the grand manner history painting to so called minor genres such as still life and portraiture Artists such as Boucher and Fragonard drew inspiration from many different sources famous biblical or mythological episodes to flutes galantes and bourgeois domestic scenes Jarasse explains the key artists and movements within this turbulent century and charts with high quality full color illustrations the progressive emancipation of painters that paralleled the spread of Enlightened thinking Artists surveyed include Watteau Fragonard Boucher Greuze Chardin and David as well as lesser known but equally notable painters including Coypel Le Moyne Vernet Oudry Nattier and others

Art and Religion in Eighteenth-Century Europe

Nigel Aston, 2009-07-15 Eighteenth century Europe witnessed monumental upheavals in both the Catholic and Protestant faiths and the repercussions rippled down to the churches religious art forms Nigel Aston now chronicles here the intertwining of cultural and institutional turmoil during this pivotal century The sustained popularity of religious art in the face of competition from increasingly prevalent secular artworks lies at the heart of this study Religious art staked out new spaces of display in state institutions palaces and private collections the book shows as well as taking advantage of patronage from monarchs such as Louis XIV and George III who funded religious art in an effort to enhance their monarchical prestige Aston also explores the motivations and exhibition practices of private collectors and analyzes changing Catholic and Protestant attitudes toward art The book also examines purchases made by corporate patrons such as charity hospitals and religious confraternities and considers what this reveals about the changing religiosity of the era as well An in depth historical study Art and Religion in Eighteenth Century Europe will be essential for art history and religious studies scholars alike

Femininity and Masculinity in Eighteenth-century Art and Culture Gillian Perry, 1994 Focusing on the visual arts and written texts this book explores the nature of femininity and masculinity in 18th century Britain and France The activities and collective conditions of women as producers of art and culture are investigated together with analysis of representation and the ways in which it might be gendered This illustrated book should make an important contribution to debates on representation constructions of sexuality and women as producers Intimate Encounters Richard Rand, Juliette M. Bianco, 1997 Paintings by such celebrated eighteenth century artists as Watteau Boucher Chardin Fragonard Greuze and Boilly have long been admired for their charming and intimate subjects f tes galantes pastorals tableaux de mode middle class domestic interiors and scenes of family life and romantic love and for their pleasing color schemes In this lavishly illustrated and produced book genre painting is explored for the first time within the broader cultural context of Enlightenment France Through a series of innovative and lively essays dealing largely with aspects of art gender and politics in the decades preceding the French Revolution Intimate Encounters enables us to appreciate genre paintings anew although they are almost always attractive to the eye sometimes to the point of appearing fanciful the paintings also bear the intellectual imprint of turbulent times the interactions of ordinary people nonhistorical nonmythic figures within the family and in romantic encounters We learn that genre painters tended to infuse their depictions of intimacy with moral and ideological significance Their imagery coincided with fundamental debates over gender roles and relationships the family child rearing and illicit versus conjugal love topics that were crucial to such writers and social commentators as Rousseau Diderot and Laclos Published in conjunction with a major traveling exhibition Intimate Encounters contains five essays written by specialists from a variety of disciplines which are followed by fifty one full catalog entries on the paintings included in the show The essays delve into such matters as art criticism and the presence of women in cultural life Richard Rand the family and the ideology of sentimentalism Sarah Maza the influence of innovative theater on genre painting Mark Ledbury the debate over women s rights Virginia Swain and the production and marketing of prints to a growing art audience Anne L Schroder

Eighteenth-Century French Reader Paul J. Young, 2016-12-05 As he demonstrates that narratives of seduction function as a master plot for French literature in the eighteenth century Paul Young argues that the prevalence of this trope was a reaction to a dominant cultural discourse that coded the novel and the new practice of solitary reading as dangerous seductive practices Situating his study in the context of paintings educational manuals and criticism that caution against the act of reading Young considers both canonical and lesser known works by authors that include Rousseau Sade Bastide Laclos Crillon fils and the writers of two widely read libertine novels How these authors responded to a cultural climate that viewed literature and especially the novel as seductive sheds light on the perils and pleasures of authorship the ways in which texts interact with the larger cultural discourse and what eighteenth century texts tell us about the dangers of reading or writing Ultimately Young argues the seduction not in the text but by the text raises questions about the nature of pleasure in eighteenth century French literature and culture
