Real Lives Art Teachers And The Cultures Of Schools:

Real Lives Tom Anderson, 2000 In this day in the life account six art teachers provide a realistic picture of what life as an art teacher is really like Real Lives Now Jeffrey Broome, Renee Sandell, 2023-06 Real Lives Now Narratives of Art Educators and 21st Century Learning showcases the stories and day to day lives of contemporary art teachers The featured educators which include several art teachers an art museum educator and an art supervisor has a particular set of problems and opportunities within a particular locale community and educational environment As a worthy follow up to Real Lives Art Teachers and the Cultures of School by Tom Anderson the authors of this volume use ethnographic and field based methods to highlight the lives and experiences of each educator Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education Elliot W. Eisner, Michael D. Day, 2004-04-12 This work provides an overview of the progress that has characterized the field of research and policy in art education It profiles and integrates history policy learning curriculum and instruction assessment and competing perspectives Urban Education with an Attitude Lauri Johnson, Mary E. Finn, Rebecca Lewis, 2012-02-01 This book profiles local and national efforts to transform urban education and reinvent urban teacher preparation It describes real programs in real urban schools that have developed policy initiatives that promote educational equity community based curricula and teacher education and parent empowerment programs that emphasize democratic collaboration among universities urban teachers parents and community members By involving all stakeholders this comprehensive approach provides a model for creating urban schools that not only excite and inspire but also serve as engines for social change Contending that urban education reform will fail without public engagement and a commitment to social justice the contributors challenge urban educators to become accountable to their students and the communities they serve Schools and Cultural Citizenship Pat Thomson, Christine Hall, 2023-02-24 Why study the arts at school This book offers a fresh perspective on this question Informed by rigorous research the book argues that the arts help young people to develop key skills knowledge and practices that support them to become both critical appreciative audiences and socially engaged cultural producers Drawing on a three year study in partnership with the Royal Shakespeare Company and Tate art museum Schools and Cultural Citizenship sets out an ecological model for cultural citizenship that goes beyond the classroom to include families the media and popular culture The authors introduce new interrelated concepts to change how we consider arts education Chapters provide fresh insights guidance and practical recommendations for educators including An introduction to the Tracking Arts Learning and Engagement research Detailed case studies featuring arts rich schools and arts broker teachers Analysis of the importance of immersive professional development for teachers and the benefits of partnerships with arts organisations An ecological model for cultural citizenship Focusing on the ways in which cultural citizenship can be taught and learnt this is an essential read for arts educators education staff in arts organisations researchers postgraduate students arts education activists and policy makers Artist-Teachers in Context Raphael
