Respect Terrence Webster-Doyle,Adryan Russ,2012      Respect Terrence Webster-Doyle,Adryan Russ,2003      Respect Terrence Webster-Doyle,2002 The martial arts code of conduct is a system of social skills conducive to living a life of peace and goodwill Although it may seem rather odd to teach these together with the physical arts of self defence the code is in fact the foundation of all martial arts the ultimate goal of which is to help prevent conflict Cultivating these skills reduces the chance that young people will react out of fear to threatening situations such as being bullied combined with the confidence that comes from knowing how to protect themselves the skills taught in this book can help young people understand and resolve conflict peacefully A corollary but equally important goal is helping both children and parents understand the difference between the often violent portrayal of martial arts in the popular media and the true spirit of goals and martial arts practice      Respect Terrence Webster-Doyle,Adryan Russ,2002      Children and the Martial Arts Gaku

Homma,1993 Following the approach of The English Legal System and Criminal Law this text should be useful to pupils studying Tort as their A2 option It should also be of interest as an introductory text for students of other law courses Addressing all the specifications for AQA and OCR this text provides students with comprehensive coverage of Tort law This can be a difficult subject area but the author assumes no previous knowledge and uses an accessible and clear writing style ensuring that complex issues are understood Activities exercises and exam questions for students of all abilities make the book interactive and ensure that students get the necessary practice for exam success Key cases are highlighted for quick and easy reference and key fact charts are provided to help students to review and consolidate the subject areas covered
