Matter Of Images Essays On Representations:

The Matter of Images Richard Dyer, 2013-04-15 Now published in a revised second edition The Matter of Images searches through the resonances of the term representation analysing images in terms of why they matter what they are made of and the material realities they refer to Richard Dyer's analyses consider representations of out groups and traditionally dominant groups alike and encompass the eclectic texts of contemporary culture from queers to straights political correctness representations of Empire and films including Gilda Papillon and The Night of the Living Dead Essays new to the second edition discuss Lillian Gish as the ultimate white movie star the representation of whiteness in the South in Birth of a Nation and society's fascination with serial killers The Matter of Images is distinctive in its commitment to writing politically about contemporary culture while insisting on the importance of understanding the formal qualities and complexity of the images it investigates

Representation Stuart Hall, 1997-04-08 This broad ranging text offers a comprehensive outline of how visual images language and discourse work as systems of representation Individual chapters explore representation as a signifying practice in a rich diversity of social contexts and institutional sites the use of photography in the construction of national identity and culture other cultures in ethnographic museums fantasies of the racialized Other in popular media film and image the construction of masculine identities in discourses of consumer culture and advertising and the gendering of narratives in television soap operas

Representations of HIV/AIDS in Contemporary Hispano-American and Caribbean Culture Gustavo Subero, 2016-04-08 Exploring the mechanisms and strategies used in different cultures across Hispano America and the Caribbean to narrativise represent and understand HIV AIDS as a social and human phenomenon this book examines a wide range of cultural artistic and media texts as well as issues of human phenomenology to understand the ways in which HIV positive individuals make sense of their own lives and of the ways in which the rest of society sees them Drawing on a variety of cultural texts from cinema television photography and literature the author considers the manner in which contemporary cultural forms have shaped a body of public opinion in response to the social and cultural impact of HIV AIDS re interpreting the condition in the light of advances in treatment With attention to both the temporality and spatiality of production this book examines whether heterosexual and homosexual and masculine and feminine bodies are narrativised in the same manner considering the question of whether representations foster discrimination of any kind The book also asks whether representations across Latin America are homogenous or varied according to national social or cultural context and explores the commonalities between the representations of HIV AIDS in Hispano America and the Caribbean and other global narratives A detailed study of the various representations of HIV AIDS and the construction of public opinion this book will appeal to scholars of cultural media and film studies the sociology of health the body and illness and Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Representations of Femininity in American Genre Cinema David Greven, 2011-04-25 The theme of female transformation informs the Hollywood representation of femininity

from the studio era to the present Whether it occurs physically emotionally or on some other level transformation allows female protagonists to negotiate their own complex desires and to resist the compulsory marriage plot A sweeping study of Hollywood from Now Voyager The Heiress and Flamingo Road to Carrie the Alien films The Brave One and the slasher horror genre this book boldly unsettles commonplace understandings of genre film female sexuality and Freudian theory as it makes a strong new case for the queer relevance of female representation

Film Noir Jennifer Fay, Justus Nieland, 2009-12-04 The term film noir still conjures images of a uniquely American malaise hard boiled detectives fatal women and the shadowy hells of urban life But from its beginnings film noir has been an international phenomenon and its stylistic icons have migrated across the complex geo political terrain of world cinema This book traces film noir's emergent connection to European cinema its movement within a cosmopolitan culture of literary and cinematic translation and its postwar consolidation in the US Europe Asia the Middle East and Latin America The authors examine how film noir crosses national boundaries speaks to diverse international audiences and dramatizes local crimes and the crises of local spaces in the face of global phenomena like world wide depression war political occupation economic and cultural modernization decolonization and migration This fresh study of film noir and global culture also discusses film noir's heterogeneous style and revises important scholarly debates about this perpetually alluring genre

Queer TV China Jamie J. Zhao, 2023-02-16 The 2010s have seen an explosion in popularity of Chinese television featuring same sex intimacies LGBTQ identified celebrities and explicitly homoerotic storylines even as state regulations on vulgar and immoral content grow more prominent This emerging queer TV China culture has generated diverse cyber and transcultural queer fan communities Yet these seemingly progressive televisual productions and practices are caught between multilayered sociocultural and political economic forces and interests Taking queer as a verb an adjective and a noun this volume counters the Western centric conception of homosexuality as the only way to understand nonnormative identities and same sex desire in the Chinese and Sinophone worlds It proposes an analytical framework of queer ing TV China to explore the power of various TV genres and narratives censorial practices and fandoms in queer desire voicing and subject formation within a largely heteropatriarchal society Through examining nine cases contesting the ideals of gender sexuality Chineseness and TV production and consumption the book also reveals the generative negotiative ways in which queerness works productively within and against mainstream seemingly heterosexual oriented televisual industries and fan spaces This cornucopia of fresh and original essays opens our eyes to the burgeoning queer television culture thriving beneath official media crackdowns in China As diverse as the phenomenon it analyses Queer TV China is the spark that will ignite a prairie fire of future scholarship Chris Berry Professor of Film Studies King's College London This timely volume explores the various possibilities and nuances of queerness in Chinese TV and fannish culture Challenging the dichotomy of positive and negative representations of gender and sexual minorities Queer TV China argues for a multilayered and queer informed understanding of the production consumption
