Reshaping Of French Democracy:

The Reshaping of French Democracy Gordon Wright, 2022-12-15 Originally published in 1950 this book is a narrative and analytical account of the making of the new French Constitution and views that process in its historical setting Although the book's central theme is the constitutional problem it is in a broader sense concerned with the political forces at work in France since liberation The 2 years of provisional government from August 1944 to December 1946 brought French politics to a new pitch of complexity Economic stress international tension colonial unrest and personal rivalries sharpened the conflicts among the men who made the constitution All of these elements went into the formation of the Fourth French Republic and are discussed in the book Cold War and Decolonization in Guinea, 1946-1958 Elizabeth Schmidt, 2007 Winner of the African Politics Conference Group's Best Book Award In September 1958 Guinea claimed its independence rejecting a constitution that would have relegated it to junior partnership in the French Community In all the French empire Guinea was the only territory to vote No Orchestrating the No vote was the Guinean branch of the Rassemblement Démocratique Africain RDA an alliance of political parties with affiliates in French West and Equatorial Africa and the United Nations trusts of Togo and Cameroon Although Guinea's stance vis vis the 1958 constitution has been recognized as unique until now the historical roots of this phenomenon have not been adequately explained Clearly written and free of jargon Cold War and Decolonization in Guinea argues that Guinea's vote for independence was the culmination of a decade long struggle between local militants and political leaders for control of the political agenda Since 1950 when RDA representatives in the French parliament severed their ties to the French Communist Party conservative elements had dominated the RDA In Guinea local cadres had opposed the break Victimized by the administration and sidelined by their own leaders they quietly rebuilt the party from the base Leftist militants their voices muted throughout most of the decade gained preeminence in 1958 when trade unionists students the party's women's and youth wings and other grassroots actors pushed the Guinean RDA to endorse a No vote Thus Guinea's rejection of the proposed constitution in favor of immediate independence was not an isolated aberration Rather it was the outcome of years of political mobilization by activists who despite Cold War repression ultimately pushed the Guinean RDA to the left The significance of this highly original book based on previously unexamined archival records and oral interviews with grassroots activists extends far beyond its primary subject In illuminating the Guinean case Elizabeth Schmidt helps us understand the dynamics of decolonization and its legacy for postindependence nation building in many parts of the developing world Examining Guinean history from the bottom up Schmidt considers local politics within the larger context of the Cold War making her book suitable for courses in African history and politics diplomatic history and Cold War history French Communism, 1920-1972 Ronald Tiersky, 1974-08-22 The French Communist Party Public Speaking in the Reshaping of Great Britain Robert T. Oliver, 1987-11 This volume and its predecessor work The Influence of Rhetoric in the Shaping of Great Britain constitute the first comprehensive history of public speaking in the British Isles including full consideration of preaching and religious changes the growth and influence of parliament social and labor problems intellectual controversies the rights of Ireland and Scotland and the struggle to attain equality for women

French Royalism Since 1870 Samuel M. Osgood, 2013-11-21 Let them come forward they are thirsty for the sight of a King said Henri IV to his followers who were trying to push back the curious crowds as he entered Paris in February 1594 It is perhaps to be regretted that seven kings to say nothing of two emperors have since more than quenched the French's taste for royalty because they have long been in need of and periodically have sought a symbol of national unity Modern day France has had far more than her share of revolutions counterrevolutions uprisings days coups affairs crises scandals and constitution drafting While it would be an over simplification to interpret this endemic strife as a seesaw conflict between two well integrated blocs with the ideology of the Great Revolution as the dividing issue the fact remains that since 1789 political divisions and quarrels among Frenchmen have been deep bitter and fundamental After 1870 a Republic may have been the one solution which divided Frenchmen the least to borrow an expression from Monsieur Thiers but like any and all of the preceding alternatives it was to incur the relentless irreconcilable opposition of important segments of the population This study deals with those individuals and organizations which continued to advocate and sought to bring about a return to the monarchy under the Third and Fourth Republics

Unsettled States, Disputed Lands Ian Lustick, 1993 Israel and the West Bank and Gaza Strip disengagement or incorporation Thresholds of state building and state contraction Becoming problematic breakdown of a hegemonic conception of Ireland Where and what is France Three failures of hegemonic construction Patterns of hegemonic change Britain and Ireland France and Algeria The Irish question in British politics 1886 1922 The Algerian question in French politics 1955 1962 Regimes at risk rescaling the Irish and Algerian questions in Britain and France Israel and the West Bank and Gaza Strip tracing the status of a changing relationship Hegemonic failure and regime crisis in Israel A theory of states and territories extensions and implications Communist Influence on French Rearmament Littleton B. Atkinson, 1955 The Origins of World War I Richard F. Hamilton, Holger H. Herwig, 2003-02-24 This work poses a straightforward yet at the same time perplexing question about World War I Why did it happen Several of the oft cited causes are reviewed and discussed The argument of the alliance systems is inadequate lacking relevance or compelling force The arguments of mass demands those focusing on nationalism militarism and social Darwinism it is argued are insufficient lacking indications of frequency intensity and process how they influenced the various decisions The work focuses on decision making on the choices made by small coteries in Austria Hungary Germany Russia France Britain and elsewhere The decisions made later by leaders in Japan the Ottoman Empire Italy the Balkans and the United States are also explored The final chapters review the basic causes once again An alternative position is advanced one focused on elites and coteries their backgrounds and training and on their unique agendas
