Kevin's family background is an admixture of French, Belgian, German, and Royal English genes well camouflaged to protect his pony breeding business in Sussex, England. The story is cast against the larger canvas of the war between the global British Empire and the two tiny independent ZAR and OFS Boer Republics during the last 20 years of Queen Victoria's reign, a war described as barbaric. This shameful period in British history has remained largely unknown, covered by a thick veiled diplomatic silence. Lest the Empire's brutal cruelty to animals and other atrocities be forgotten, Kevin feels compelled to recall the details. Kevin goes further: These wrongs must be redressed. He is resolute that those in command of the Empire Army face charges of war crimes. Warning: This book contains material that may upset sensitive readers.

Con Kruger, born January 1930, is an eighth generation offspring of progenitor Jacob Kruger, who married a manumitted slave daughter, Jannetjie Kemp. She started the Kruger clan by bearing Jacob eight children during the early 1700s. Con obtained a master's degree in psychopathology and a doctorate in industrial psychology from Stellenbosch University. He practiced as a consulting psychologist from 1952 to 1992. He has authored two historical dramas and four anthologies of Afrikaans poetry. He now lives at the southernmost tip of the African continent at Cape Agulhas.
