Response In Christ A Study Of The Christian Life:

Response in Christ Edward Carter, 1969 Christian Responses to Spiritual Incursions into the 21st Century Church and Society Nikolaos Asproulis, Stuart Devenish, 2020-10-30 This volume provides an account of the surprising in breaking of spiritual life that persists in our culture despite the best efforts of atheist spokespersons and secular theorists Spirituality in its varying forms is irrepressible resisting our attempts to exclude it by continuing to seep through the cracks and leak through the gaps When it is allowed to manifest itself through the Christian faith tradition it has the power to surprise transform and renew everything it touches This volume contains a series of case studies each of which describes the inner functionings and out workings of the spiritual life as a transformative point of contact between God world society and self Each chapter contains high level inquiry drawing on best practice scholarship that is deeply aware of the needs and opportunities that confront 21st century society Christian Ethical Implications of the Presence of the Kingdom as God's Performative Action in the Light of Speech Act Theory Anna Cho , 2019 This book presents a novel Biblical ethical hermeneutic approach that emerges from an understanding of the presence of the kingdom of God in the Biblical text The approach is predicated upon the use of speech act theory abbreviated as SAT in relation to kingdom language in the Biblical text The approach shows how the notion of kingdom language as God's divine activity is elicited in the contemporary Christian's life by allowing it to operate beyond the world of the Biblical text In other words this approach establishes a Biblical ethical hermeneutic bridge between the text and its context and the context of contemporary readers of the text The alternative linguistic epistemology in SAT considers the principle of the kingdom of God in the past locution level the present illocutionary level and the future perlocutionary level The dynamic equivalences of the past present and future of the kingdom of God based on an SAT approach to the Biblical text can inform Christian ethical theory and moral action in the present world It can also provide a new moral sensibility in relation to God's sovereignty and the responsibility of Christians in contemporary society Adult Bible Studies Spring 2016 Student John P. Gilbert, 2015-12-15 Spring theme The Gift of Faith This spring lessons in Adult Bible Studies follow the theme The Gift of Faith The student book writer is Jack Gilbert Von Unruh is the writer for the teacher book Tests of Faith The quarter's first four lessons deal with powerful faith simple faith struggling faith and resurrection faith by examining biblical texts from Mark's Gospel Restorative Faith The first lesson in the second unit examines Luke's account of the healing of the centurion's servant while the second lesson continues in Luke 7 with a focus on the woman who anointed Jesus feet with expensive perfume The third lesson features Luke's account of Jesus healing the demon possessed man and the next lesson also from Luke explores the account of the prodigal son The last lesson in this unit focuses on Jesus teaching about forgiveness and giving and receiving correction Fullness of Faith The four lessons that conclude this quarter's study again come from Luke's Gospel The first looks at Jesus healing of the ten lepers the second examines Jesus contrast of the Pharisee and the tax collector The third lesson explores Jesus teaching about having childlike faith The final lesson of this quarter highlights joyous faith by reviewing Jesus' encounter with the tax collector Zacchaeus. Based on the Uniform Series, this quarterly study presents stimulating lessons that explore the biblical message and how to apply it to daily life. The curriculum helps adults move from a focus on the Word to reflection on personal, family, church, and community concerns. Ideal for a variety of settings, lessons are Bible-based, Christ-focused, and United Methodist approved curriculum for use in adult Sunday school classes, mid-week Bible study, and small group studies. The Christian Path in a Pluralistic World and the Study of Spirituality Diana Villegas, 2012-01-01. Based on exploration of boundaries between spirituality and religion, this book argues that theological study of spirituality is important for interpretation of the Christian path in a pluralistic world. As a text for graduate study in spirituality and ministry, it explores relevant sociological studies, postmodern culture, contemporary study of Christian spirituality, and a brief history of the relationship between theology and spirituality. The book argues that the revelation and tradition of Christianity, understood and interpreted in the light of contemporary culture, make a difference to postmodern persons' quests for spirituality. What one believes and how one understands that belief influences the manner in which the Christian path is lived in a pluralistic global world. The book discusses the role of religion in culture and the relevance of this for the identity of religious spirituality and the study of Christian spirituality.

The Sign of the Gospel W. Travis McMaken, 2013-08-01. The theology of the sacraments is one of the most contested parts in Barth's theology, none more so than the doctrine of baptism. Barth's proposals on baptism have generated intense conversation and disagreement, not only on its application to Protestant and ecumenical theology but even on its own consistency with Barth's larger dogmatic project. McMaken takes up this controversial question, sets it in its proper context within the history of doctrine, and Barth's systematic work, and argues for a constructive reclamation of infant baptism that accords with Barth's overarching theological concerns and insights, notably from Barth's mature theological commitments. Pivotal to this volume is the claim that a reorientation of the doctrine of baptism opens up a new perspective on the practice of infant baptism on the basis of Barth's theology. This new perspective, as well, holds the potential for wide ecumenical application as a form of the proclamation of the gospel and a vital dimension of the church's missional vocation. A commanding volume for scholars and students in systematic theology, ecumenical studies, and sacramental theology.

Approaches to Monasticism in the Context of Christian Responses to Modern Culture Kevin Maddy, 2022-06-20. Approaches to Monasticism in the Context of Christian Responses to Modern Culture is a study of how the values and practices of monasticism are being shaped by the shift to a cultural understanding of Christianity in modern times. The values and practices of traditional monasticism are contrasted with those of various expressions of new monasticism against the background of a multicultural and fluid social environment in an effort to find some reciprocal illumination. The study aims to describe monasticism in terms of authenticity and lived religion. Kevin Maddy was educated at Cambridge University and has recently completed a PhD at Radboud University Nijmegen. He currently works in Canterbury as an Anglican parish priest and is a probationary member of the Society of the Resurrection
