Poetry Of Hadewijch Studies In Spirituality:

Poetry of Hadewijch Hadewijch, Marieke J. E. H. T. van Baest, 1998 The Stanzaic Poems written by Hadewijch of Antwerp in the 13th century are a body of 45 lyrical poems in stanzas They are daring God talk in the guise of courtly love songs Hadewijch uses the linguistic style of chivalry but her poems are by no means courtly poetry She shifts the current meaning of chivalry by transferring its context to a field of meaning focused on God Because of the view of Minne love that is embodied in them the Stanzaic Poems are an exponent of the age old tradition of women s songs of which the Song of Songs is the best known example and as such they are an expression of a particular manner of keeping company with God they celebrate a relationship of mutuality between partners equivalent in love An introductory essay highlights some of the striking points of lovers the raging desire of orewoet the gentility of humankind s origin This essay is followed by a rendering of the Stanzaic Poems from Middle Dutch into Modern English prose With an introduction by Edward Schillebeeckx

Nobility and Annihilation in Marguerite Porete's Mirror of Simple Souls Joanne Maguire Robinson, 2012-02-01 This first book length study of Marguerite Porete s important mystical text The Mirror of Simple Souls examines Porete s esoteric and optimistic doctrine of annihilation the complete transformative union of the soul into God in its philosophical and historical contexts Porete was burned at the stake as a relapsed heretic in 1310 Her theological treatise survived the flames but it circulated anonymously or under male pseudonyms until 1946 and her message endures as testament to a distinctive form of medieval spirituality Robinson begins by focusing on traditional speculations regarding the origin nature limitations and destiny of humankind She then examines Porete s work in its more immediate historical and literary contexts focusing on the ways in which Porete conceptualizes and expresses her radical doctrine of annihilation through contemporary metaphors of lineage and nobility

On Becoming God: Late Medieval Mysticism and the Modern Western Self Ben Morgan, 2013 Do we have to conceive of ourselves as isolated individuals inevitably distanced from other people and from whatever we might mean when we use the word God On Becoming God offers an innovative approach to the history of the modern Western self by looking at human identity as something people do together rather than on their own as a way of managing and keeping at bay the impulses and experiences associated with the word God The self is a way of doing things or of not doing things with God The book draws on phenomenology Heidegger gender studies Beauvoir Butler and contemporary neuroscience It surveys existing approaches to modern selfhood Foucault Charles Taylor and proposes an alternative account by investigating late medieval mysticism in particular texts written in Germany by Meister Eckhart and others It concludes by exploring the parallel between late medieval confessors and their spiritual charges and late nineteenth century psychoanalysts and their patients in search of a vocabulary for acknowledging and nurturing our everyday commitments to others and to our spiritual longings

A Dream in the World Robin van L ben Sels, 2004-03 How can science and religion co exist in the modern discipline of psychotherapy A Dream in the World explores the interfaces between religious experience and dream analysis At the heart of this book is a selection of dreams presented by the author's patient during analysis which are compared with the dreams of Hadewijch a thirteenth century woman mystic The patient's dreams led the modern woman to an unanticipated breakthrough encounter with the divine her experience of soul The experience reoriented and energized her life and became her dream in the world Following Jung's idea that the psyche has a religious instinct Robin van Loben Sels demonstrates that the healing process possible through psychotherapy can come from beyond the psyche and can not be explained by our usual theories of scientific psychology Written in flowing easily read language A Dream in the World details a classical Jungian analysis of a woman's dreams and searches the relationship between religious encounter psyche and soul

Incarnating Grace Julia Feder, 2023-11-07 Prioritizes survivors of abuse by reexamining Christian ideals about suffering and salvation More than half of women and almost one in three of men in the United States have experienced sexual violence at some time in their lives Yet our Christian tradition has failed survivors of sexual violence who have been taught to believe that traumatic suffering brings us closer to God Incarnating Grace attempts to save our broken ways of talking about God's grace by unearthing liberating resources buried in the Christian tradition Christian ideas about salvation have historically contributed to sexual violence in our communities by reinforcing the idea that suffering is salvific But a God worth worshiping does not want human beings to suffer Drawing on the sixteenth century Spanish mystic Teresa of Avila as well as contemporary political and feminist theologians philosophers and legal scholars author and Associate Professor of theology Julia Feder offers an account of Christian salvation as mystical political Feder begins by describing the breadth of traumatic wounding and the shape of traumatic recovery as articulated by psychologists Since the fullness of post traumatic healing requires reserves deeper than those which can be articulated by the secular field of psychology alone the book then introduces the Spanish Carmelite Saint Teresa of Avila and her theological insights which are most helpful for constructing a post traumatic theology of healing Arguing that God stands against violence and suffering the book also examines the notion of senseless suffering a technical term that comes from Edward Schillebeeckx a Catholic twentieth century Flemish priest and theologian The suffering of sexual violence serves no higher purpose or greater human value and pushes against all ways of making sense of the world as good and orderly In the following chapters Feder turns to two Christian virtues that animate post traumatic recovery courage and hope and explores how Christian hope can provide a language to empower courageous activity undertaken toward healing Incarnating Grace opens a new dialogue about salvation and violence that does not allow evil to have the last word

The Mirror of Simple Souls Margaret Porette, 1999-05-15 When Dr Romana Guarnieri in a letter to Osservatore Romano 16 June 1946 announced her discovery that Margaret Porette d 1 June 1310 was the author of The Mirror of Simple Souls certainly a major French document of pre Reformation spirituality a sensation was created in the academic world Although The Mirror is one of the few heretical documents to have survived the Middle Ages in its entirety both its title and its authorship were among the most persistent and troublesome problems of scholarly research in the field of medieval vernacular languages The Mirror in its original French survives only in the fifteenth century manuscript which the great Cond Louis II de Bourbon had acquired for his palace at Chantilly And so far as can be known all that remains with which to compare the readings of this manuscript text are those translations of The Mirror which also in manuscript are to be found in Latin Italian and Middle English This edition of The Mirror of Simple Souls is a translation from the French original with interpretive essays by Edmund Colledge O S A Judith Grant and J C Marler and a foreword by Kent Emery Jr The translators of this Modern English version rely primarily on the French yet take other medieval translations into account As a result this edition offers a reading of The Mirror which solves a number of difficulties found in the French and the introductions contributed by the translators narrate the archival history of the book for which Margaret Porette was burned alive in Paris in 1310 writing the contributors shed new light on his influence and ongoing relevance in contemporary theology Beginning with the roots of Schillebeeckx's views on metaphysics spirituality and faith the essays then move to his work during and after the Second Vatican Council and then to his engagement with new directions in philosophy and his renewal of classical topics such as creation theological and soteriological anthropology and eschatology Culminating with an analysis of theology and culture this handbook thoroughly explores the implications of Schillebeeckx's theology for a contemporary readership

Cîteaux ,2003 Mystical Discourse in Wordsworth and Whitman D. J. Moores,2006 In Mystical Discourse D J Moores builds on the work of current transatlantic scholarship in a lucid analysis of the connections between William Wordsworth and Walt Whitman As he demonstrates the transatlantic bridge between both poets lies in their privileging of a type of mystical language he calls cosmic rhetoric which served the function of ideological resistance as it enabled them to rebel against Enlightenment modes of thinking and being In a thorough engagement with the work of Wordsworth and Whitman Moores shows that the cosmic rhetoric of both writers involves a subversive reorientation towards self and society nature and God and knowledge and religion as well as a radical revisioning of language and poetics Formation and the Person Alessandro Manenti,Stefano Guarinelli,Hans Zollner,2007 This book gathers the foundational concepts which characterise the approach to the person as human and as Christian which has been developed at the Institute of Psychology of the Pontifical Gregorian University during its more than 35 years of activity The book directs these concepts towards further paths for investigation and puts them in dialogue with sister schools of depth psychology and with other areas of scholarship in particular philosophy and theology which are equally interested in exploring the human mystery Hence the variety of authors psychologists philosophers and theologians brought together by a common interest in understanding and forming the human person in better ways The reflections contained in this book gain concrete expression in an educative therapeutic practice and they review the nodal points which are part of every journey of growth and of psychotherapy personal identity interaction with the external world and the attainment of personal truth inner imagination desires and affections conflicts Instruments are offered to enable the formator and the psychotherapist to make the best possible use of the great energies which are made available by their application how to identify the real problem where to concentrate one's attention what to listen to how to handle the relationship on what element to act in order to promote improvement cure what kind of change to propose While accompaniment and psychotherapy are different procedures they nevertheless have many similarities and points of contact The dynamic relations and the factors involved in growth which this book describes are valid for both modalities of intervention and will be of interest to anyone who wishes to help others in a more enlightened educative dialogue Medieval Writings on Female Spirituality Various,2002-05-28 Biographies poetic compositions works that are mystical prophetic visionary or meditative the selections here reflect the developments in medieval piety particularly in the link between female spirituality and the body Included are the dramatic visionary writings of Hildegard of

The Female Mystic Andrea Janelle Dickens, 2009-05-30 The Middle Ages saw a flourishing of mysticism that was astonishing for its richness and distinctiveness The medieval period was unlike any other period of Christianity in producing people who frequently claimed visions of Christ and Mary uttered prophecies gave voice to ecstatic experiences recited poems and songs said to emanate directly from God and changed their ways of life as a result of these special revelations Many recipients of these alleged divine gifts were women Yet the female contribution to western Europe's intellectual and religious development is still not well understood Popular or lay religion has been overshadowed by academic theology which was predominantly the theology of men This timely book rectifies the neglect by examining a number of women whose lives exemplify traditions which were central to medieval theology but whose contributions have tended to be dismissed as merely spiritual by today's scholars In their different ways visionaries like Richeldis de Faverches founder of the Holy House at Walsingham or England's Nazareth the learned Hildegard of Bingen Hadewijch of Brabant exemplary voice of the Beguine tradition of love mysticism charismatic traveller and pilgrim Margery Kempe and anchoress Julian of Norwich all challenged traditional male scholastic theology Designed for the use of undergraduate student and general reader alike this attractive survey provides an introduction to thirteen remarkable women and sets their ideas in context

On the Side of the Angels Marie L. Baird, 2002 Contends that after the Holocaust spirituality requires that self transcendence be defined primarily as ethical responsibility Ch 4 pp 89 118 Ethical Responsibility and Holocaust Rescuers concludes that even though theories of rescue do not clearly establish an overt religious motivation many rescuers were influenced to act by a religious motivation based on ethical responsibility

Goddesses and the Divine Feminine Rosemary Ruether, 2005-05-16 This landmark work presents the most illuminating portrait we have to date of goddesses and sacred female imagery in Western culture from prehistory to contemporary goddess movements Beautifully written lucidly conceived and far ranging in its implications this work will help readers gain a better appreciation of the complexity of the social forces mostly androcentric that have shaped the symbolism of the sacred feminine At the same time it charts a new direction for finding a truly egalitarian vision of God and human relations through a feminist ecological spirituality Rosemary Radford Ruether begins her exploration of the divine feminine with an analysis of prehistoric archaeology that challenges the popular idea that until their overthrow by male dominated monotheism many ancient societies were matriarchal in structure governed by a feminine divinity and existing in harmony with nature For Ruether the historical evidence suggests the reality about these societies is much more complex She goes on to consider key myths and rituals from Sumerian Babylonian Egyptian and Anatolian cultures to examine the relationships among gender deity and nature in the Hebrew religion and to discuss the development of Mariology and female mysticism in medieval Catholicism and the continuation of Wisdom mysticism in Protestantism She also gives a provocative analysis of the meeting of Aztec and Christian female symbols in Mexico and of today's neo pagan movements in the United States
