World Christianity Lalsangkima Pachuau, 2018-07-17 Christianity is vibrant and growing in the non western majority world and Christianity is changing as a result Pachuau surveys the current trending approaches to recognizing and investigating world Christianity and explores the salient features of the demographic changes that mark a measurable shift in the center of gravity from the northwest part of the globe to the southern continents This shift is not just geographical World Christianity is ultimately about the changing and diversifying character of Christianity and a renewed recognition of the dynamic universality of Christian faith itself Christianity is a shared religion in that people of different cultures and societies make it their own while being transformed by it Christianity is translatable and adaptable to all cultures while challenging each with its transformative power Pachau also charts the theological reestablishment of the missionary enterprise founded on understandings of God's mission in the world mission Dei a mission of cross cultural gospel diffusion for missionary advocates in the majority world but one of near neighbor missional engagement for the contagious Charismatic Christianity of the majority world This book is both a descriptive study and a thoughtful analysis of world Christianity's demographics life representation and thought The book also gives an account of the historical emergence of World Christianity and its theological characteristics using a methodology that stresses the productive tension between the universal and particular in understanding a fundamentally adaptable Christian faith

1910 Thomas Harrison, 2023-04-28 The year 1910 marks an astonishing and largely unrecognized juncture in Western history In this perceptive interdisciplinary analysis Thomas Harrison addresses the extraordinary intellectual achievement of the time Focusing on the cultural climate of Middle Europe and paying particular attention to the life and work of Carlo Michelstaedter he deftly portrays the reciprocal implications of different discourses philosophy literature sociology music and painting His beautifully balanced and deeply informed study provides a new wider and more ambitious definition of expressionism and shows the significance of this movement in shaping the artistic and intellectual mood of the age 1910 probes the recurrent themes and obsessions in the work of intellectuals as diverse as Egon Schiele Georg Trakl Vasily Kandinsky Georg Lukács Georg Simmel Dino Campana and Arnold Schoenberg Together with Michelstaedter who committed suicide in 1910 at the age of 23 these thinkers shared the essential concerns of expressionism a sense of irresolvable conflict in human existence the philosophical status of death and a quest for the nature of human subjectivity Expressionism Harrison argues provocatively was a last desperate attempt by the intelligentsia to defend some of the most venerable assumptions of European culture This ideological desperation he claims was more than a spiritual prelude to World War I it was an unheeded prophetic critique This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996 The year 1910 marks an astonishing and largely unrecognized juncture in Western history In this perceptive interdisciplinary analysis Thomas Harrison addresses the extraordinary intellectual achievement of the time Focusing on the cultural climate of
