he is able to escape these present day sensibilities in his approach to British and French interventions in nineteenth century eastern Africa While I might challenge that suggestion nonetheless he offers historians a valuable book that explores in detail the way imperialists of the nineteenth century did and did not use humanitarianism as a justification for their work in eastern Africa Elisabeth MacMahon The English Historical Review The author weaves together a rich trove of primary documents from both British and French archives some of these have been fruitfully exploited by previous historians others reflect Cheriau s energetic digging to go beyond the obvious He also draws upon an equally dense corpus of published primary sources in both languages as well as several contemporary newspapers while his mastery of the secondary literature is impressive Edward Alpers Australian Institute of International Affairs Countries and Regions Guang Yang,Jing Zhang,Lanyu Liu,Xinghan Xiong,2024-08-22 This open access book aims to present the cutting edge research of scholars from the Global South where scholars from developing countries have begun to join in the production of knowledges of Area Studies and have produced a large body of excellent works of Area Studies based on a variety of disciplines Articles of this book have been developed from 11 papers which were presented at the 2nd Tsinghua Area Studies Forum to represent a range of area studies subjects and regions The book is divided into five chapters that either analyze regional country issues regions in the world from the perspective of global linkages and cross regional linkages or discuss internal issues such as national governance ethnicity economy and civil war using the nation state as the unit of analysis

For God or Empire Wilson Chacko Jacob,2019-07-30 Sayyid Fadl a descendant of the Prophet Muhammad led a unique life one that spanned much of the nineteenth century and connected India Arabia and the Ottoman Empire For God or Empire tells his story part biography and part global history as his life and legacy afford a singular view on historical shifts of power and sovereignty religion and politics Wilson Chacko Jacob recasts the genealogy of modern sovereignty through the encounter between Islam and empire states in the Indian Ocean world Fadl s travels in worlds seen and unseen made for a life that was both unsettled and unsettling And through his life at least two forms of sovereignty God and empire become apparent in intersecting global contexts of religion and modern state formation While these changes are typically explained in terms of secularization of the state and the birth of rational modern man the life and afterlives of Sayyid Fadl which take us from eighteenth and nineteenth century Indian Ocean worlds to twenty first century cyberspace offer a more open ended global history of sovereignty and a more capacious conception of life Disorder and Diagnosis Laura Frances Goffman,2024-10-15 Disorder and Diagnosis offers a social and political history of medicine disease and public health in the Persian Gulf from the late nineteenth century until the 1973 oil boom Foregrounding the everyday practices of Gulf residents hospital patients quarantined passengers women migrant nurses and others too often excluded from histories of this region Laura Frances Goffman demonstrates how the Gulf and its Arabian hinterland served as a buffer zone between diseased India and white Europe as a space of scientific translation and ultimately as an object of development In placing health at the center of political and social change this book weaves the Gulf and Arabian Peninsula into global circulations of commodities and movements of people As a collection of institutions and infrastructures pursuits of health created shifting boundaries of rule between imperial officials indigenous elites and local populations As a set of practices seeking to manipulate the natural world health policies compelled scientists and administrators to categorize fluid populations and ambiguous territorialities And as a discourse health facilitated notions of racial difference opposing native uncleanliness to white purity and hygiene and indigenous medicine to modern science Disorder and Diagnosis examines how Gulf residents through their engagements with health fiercely contested and actively shaped state and societal interactions Powering Empire On Barak,2020-03-03

The Age of Empire was driven by coal and the Middle East as an idea was made by coal Coal s imperial infrastructure presaged the geopolitics of oil that wreaks carnage today as carbonization threatens our very climate Powering Empire argues that we cannot promote worldwide decarbonization without first understanding the history of the globalization of carbon energy How did this black rock come to have such long lasting power over the world economy Focusing on the flow of British carbon energy to the Middle East On Barak excavates the historic nexus between coal and empire to reveal the political and military motives behind what is conventionally seen as a technological innovation He provocatively recounts the carbon intensive entanglements of Western and non Western powers and reveals unfamiliar resources such as Islamic risk aversion and Gandhian vegetarianism for a climate justice that relies on more diverse and ethical solutions worldwide
