Matt McCarten:

Matt McCarten Cathy Casey, 2002 Everyone has a view of Matt McCarten president of the Alliance wannabe mayor of Auckland aspiring MP trade union leader stutterer pin up boy In public McCarten has been variously described as ruthless Machiavellian manipulative uncompromising frank driven tough honest down to earth A sensitive new age hatchet man A strategic genius A ruthless operator To his supporters on the left he is a saint and to those he opposes he is a demon The private Matt McCarten is much less well known Matt has consistently refused to discuss his past in any detail In this biography Matt s story is told in his own words And it s a heart rending tale This focused political fighting machine evolved from a lonely little boy shunted between orphanages and boys homes in the Wellington region for 14 years His story is one of survival into successful adulthood Cathy Casey is the author of CHANGE FOR THE BETTER THE STORY OF GEORGINA BEYER She worked for a number of years as Jim Anderton s Senior Private Secretary until early 2002 She is Matt McCarten s partner Natural Causes James R. New Parties in Old Party Systems Nicole Bolleyer,2013-09 New Parties in Old Party Systems addresses a pertinent yet neglected issue in comparative party research why are some new parties that enter national parliament able to defend a niche on the national level while others fail to do so Unlike most existing studies which strongly focus on electoral short term success or particular party families this book examines the conditions for the organizational persistence and electoral sustainability of the 140 organizationally new parties that entered their national parliaments in seventeen democracies from 1968 to 2011 The book presents a new theoretical perspective on party institutionalization which considers the role of both structural and agential factors driving party evolution It thereby fills some important lacunae in current cross national research First it theorizes the interplay between structural pre conditions for party building and the choices of party founders and leaders whose interplay shapes parties institutionalization patterns crucial for their evolution before and after entering national parliament Second this approach is substantiated empirically by advanced statistical methods assessing the role of party origin for new party persistence and sustainability These analyses are combined with a wide range of in depth case studies capturing how intra organizational dynamics shape party success and failure By accounting for new parties longer term performance the study sheds light on the conditions under which the spectacular rise of new parties in advanced democracies is likely to substantively change old party systems Comparative Politics is a series for students teachers and researchers of political science that deals with contemporary government and politics Global in scope books in the series are characterised by a stress on comparative analysis and strong methodological rigour The series is published in association with the European Consortium for Political Research For more information visit www.ecprnet.eu
