Writing Wounds Kathryn Robson, 2022-05-20 In the last decade the question of how trauma is remembered and narrated has become increasingly crucial in literary studies and in psychotherapy Writing Wounds rethinks the relation between trauma memory and narrative through readings of key fictional autobiographical and autofictional texts by recent French women writers Marie Cardinal Chantal Chawaf Hélène Cixous Charlotte Delbo Batrice de Jurquet and Sarah Kofman By drawing on and also interrogating recent theories of trauma this study shows that trauma is inscribed in writing through recurring images of the body and of bodily wounding that mark the limits and possibilities of narrativisation This book has a double aim to offer new readings of texts by modern French women writers and to rethink the crucial question of how narratives of trauma are to be read Writing Wounds will be of interest to researchers working on trauma modern French literature women's writing or life writing as well as to a range of undergraduate and postgraduate courses on trauma and narrative

Liberty, Equality, Maternity Alison Fell, 2017-12-02 The concept of motherhood emerges strongly in the writings of Simone de Beauvoir Violette Leduc and Annie Ernaux whose work is examined here in the light of current debates about women's reproductive function and the longstanding glorification of the mere au foyer in France driven by fear of a falling population In this interdisciplinary study of twentieth century French women's writing Fell uncovers tensions at the heart of the literary critique She shows these authors challenging the patriarchal view of motherhood as the sole justification for a woman's existence while at the same time confronting the conflict inherent in their relationship with their own mothers A survey of theoretical and historical material demonstrates vividly that the changing concept of motherhood remains a problematic and highly contentious issue for French feminists whether writing in 1940 or 1999 History as the Story of Freedom Clark Butler, 1997
