Matisse On Art Documents Of Twentieth Century Art:

Matisse on Art, Revised Edition Henri Matisse, 1995-07-24 Ed Brooklyn College and City University of New York Revised edition Includes new texts introduction biography overview Matisse on Art Henri Matisse, 1995 Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-14 From Picasso's Cubism and Duchamp's readymades to Warhol's silkscreens and Smithson's earthworks the art of the twentieth century broke completely with earlier artistic traditions A basic change in the market for advanced art produced a heightened demand for innovation and young conceptual innovators from Picasso and Duchamp to Rauschenberg and Warhol to Cindy Sherman and Damien Hirst responded not only by creating dozens of new forms of art but also by behaving in ways that would have been incomprehensible to their predecessors Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth Century Art presents the first systematic analysis of the reasons for this discontinuity David W Galenson whose earlier research has changed our understanding of creativity combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a fundamentally new interpretation of modern art that will give readers a far deeper appreciation of the art of the past century and of today than is available elsewhere Primitivism and Twentieth-century Art Jack D. Flam, Miriam Deutch, 2003 This is a much needed important collection a goldmine of sources for scholars and students The texts articulate the key Primitivist aesthetic discourses of the period offering crucial insight into the complex and always changing nexus between culture politics and representation Because of the breadth of the materials covered and the controversies they raise this anthology is one of the all too rare volumes that not only will provide reference materials for years to come but also will feature centrally in classroom discussions Suzanne Preston Blier author of African Vodun Art Psychology and Power For almost a century art historians have fretted about the notion of primitivism in the arts This comprehensive in both senses of the word anthology is a peerless source of the history of responses to works categorized as primitive In its range the book touches upon all the troubling questions formal anthropological political historical that have bedeviled the study of the arts of Oceania Africa and North and South America and provides the grounds at last for intelligent pursuit of keener distinctions I regard this book as a superb contribution to the study of Modern art in fact indispensable Dore Ashton author of Noguchi East and West An extraordinarily useful and complete collection of primary documents many translated for the first time into English and almost all unlikely to be encountered elsewhere without serious effort Its five sections each with a lively and scholarly introduction reveal the diverse views of artists and writers on primitive art from Matisse Picasso and Fry to many far less known and sometimes surprising figures The book also uncovers the politics and aesthetics of the major museum exhibitions that gained acceptance for art that had been both reviled and mythologized Recent texts included are all germane This book will be invaluable for any college course on the topic Shelly Errington author of The Death of Authentic Primitive Art and Other Tales of Progress An exceptionally valuable anthology of seventy documents most heretofore unavailable in English on the ongoing controversies surrounding Primitivism and Modern art Insightfully chosen and annotated the collection is brilliantly introduced by Jack Flam's essay on the historical progression contexts and cultural complexities of more than one hundred years' ideas about Primitivism. Rich, timely illuminating Herbert M. Cole, author of Icons, Ideals and Power in the Art of Africa. 20th Century Art: a Resource for Educators (in Acq) Stella Paul, 1999. Presents thirty-one paintings with notes about the works, strategies for discussion and writings by selected artists. Accompanying videocassette is about the work Water Stone by Isamu Noguchi. The Spiritual in Twentieth-Century Art Roger Lipsey, 2011-10-20. Compelling, well-illustrated study focuses on the works of Kandinsky, Mondrian, Klee, Picasso, Duchamp, Matisse and others. Citations from letters, diaries and interviews provide insights into the artists' views. 121 black and white illustrations. Documents of Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Art Charles R. McCurdy, 1963. Biographical Dictionary of Literary Influences John Powell, 2000-10-30. Over the past two decades the process of cultural development and in particular the role of reading has been of growing interest but recent research has been episodic and idiosyncratic. In this biographical dictionary research devoted specifically to the reading habits of 19th century individuals who shaped Western culture is brought together for the first time. While giving prominent coverage to literary and political figures, the volume's 270 entries also include musicians, painters, educators and explorers. Each entry includes brief biographical information, a concise summary of literary influences on the subject and clear direction for further research. The book provides a practical tool for scholars wishing to trace the reading experience of important Western cultural figures. Subjects were selected from the people most responsible for the cultural development of Europe, Britain and the British Empire and the Americas between 1800 and 1914. Although selective, the sample of 270 figures is substantial enough to suggest broad cross-cultural habits and effects, enabling scholars to better understand the relationship between reading and culture. In an introductory essay, Powell explores the patterns and relationships that can be discerned from the entries. The first of three anticipated volumes, the book is an important step forward in researching the role of reading in cultural development. The Making of Modern Art Michael Peppiatt, 2020-05-05. A new collection of key texts from a leading critic of modern art. The critic Michael Peppiatt has been described by Art Newspaper as the best art writer of his generation. For more than 50 years he has written trenchant and lively dispatches from the center of the international art world. In this new volume of key works, Peppiatt gives his unique insight into the making, collection, display and interpretation of modern art. Covering the whole spectrum of modern art from pioneers such as Gustav Klimt and Chaim Soutine to collectors and dealers who played a pivotal role in the modern art world to artists such as Francis Bacon, Bill Jacklin and Frank Auerbach, with whom he had close relationships, Peppiatt interweaves personal anecdote with critical judgment. Each text is accompanied by a new short introduction written in Peppiatt's signature, vivid and jargon-free style in which he contextualizes his writings and reflects on significant moments in a lifetime of artistic engagement. This volume will provide readers with an exhilarating tour of 20th-century art. Modern Perspectives in Western Art History W. Eugene

Sauter, 2021-06-06 This book explores the main currents of European thought between 1350 and 1992 which it approaches in two principal ways culture as produced by place and the progressive unmooring of thought from previously set religious and philosophical boundaries The book reads the period against spatial thought s history spatial sciences such as geography or Euclidean geometry to argue that Europe cannot be understood as a continent in intellectual terms or its history organized with respect to traditional spatial geographic categories Instead we need to understand European intellectual history in terms of a culture that defined its own place as opposed to a place that produced a given culture It then builds on this idea to argue that Europe s overweening drive to know more about humanity and the cosmos continually breached the boundaries set by venerable religious and philosophical traditions In this respect spatial thought foregrounded the human at the unchanging s expense with European thought slowly becoming unmoored as it doggedly produced knowledge at wisdom s expense Michael J Sauter illustrates this by pursuing historical themes across different chapters including European thought s exit from the medieval period the Renaissance the Reformation the Scientific Revolution the Enlightenment and Romanticism the Industrial Revolution and war and culture offering a thorough overview of European thought during this period The book concludes by explaining how contemporary culture has forgotten what early modern thinkers such as Michel de Montaigne still knew namely that too little skepticism toward one s own certainties makes one a danger to others Offering a comprehensive introduction to European thought that stretches from the late fourteenth to the late twentieth century this is the perfect one volume study for students of European intellectual history Blue Arabesque Patricia Hampl, 2007-10-01 These meditations inspired by a Matisse painting are a paean to the act of seeing celebrating our capacity to be transformed by the truths art holds The New York Times Book Review Named a Chicago Tribune Best Book of the Year and a Los Angeles Times Favorite Nonfiction of the Year Just out of college Patricia Hampl was mesmerized by a Matisse painting in the Art Institute of Chicago an aloof woman gazing at goldfish in a bowl a Moroccan screen behind her In Blue Arabesque Hampl explores the allure of this lounging woman immersed in leisure so at odds with the rush of the modern era Hampl s meditation takes us to the Cote d Azur and to North Africa from cloister to harem pondering figures as diverse as Eugene Delacroix F Scott Fitzgerald and Katherine Mansfield Returning always to Matisse s portraits of languid women she discovers they were not decorative indulgences but something much more Moving with the life force that Matisse sought in his work Blue Arabesque is Hampl s dazzling and critically acclaimed tour de force The Fran and Ray Stark Collection of 20th-century Sculpture at the J.
