

The book cover features an abstract design composed of several overlapping rectangles in shades of red and purple. A large red rectangle occupies the top half, while a large purple rectangle covers the bottom half. Smaller rectangles of varying shades of purple and red are layered on top of these main sections, creating a complex, geometric pattern. The title is centered in the red section, and the price is located in the bottom right corner of the purple section.

Secular Journal Thomas Merton,1979 The Secular Journal Thomas Merton,1969 A Secular Journal Thomas Merton,1961 Mapping Religion and Spirituality in a Postsecular World Giuseppe Giordan,Enzo Pace,2012-07-05 This volume offers 11 case studies of contemporary movements from around the world where religious secular and spiritual dynamics interplay in the postmodern condition of the 21st century as traditional and contemporary sources are combined in new and dynamic ways Gender and the Journal Cinthia Gannett,1992-02-06 This book explores the gendered historical and social contexts and discursive traditions that have characterized journals and diaries in academic discourse The tension between the term journal which has a variety of positive public and scholarly connotations and the term diary which is currently understood as a feminized trivial and confessional kind of writing inappropriate for school is a critical part of the problem This book uses the developing and shifting notions of diary and journal to explore several critical questions about the larger relations between gender language canonicity and academic discourse Post-Secular Society Gustaaf Geeraerts,2017-07-28 Post Secular Society argues for several characteristics of the secular the experience of living in a secular age and the experience of living without religion as a normal condition Religion in the West is often seen as marked by both innovation and disarray In spite of differing approaches and perspectives of secularization rational choice and de secularization many scholars agree that the West is experiencing a general resurgence of religion across most Western societies Post Secular Society discusses the changes in religion related to globalization and New Age forms of popular religion The contributors review religion that is rooted in the globalized political economy and the relationship of post secularism to popular consumer culture Also reviewed is innovative discourse as a religious belief system theories of the post secular religious and spiritual well being and healing practices in Finland and environmentalism This paperback edition includes a new preface by Peter Nynas Secular Review ,1877 Secularisations and Their Debates Matthew Sharpe,Dylan Nickelson,2013-10-30 This volume explores timely topics in contemporary political and social debates including the new atheisms the debate between Habermas and the Pope on the fate of modernity and the impact of new scientific developments on traditional religions This book collects articles first presented at the Deakin University World in Crisis workshop held November 2010 by leading Australasian philosophers and theologians It addresses questions raised by the recent much touted return to religion including possible reasons for the return and its practical political and intellectual prospects Secularisation and Their Debates is not afraid to provide answers to such questions as Is religion only ever a force of political reaction in modernity or are there resources in it which progressive even secular social movements could engage with or adopt Are the new atheisms or on the opposite side the new fundamentalisms really novel phenomena or has religion only ever been artificially sidelined in the modern Western states Has modern liberalism only really been kidding itself about its non doctrinal neutrality between different faiths and if so what should follow This book will appeal to researchers in the philosophy of religion social sciences political philosophy and anthropology Encyclopedia of Geomagnetism and Paleomagnetism David Gubbins, Emilio Herrero-Bervera, 2007-07-19 Understanding the process underlying the origin of Earth magnetic field is one of the greatest challenges left to classical Physics Geomagnetism being the oldest Earth science studies the Earth's magnetic field in its broadest sense The magnetic record left in rocks is studied in Paleomagnetism Both fields have applications pure and applied in navigation in the search for minerals and hydrocarbons in dating rock sequences and in unraveling past geologic movements such as plate motions they have contributed to a better understanding of the Earth Consisting of more than 300 articles written by ca 200 leading experts this authoritative reference encompasses the entire fields of Geomagnetism and Paleomagnetism in a single volume It describes in fine detail at an assessable level the state of the current knowledge and provides an up to date synthesis of the most basic concepts As such it will be an indispensable working tool not only for geophysicists and geophysics students but also for geologists physicists atmospheric and environmental scientists and engineers The Postsecular Sacred David Tacey, 2019-07-16 In The Postsecular Sacred Jung Soul and Meaning in an Age of Change David Tacey presents a unique psychological study of the postsecular adding a Jungian perspective to a debate shaped by sociology philosophy and religious studies In this interdisciplinary exploration Tacey looks at the unexpected return of the sacred in Western societies and how the sacred is changing our understanding of humanity and culture Beginning with Jung's belief that the psyche has never been secular Tacey examines the new desire for spiritual experience and presents a logic of the unconscious to explain it Tacey argues that what has fuelled the postsecular momentum is the awareness that something is missing and the idea that this could be buried in the unconscious is dawning on sociologists and philosophers While the instinct to connect to something greater is returning Tacey shows that this need not imply that we are regressing to superstitions that science has rejected The book explores indigenous spirituality in the context of the need to reanimate the world not by going back to the past but by being inspired by it There are chapters on ecopsychology and quantum physics and using Australia as a case study the book also examines the resistance of secular societies to becoming postsecular Approaching postsecularism through a Jungian perspective Tacey argues that we should understand God in a manner that accords with the time not go back to archaic rejected images of divinity The sacred is returning in an age of terrorism and this is not without significance in terms of the explosive impact of spirituality in our time Innovative and relevant to the world we live in this will be of great interest to academics and scholars of Jungian studies anthropology indigenous studies philosophy religious studies and sociology due to its transdisciplinary scope It would also be a useful resource for analytical psychologists Jungian analysts and psychotherapists The Secular Journal of Thomas Merton Thomas Merton, 1959 International Journal of Religion - Volume 1, Number 1 - November 2020 Jeffrey Haynes, Ahmet Erdi Ozturk, Eric M. Human Adult Odontometrics Julius A. Kieser, Jules Kieser, 1990-06-28 An appreciation of the genetic and environmental determinants of tooth size is fundamental to an understanding of the metric variation of teeth in humans Thus besides imparting a sound knowledge of the theories of dental inheritance development and evolution this book has an important role in demonstrating the diverse practical applications of odontometrics A particular feature of the book is the inclusion of numerous tables which bring together a vast body of information on tooth size in different population groups Students of oral biology orthodontics physical anthropology human biology forensic science and archaeology will find this work of great value as a text and reference source As Professor Phillip Tobias writes in the foreword The breadth of Dr Kieser s reading and his mastery of a staggering array of anthropological evolutionary embryological orthodontic and statistical concepts shine through every page of this work

Narnian Virtues Thomas Lickona, Mark A. Pike, 2021-11-25 In this engaging and practical book Mark Pike and Thomas Lickona show how C S Lewis wisdom for nurturing good character and his much loved Chronicles of Narnia inspire us to virtue Drawing upon the Judeo Christian virtues of faith hope and love and Narnian virtues such as courage integrity and wisdom they present an approach to contemporary character education validated by recent research An introduction to C S Lewis thought on character and faith is followed by practical examples of how to use well known passages from the Narnia novels as a stimulus for rich character development at home and in the classroom

Religious Indifference Johannes Quack, Cora Schuh, 2017-04-11 This book provides a conceptually and empirically rich introduction to religious indifference on the basis of original anthropological historical and sociological research Religious indifference is a central category for understanding contemporary societies and a controversial one For some scholars a growing religious indifference indicates a dramatic decline in religiosity and epitomizes the endpoint of secularization processes Others view it as an indicator of moral apathy and philosophical nihilism whilst yet others see it as paving the way for new forms of political tolerance and solidarity This volume describes and analyses the symbolic power of religious indifference and the conceptual contestations surrounding it Detailed case studies cover anthropological and qualitative data from the UK Germany Estonia the USA Canada and India analyse large quantitative data sets and provide philosophical literary inquiries into the phenomenon They highlight how for different actors and agendas religious indifference can constitute an objective or a challenge Pursuing a relational approach to non religion the book conceptualizes religious indifference in its interrelatedness with religion as well as more avowed forms of non religion Treatise on Geophysics, Volume 5 Masaru Kono,2010-05-11 Treatise on Geophysics Geomagnetism Volume 5 provides an overview of the most important aspects of geomagnetism The book begins by tracing the history of the study of geomagnetism It then reviews global models of the Earth s magnetic field the main sources of external magnetic field contributions and the instruments and practices used to observe and measure the full range of features of the geomagnetic field It discusses the origins of current knowledge of the secular variation of the Earth s magnetic field crustal magnetism geomagnetic excursions the study of geophysical electromagnetic induction the magnetization process and the status of recent magnetic field data and their applications The remaining chapters cover the geometry of the geomagnetic field and its temporal variability as recorded in volcanic and sedimentary rocks over the past few million years the ocean crust as a recorder of geomagnetic field variations and the theoretical basis for paleointensity experiments in igneous and sedimentary environments The final chapter explains the concept of true polar wander TPW defined as shifts in the geographic location of Earth s daily rotation axis and or by fluctuations in the spin rate length of day anomalies Self contained volume starts with an overview of the subject then explores each topic with in depth detail Extensive reference lists and cross references with other volumes to facilitate further research Full color figures and tables support the text and aid in understanding Content suited for both the expert and non expert Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 31 Ralph W. Hood,Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor,2020-11-30 Volume 31 of Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion A Diversity of Paradigms showcases two approaches to the socio scientific study of religion It includes a special section within which authors draw on data collected about congregational life in the Australian National Church Life Surveys from 1991 to present These studies give voice to minority groups and children While findings include the strengths of ethnic diversity and the positive experiences of young churchgoers they also highlight that full inclusion in local church life is far from being realized A second section explores the application of feminist approaches within the sociology of religion In their struggle for equality for women feminist scholars developed methodologies to challenge the marginality of any othered group This section showcases how use of these methods challenges hierarchies within knowledge The Unitarian Register ,1927 Christian Register and Boston Observer ,1927 The Cambridge World History of Food Kenneth F.
