Restraint Of Beasts:

The Restraint of Beasts Magnus Mills, 2012-07 When sloth and alcohol lead to a horribly botched job two fence builders named Tam and Richie flee their native Scotland to England where all hell quickly breaks loose The Restraint of Beasts Magnus Mills, 2010 Tam and I took hold of Mr McCrindle and lowered him into the hole feet first We decided to leave his cap on Fencers Tam Richie and their ever exasperated English foreman are forced to move from rural Scotland to England for work After a disastrous start involving a botched fence and an accidental murder the three move to a damp caravan in Upper Bowland and soon find themselves in direct competition with the sinister Hall Brothers whose business enterprises seem to combine fencing butchering and sausage making The Restraint of Beasts introduced readers to the now much loved unique voice of Magnus Mills and his surreally comic world A demented deadpan comic wonder Thomas Pynchon The Maintenance of Headway To write one unique book is a rare achievement The ability to produce several is truly special Independent Explorers of the New Century Writers that always spring to mind when reading Magnus Mills are Kafka and Beckett Mills asserts himself as comedy's blackest funniest and most astute practitioner Daily Telegraph While the novel undoubtedly harbours darker elements its most successful mode is deadpan humour he squelches mankind's confident madness deftly and comically fuses the monotonous and the monstrous Sunday Times Beyond Cognitive Metaphor Theory Monika

Fludernik, 2012-03-29 In this innovative collection an international group of scholars come together to discuss literary metaphors and cognitive metaphor theory The volume presents recent approaches to metaphor illustrates a range of successful applications of the new cognitive models to literary texts and provides an assessment of cognitive metaphor theory from a literary point of view The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction Huw Marsh, 2020-07-09 The Comic

Turn in Contemporary English Fiction explores the importance of comedy in contemporary literature and culture In an era largely defined by a mood of crisis bleakness cruelty melancholia environmental catastrophe and collapse Huw Marsh argues that contemporary fiction is as likely to treat these subjects comically as it is to treat them gravely and that the recognition and proper analysis of this humour opens up new ways to think about literature Structured around readings of authors including Martin Amis Nicola Barker Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Howard Jacobson Magnus Mills and Zadie Smith this book suggests not only that much of the most interesting contemporary writing is funny and that there is a comic tendency in contemporary fiction but also that this humour this comic licence allows writers of contemporary fiction to do peculiar and interesting things things that are funny in the sense of odd or strange and that may in turn inspire a funny turn in readers Marsh offers a series of original critical and theoretical frameworks for discussing questions of literary genre style affect and politics demonstrating that comedy is an often neglected mode that plays a generative role in much of the most interesting contemporary writing creating sites of rich political stylistic cognitive and ethical contestation whose analysis offers a new perspective on the present How Literary Worlds Are Shaped Bo Pettersson, 2016-09-12 Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature including ancient and non Western How Literary Worlds Are Shaped A Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study Literature it claims is based on individual and shared human imagination which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic mimesis and genre often modulated by different kinds of unreliability The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds Restraint of Beasts 27bk Bin Mills Magnus,1999-06 Monkeys with Typewriters
