Catalog of an exhibition held at the Albertina Vienna September 20 2013 January 12 2014      The Fauves Nathalia Brodskaya, 2012-01-16 Born at the dawn of the 20th century Fauvism burst onto the artistic scene at the 1905 Salon d'Automne with great controversy by throwing bright vibrant colours in the face of artistic convention Fuelled by change artists like Matisse Derain and Vlaminck searched for a new chromatic language by using colour out of its habitual context Freed from the strict technique advocated by the cole des Beaux Arts they used blocky colours as their main resource saturating their stunning paintings The author invites us to experience this vivid artistic evolution that although encompassing a short amount of time left its mark on the path to modernity      The Fauves Jean-Louis Ferrier, 1995 This lavishly illustrated book celebrates the work of Matisse Braque Dufy Derain Vlaminck Van Dongen and many other artists who were dubbed Fauves or wild beasts when their work was first introduced in the early 1900s Today these artworks are among the most popular and beloved of all time 170 color illustrations      Vertigo of Color Dita Amory, Ann Dumas, 2023-10-11 During the summer of 1905 Henri Matisse and Andr Derain went on holiday in Collioure a modest French fishing village fifteen miles from the Spanish border This groundbreaking book examines how two artists entranced by the shifting light and stunning imagery of the eastern Mediterranean laid the groundwork for the movement known as Fauvism from the French fauve or wild beast Featuring more than 70 paintings watercolors and drawings produced by Matisse and Derain during their stay the book also brings to life their personal and artistic revelations with 21 of their letters published here for the first time in English Vivid and engaging texts detail their daring experiments with color form structure and perspective the scandal their paintings caused when they were exhibited several months later and how despite the jeering remarks from critics these works changed the course of French painting Emphasizing as never before the legacy of that summer this publication shows how the two artists radical investigations galvanized their contemporaries and how this strain of modernism created almost by accident resonates even into the present day      Fauves and Fauvism Jean Leymarie, 1987 Excited handling of pure colors and drastic simplification of line such was Fauvism the first art revolution of the twentieth century This comprehensive study illustrates the work of some twenty artists French German Dutch and Russian and fills in the essential background of pre Fauvism going back to Monet Gauguin and Van Gogh Back cover      The Art of Matisse Douglas Mannering, Julian Rendall, 1989      The Fauvist Painters Georges Duthuit, 1950      Fauve Painting James D.
