Action Leadership
Ortrun Zuber-Skerritt, 2011-04-15 Action leadership is a creative innovative collaborative and self developed way to lead It eschews the hierarchical structure usually associated with leadership and is based instead on the democratic values of freedom equality inclusion and self realization It take responsibility for not control over people through networking and orchestrating human energy towards a holistic outcome that benefits the common interest Action leaders are passionate people who abide by the motto that Learning does not mean to fill a barrel but rather to ignite a flame in others And in this time of rapid economic political technological social and ecological changes action leadership and action leaders are precisely what's needed to improve how people and organizations engage constructively to address the myriad complex issues challenging society at all levels Action Leadership Towards a Participatory Paradigm explains and illustrates how action leadership can be developed through participatory action learning and action research PALAR It addresses real life issues by people who choose to work collaboratively towards shared goals while developing their learning insights knowledge people skills and personal relationships through involvement in a PALAR project The book provides a conceptual framework for action leadership and for the integrative practical theory of PALAR and examples of applications in higher education management education for organization development and community development Readers are encouraged to adopt adapt and further develop the evolving concepts of action leadership and PALAR in a participatory paradigm of learning research and development

A Participatory Paradigm for an Engaged Scholarship in Higher Education Ortrun Zuber-Skerritt, Lesley Wood, Ina Louw, 2015-01-01 This book provides a comprehensive conceptual framework case studies workshop processes and designs for academic development programs supported by two key concepts Participatory Action Learning and Action Research PALAR a conceptual integration of action learning and participatory action research and action leadership PALAR is conceived as a philosophy a methodology a theory of learning and knowledge creation and as a facilitation process Action leadership involves collaboration action concern and responsibility for others rather than a position of power and control over them It is participatory strategic ethical and non hierarchical

Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research
John C. Smart, 2006-05-11 Published annually since 1985 the Handbook series provides a compendium of thorough and integrative literature reviews on a diverse array of topics of interest to the higher education scholarly and policy communities Each chapter provides a comprehensive review of research findings on a selected topic critiques the research literature in terms of its conceptual and methodological rigor and sets forth an agenda for future research intended to advance knowledge on the chosen topic The Handbook focuses on twelve general areas that encompass the salient dimensions of scholarly and policy inquiries undertaken in the international higher education community The series is fortunate to have attracted annual contributions from distinguished scholars throughout the world

Action Research Jean McNiff, 2002-01-22 Since the first edition of this established text was published in 1988 action research has gained ground as a popular method amongst educational researchers and in particular for practising teachers doing higher level courses In this new edition Jean McNiff provides updates on methodological discussions and includes new sections of case study material and information on supporting action research The book raises issues about how action research is theorised whether it is seen as a spectator discipline or as a real life practice and how practitioners position themselves within the debate It discusses the importance for educators of understanding their own work and showing how their educative influence can lead to the development of good orders in formal and informal learning settings and in the wider community This second edition comes at a time when after years of debate over what counts as action research it is now considered an acceptable and useful part of mainstream research practice

Action Research for Sustainable Development in a Turbulent World Ortrun Zuber-Skerritt, 2012-03-06 Presents and celebrates Action Learning and Action Research ALAR through stories experiences reflections and specific works of key proponents and participants in ALAR World Congresses This title argues for the benefits of action research for sustainable development and problem solving in a turbulent world in the 21st century
