

Health Technology Assessment Policy and Methods Review Reference Committee

Communique – 1 December 2022 and 19 December 2022 meetings

1 December 2022 meeting

The first meeting of the Health Technology Assessment (HTA) Policy and Methods Review (Review) Reference Committee (Committee) was held by video conference on 1 December 2022.

All Committee members attended (see note at end) as well as support staff from the Review Secretariat in the Department of Health and Aged Care (Department).

What did the Committee discuss?

Functions of the Committee

The Chair reminded the Committee members of its role which is to:

- Agree the terms of reference for the HTA Review
- Agree the expert in HTA to undertake an analysis of current methods used by the Pharmaceutical Benefits Advisory Committee (PBAC), contemporary research and relevant methodologies and purchasing practices used by comparable jurisdictions
- Oversee public consultations and considering submissions to the HTA Review
- Oversee the analysis undertaken by the expert in HTA
- Prepare and agree the final review report and recommendations.

Probity

The probity adviser, contracted by the Department to advise the Committee throughout the HTA Review, briefed the Committee on probity. This included principles and processes such as managing any conflicts of interest and agreeing how the Committee communicates externally during the HTA Review. The Committee endorsed the draft probity plan.

Communication

Two key points for stakeholders to note from the probity plan are:

1. Communiqués (like this one) will be a key tool for staying up to date with the HTA Review. At the end of each meeting the Reference Committee will agree on content for a communiqué to be published on the Department's website.
2. In general, any approaches to Reference Committee members from stakeholders should be referred to the Review Secretariat for formal receipt and management. This is to support good record keeping, ensuring complete consideration of sources of input to the Committee, as well as to protect the Committee and its members from
