Restructuring In Global Aluminium:

Restructuring in Global Aluminium Bonnie K. Campbell, Magnus Ericsson, 1996 Mining in Africa Bonnie Campbell, 2009-06-15 The continent of Africa is rich in minerals needed by Western economies but rather than forming the basis for economic growth the mining industry contributes very little to African development Investigating the impact of the 2003 Extractive Industries Review on a number of African countries the contributors find the root of the problem in the controls imposed on the African countries by the IMF and World Bank They aim to convince academics governments and industry that regulation needs to be reformed to create a mining industry favourable towards social economic and environmental development The book takes a multidisciplinary approach and provides a historical perspective of each country making it ideal for students of development studies and development organizations History of the Workplace

Lars Bluma, Judith Rainhorn, 2016-04-14 Interest in the history of the workplace is on the rise Recent work in this area has combined traditional methods and theories of social history with new approaches and new questions It constitutes a topical contact zone a particularly dynamic field of research at the junction of social history history of occupational health and safety history of technology and the industrial environment This book focuses on the new approaches in this important and growing area and their possible range of influence These new attempts to rewrite a history of the workplace are multiple and in some cases disparate but share many key characteristics They are turning away from the assumption that class and class conflict is the prime mover in social history abandoning the traditional binomial workers vs entrepreneurs perspective which had long sustained the historical perspective on labour Moreover as this collection outlines these new attempts concentrate on the analysis of complex social networks of actors that defined and configured industrial workplaces suggesting a broadening of possible social actors This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History Foreign Direct Investment in Bahrain Lobna Ali Al-Khalifa, 2010-05 A significant volume of literature has been developed that seeks to provide an explanation for the growth of FDI and its impact on less developed countries The literature is characterized by diversity and controversy Based on it a range of reasons for encouraging investment have been proposed including its favorable effects on employment levels the balance of payments and balance of trade of the host country and also the potential for acquisition of technology and skills Cave 1982 and Dunning 1993 Equally the potentially negative effects of growing levels of foreign investment on domestic market structures and national sovereignty have long been the focus of attention Vernon 1971 and Jenkins 1987 More recent studies focused on the positive effect FDI can create through the integration of a host country into the global economy and the system of international division of labor based on fragmentation of production Gereffi and Korzeniewicz 1994 and Henderson Decker Hess Coe and Yeung 2002 Little if any research has examined the impact of FDI on the oil monarchies Conventional expectations persisted that once they enter the post oil phase of their histories it will be difficult for them to uphold their political legitimacy and survive intense domestic and international pressures upon their regimes Taeker 1998 and O Reilly 1999 It has been argued that oil income enable them to pacify opponents by providing their subjects with jobs that pay well and has had detrimental effect on both economic development and political liberalization These expectations have tended to be contradicted by actual development The private sector has become remarkably strong in the oil monarchies and their governments were not highly resistant to change as depicted by the rentier state paradigm Mahdavy 1970 and Beblawi 1987 Taking Bahrain as a case study this thesis argues that despite its limitations as a small nation and the paucity of its oil reserves Bahrain punched well above its weight due to its open economy and foreign direct investment Its domestic economy is well integrated into the global market It was able to exploit some of the opportunities that were presented by economic globalization when niches were opened or vacated within the networks of global production It has developed energy intensive industries aluminium and petrochemicals and became the major financial centre of the Middle East Yet in spite of the government incentives it still faces some challenges in attracting FDI in downstream activities related to oil and aluminium which suggests that additional reforms are needed

Governance Ecosystems J. Sagebien,N. Lindsay,2011-10-12 The authors explore the complex dynamics of mining and Corporate Social Responsibility CSR in Latin America including a reflection on the African continent presenting arguments and case studies based on new research on a set of urgent and emerging questions surrounding mining development and sustainability Aluminum Ore Robin S. Gendron,Mats Ingulstad,Espen Storli,2013-09-28 As the key component in aluminum production bauxite became one of the most important minerals of the last one hundred years But its effects on people and economies varied broadly for some it meant jobs progress or a political advantage over rival nations but for many others it meant exploitation pollution or the destruction of a way of life Aluminum Ore explores the often overlooked history of bauxite in the twentieth century and in doing so examines the forces that shaped the time from the mineral s strategic development in the First World War and throughout the Cold War to its role in the globalization of markets as companies from the northern hemisphere vied for the resources of the south In this wide ranging collection scholars from around the world consider multiple international perspectives on this history from Guinea to Nazi Germany to Jamaica all while examining the central place of one commodity in a time of change Modes of Governance and Revenue Flows in African Mining B. Campbell,2013-11-21 Academics policy makers and practitioners from Africa and beyond document new ways of thinking about issues concerning governance and revenue flows in mining activities in Ghana Mali and the Democratic Republic of the Congo International and Comparative Mineral Law and Policy Elizabeth Bastida,Thomas W. Waelde,Janeth Warden-Fernández,2005-01-01 This book covers a broad spectrum of issues shaping the current paradigm of minerals sector governance The ultimate aim of the book is to understand trends and developments in mineral law and policy occurring at international regional cross border and in some selected cases at national level and also to identify some of the challenges lying ahead With these objectives in view the book brings together a representative selection of the most knowledgeable authors on the subject The contributions deal with a diverse range of issues tackled from interdisciplinary perspectives Topics are divided into five main chapters international and comparative aspects of mineral law actors and policies in the minerals industry investment prospects financial and fiscal issues sustainable development and regional outlooks The book aspires to serve as a useful reference for scholars practitioners students and all those with an interest in current developments in the areas reviewed Elizabeth Bastida is the Rio Tinto Research Fellow and the Director of the Mineral Law and Policy Programme at the Centre for Energy Petroleum Mineral Law and Policy at the University of Dundee CEPMLP Dundee Thomas W lde is the Professor of International Economic Natural Resources and Energy Law and was until 2001 the Executive Director of CEPMLP Dundee He currently runs TWA his private consultancy firm which provides advisory services in natural resources and energy law regulatory reform investment promotion state enterprise agency appraisal and restructuring privatisation contract assessment negotiation and dispute management Janeth Warden Fern ndez is a Research and Teaching Fellow an advisor of the Mineral Law and Policy Programme and the Manager of the Distance Learning Programme at CEPMLP Dundee Rethinking Resource Management Richard Howitt,2002-01-31 Rethinking Resource Management offers students and practitioners in resource management a sophisticated and convincing framework for rethinking the dominant approaches to resource management in a complex world Economic Developments in Contemporary Russia Ian Jeffries,2011-03-07 This book provides a comprehensive overview of economic developments in Russia since the late 1990s Key subjects covered include economic transition privatization and liberalization changes in land ownership and agriculture energy foreign direct investment economic stabilization and economic performance Metals & Minerals Annual Review ,1998 UAE Melodena Stephens,Immanuel Azaad Moonesar,Raed Awamleh,Rhys Rowland-Jones,2017-06-16 This book can be used to teach public policy and help international industry leaders and academics understand the context of UAE and the role it plays in the global arena This project is a series by the Academy of International Business MENA chapter supported by the Mohammed Bin Rashid School of Government Dubai

Industrialization in Developing and Peripheral Regions F. E. Ian Hamilton,2017-09-05 The ten years before this book was originally published in 1986 saw major restructuring in the economies of the developed world This was often closely related to industrial development in newly industrializing and third world countries This book examines the performance of these developing countries and includes studies of peripheral regions less developed regions within more advanced economies The overall findings are that whilst some areas and countries have success stories to tell such as Korea many so called newly industrializing countries and regions have had serious problems Green Industrial Restructuring Manfred Binder,Martin Jänicke,Ulrich Petschow,2013-03-09 Starting from this dematerialization hypothesis for the first time comparative case studies analyse in detail the driving forces of industrial restructuring of different industries and countries in Europe where such a decline has been observed at least temporarily Administration's Energy Tax Proposals United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance,1993 Minerals Yearbook ,2011 Annual Report Australian National University. Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies,1996 President Clinton's Proposals for Public Investment and Deficit Reduction United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means,1993 States, Firms, and Raw Materials Brad Barham,Stephen G. Bunker,Denis O'Hearn,1994 Using aluminum as a detailed case study from which it might be possible to construct a model applicable to other industries examines the political economic social and environmental aspects of extracting raw material from peripheral countries for processing and use in core countries Ten papers from a conference in Madison Wisconsin no date noted cover ecology economy and raw material industry structures firm strategies and international competition establishing control of peripheral resources and Brazilian resource development and Japanese access strategies Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR USITC Publication ,1994
