Matrix of Man S. Moholy-Nagy, 1969 Architecture, City, Environment Koen Steemers, Simos Yannas, 2000 PLEA is a network of individuals sharing expertise in the arts sciences planning and design of the built environment It serves as an international interdisciplinary forum to promote discourse on environmental quality in architecture and planning This 17th PLEA international conference addresses sustainable design with respect to architecture city and environment at the turn of the millennium The central aim of the conference is to explore the interrelationships and integration of architecture city and environment The Proceedings will be of interest to all those involved in bioclimatic design and the application of natural and innovative techniques to architecture and planning The conference is organised by the Martin Centre for Architectural and Urban Studies University of Cambridge and the Cambridge Programme for Industry University of Cambridge Matrix of man: an illustrated history of the urban environment Sibyl Moholy-Nagy, 1968 As I Was Saying, Volume 2 Colin Rowe, 1999-08-18 Colin Rowe has achieved legendary status as one of a handful of outstanding studio teachers of architecture and urban design to emerge within the last two generations His writings reveal the powerful insight and dispassionate authoritative intelligence that mark him as one of the preeminent architectural thinkers of this perplexing half century Divided into three volumes in more or less chronological order As I Was Saying includes articles essays eulogies lectures reviews and memoranda Some appeared only in obscure journals and many are published here for the first time

The Wayfinding Handbook David Gibson, 2009-02-04 Principles of environmental graphic design P 1 of cover The Artist and Political Vision Benjamin R. Barber, Michael J. Gargas McGrath, Art and politics are often regarded as denizens of different realms but few artists have been comfortable with the notion of a purely aesthetic definition of art The artist has a public and thus political vision of the world interpreted by his art no less than the statesman and the legislator have a creative vision of the world they wish to make The sixteen original essays in this volume bear eloquent witness to this interpenetration of art and politics Each confronts the intersection of the aesthetic and the social each is concerned with the interface of poetic vision and political vision of reflection and action They take art in the broadest sense ranging over poets dramatists novelists essayists and filmmakers Their focus is on art and its political dilemmas not simply on the artist They consider the issues raised for politics and culture by alienation violence modernization technology democracy progress and revolution And they debate the capacity of art to stimulate social change and incite revolution the temptations of social control of culture and of political censorship the uncertain relationship between art and history the impact of economic structure on artistic creation and of economic class on artistic product the common ground between art and legislation and between creativity and control Man Makes the City John Udy, 2004 This book provides a well illustrated and readable overview of the urban development phenomenon and is suitable for the sophomore student and the general reader

Pattern of the Past David L. Clarke, Ian Hodder, Glynn Llywelyn Isaac, Norman Hammond, 1981-01-29 The book will be of importance for archaeologists and of interest to anthropologists Architecture and Feminisms Hélène Frichot, Catharina Gabrielsson, Helen Runting, 2017-11-10 Set against the background of a general crisis that is environmental political and social this book examines a series of specific intersections between architecture and feminisms understood in the plural The collected essays and projects that make up the book follow transversal trajectories that criss cross between ecologies economies and technologies exploring specific cases and positions in relation to the themes of the archive control work and milieu This collective intellectual labour can be located amidst a worldwide depletion of material resources a hollowing out of political power and the degradation of constructed and natural environments Feminist positions suggest ways of ethically coping with a world that is becoming increasingly unstable and contested The many voices gathered here are united by the task of putting critical concepts and feminist design tools to use in order to offer experimental approaches to the creation of a more habitable world Drawing inspiration from the active archives of feminist precursors existing and re imagined and by way of a re engagement in the histories theories and projected futures of critical feminist projects the book presents a collection of twenty three essays and eight projects with the aim of taking stock of our current condition and re engaging in our precarious environment worlds Human Factors in Transportation Giuseppe Di Bucchianico, Andrea Vallicelli, Neville A. Stanton, Steven J. Landry, 2016-09-19 More and more the most traditional and typical applied ergonomics issues of the activities related to sea shipping vehicle driving and flying are required to deal with some emerging topics related to the growing automatism and manning reduction the ICT s advances and pervasiveness and the new demographic and social phenomena such as aging or multiculturalism With contributions from expert researchers professionals and doctoral students from a wide number of countries such as Australia Austria Canada Italy Germany the Netherlands Norway Sweden UK and USA this multi contributed book will explore traditional and emerging topics of Human Factors centered around the maritime road rail and aviation transportation domains Topophilia Yi-fu Tuan, 1990 Topophilia and Topophobia offers timely reflections on the human habitat in the 20th century The expression of topophilia and topophobia belong to our time an ambivalence between the love and aversion for a place has been a recurrent paradox in human history Watershed Discipleship Ched Myers, 2016-10-21 This collection introduces and explores watershed discipleship as a critical contextual and constructive approach to ecological theology and practice and features emerging voices from a generation that has grown up under the shadow of climate catastrophe Watershed Discipleship is a triple entendre that recognizes we are in a watershed historical moment of crisis focuses on our intrinsically bioregional locus as followers of Jesus and urges us to become disciples of our watersheds Bibliographic framing essays by Myers trace his journey into a bioregionalist Christian faith and practice and offer reflections on incarnational theology hermeneutics and ecclesiology The essays feature more than a dozen activists educators and practitioners under the age of forty whose work and witness attest to a growing movement of resistance and reimagination across North America This anthology overviews the bioregional paradigm and its theological and political significance for local sustainability restorative justice and spiritual renewal Contributors reread both biblical texts and churchly practices such as mission baptism and liturgy through the lens of replacement Herein is a comprehensive and engaged call for a Transition church that can help turn our history around toward environmental resiliency and social justice by passionate advocates on the front lines of watershed discipleship CONTRIBUTORS Sasha Adkins Jay Beck Teyvyn East Erinn Fahey Katarina Friesen Matt Humphrey Vickie Machado Jonathan McRay Sarah Nolan Reyna Ortega Dave Pritchett Erynn Smith Sarah Thompson Lydia Wylie Kellermann A Glimpse at the Travelogues of Baghdad Iman Al-Attar, 2022-09-19 The history of Baghdad in the 18th and 19th centuries had predominantly been written by two groups The first group is Baghdadi scholars and the second group is travellers These two resources complement each other while the literature of Baghdadi scholars provides insights from inside travelogues provide observations from outside By implementing this interlocking method of investigation we can reach a comprehensive understanding of the history of Baghdad Having investigated some sources from inside in my previous book Baghdad an urban history through the lens of literature the focus of this book is on travel literature The history of travelogues throughout different periods of Baghdad's history is highlighted with a particular focus on 18th and 19th century travelogues This period was a critical epoch of change not just in Baghdad but across the world Nevertheless this book does not intend to provide a documentary of the travellers who visited Baghdad It is rather an analytical study of the colonial literature in relation to the historiography of Baghdad

The Form of Cities Alexander R. Cuthbert, 2008-04-15 The Form of Cities offers readers a considered theoretical introduction to the art of designing cities Demonstrates that cities are replete with symbolic values collective memory association and conflict Proposes a new theoretical understanding of urban design based in political economy Demonstrates different ways of conceptualising the city whether through aesthetics or the prism of gender for example Written in an engaging and jargon free style but retains a sophisticated interpretative edge Complements Designing Cities by the same author Blackwell 2003 New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement, 1977 Class, Caste and Color

Wilmot James, 2017-09-29 This volume is the first general social and economic history of the Western Cape of South Africa Until recently this region had been largely neglected by historians because it does not occupy a central place in the national political economy Wilmot G James and Mary Simons argue that a great deal about modern South Africa has been shaped by the distinctive society and economy of the Western Cape Its history also reveals striking parallels and contrasts with other regions of the African continent The Western Cape is the only region of South Africa to have experienced slavery In this sense the Western Cape has historical traditions more akin to colonial slave societies of the Americas than to those of the rest of Africa Moreover in contrast to the rest of South Africa a proletariat emerged in the Western Cape early in its history at the start of the eighteenth century There developed a much more stable and enduring system of class and labor relations In the twentieth century these became closely enmeshed with race and status Racial paternalism and the close correlation between class caste and color have their historical roots in the Western Cape The book is arranged thematically and explores the social and economic consequences of slavery and emancipation in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Issues of economy and labor such as economic underdevelopment in the Western Cape the labor market and trade union organization in the twentieth century are examined The authors also treat the role of the state in shaping Western Cape society Class Caste and Color is not only a groundbreaking work in the study of South Africa but provides an agenda for future researchers It will be essential reading for historians economists and Africa area specialists Untimely Moderns Eeva-Liisa Pelkonen,2023-01-01 A novel exploration of the idea of nonlinear time and its place at the heart of modern art and architecture Through much of the twentieth century a diverse group of thinkers engaged in an interdisciplinary conversation about the meaning of time and history for modern art and architecture The group included architects Louis Kahn Everett Victor Meeks James Gamble Rogers Paul Rudolph and Eero Saarinen artists Anni and Josef Albers philosopher Paul Weiss and art historians Henri Focillon George Kubler Sibyl Moholy Nagy and Vincent Scully These figures were unified by their resistance to the idea that to be considered modern art and architecture had to be of its time as well as by the pivotal role that Yale University held as a backdrop to their thinking These thinkers sponsored a new kind of approach one that Eeva Liisa Pelkonen terms untimely emphasizing a departure from a sequential course of events Ideas about temporal duration new tradition the presence of the past and the shape of time were among the concepts they explored With an interdisciplinary focus Pelkonen reveals previously unexplored connections among key figures of American intellectual and artistic culture at midcentury whose works and words would shape modern architecture Saturday Review ,1969 Monte Albán's Hinterland, Part II Stephen Kowalewski,Gary Feinman,Laura Finsten,Richard E. Blanton,Linda Nicholas,1989-01-01 This two volume monograph is the final report and synthesis of the Valley of Oaxaca Settlement Pattern Project s full coverage surface survey and makes significant theoretical and methodological contributions to the investigation of social evolution cultural ecology and regional analysis Architecture, Power and National Identity Lawrence Vale,2014-05-01 The first edition of Architecture Power and National Identity published in 1992 has become a classic winning the prestigious Spiro Kostof award for the best book in architecture and urbanism Lawrence Vale fully has fully updated the book which focuses on the relationship between the design of national capitals across the world and the formation of national identity in modernity Tied to this it explains the role that architecture and planning play in the forceful assertion of state power The book is truly international in scope looking at capital cities in the United States India Brazil Sri Lanka Kuwait Bangladesh and Papua New Guinea
