Securing South Africa's Democracy Defense Development And Security In Transition:

Securing South Africa's Democracy Gavin Cawthra, 1997 Securing South Africa's Democracy G.

Cawthra, 1997-07-16 This book examines the defence and security challenges facing the new South Africa in the context of development and nation building priorities The transformation of security policy during the transition from apartheid and since the April 1994 elections is examined Challenges facing the defence force and the police service are examined and the relationships between defence development and domestic and external security are explored in an integrated way which points to a policy framework for security in the developing world Defensive Restructuring of the Armed Forces in Southern Africa Bjørn Møller, Gavin Cawthra, 2019-01-15 Published in 1997 the work explores the reorientation of security policies and the accompanying restructuring of the armed forces going on in Southern Africa under entirely new circumstances Democracy has come to South Africa the civil wars in Angola and Mozambique have ended and the region is establishing a regional framework for cooperation While covering the entire region a special focus is placed on South Africa which is predestined to play a leading role but which is struggling with the legacy of the apartheid regime and its repeated aggressions against neighbouring states A defensive restructuring of the South African of the South African military is an element in the building of mutual trust The implications of such defensive restructuring to a non offensive defence are described in detail In addition to the analytical contribution the work also contains central documents and a bibliography

Governing Insecurity Gavin Cawthra, Robin Luckham, 2003-04 The authors of this volume explore the challenges of establishing democratic accountability and control over the military and other security establishments in countries which have either been the victims of authoritarian military rule or wracked by violent internal conflict The book examines both successful democratic transitions and failed ones A wide range of cases is covered including Algeria Bosnia and Herzegovina Chile the Congo Ghana Nigeria Sierra Leone South Africa Sri Lanka and Turkey The possible role of regional interventions and institutions notably in West Africa and the Balkans is also examined The Obligation of Empire James J.

Hentz, 2021-12-14 Some of the nation's most respected scholars of international affairs examine the debates over U S grand strategy in light of U S security policies and interests in tactical regions around the world The contributors begin by describing the four grand strategies currently competing for dominance of U S foreign policy neo isolationism argues that the United States should not become involved in conflicts outside specifically defined national interests selective engagement proposes that the United States despite its position as the world's only remaining superpower should limit its involvement in foreign affairs cooperative security advocates that the United States is not and should not act as an imperial country primacy asserts that the United States is an empire and therefore it should conduct an expansive foreign policy Focusing on regions that present new challenges to U S grand strategy such as Sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and Latin America the contributors offer the most current examinations of U S policies and assess the effectiveness of competing strategies in each region The Obligation of Empire offers an innovative set of foreign policy initiatives that explore the tensions between global agendas and regionalist approaches Contributors Andrew J Bacevich Doug Bandow Dale Davis Thomas Donnelly James J Hentz Clifford Kiracofe Charles Kupchan Jeffrey Stark S Frederick Starr and Brantley Womack James J Hentz associate professor of international studies at the Virginia Military Institute is the coeditor of New and Critical Security and Regionalism Beyond the Nation State

Team Diversity and Inclusion in Defence and Security Barbara T. Waruszynski, Yantsislav Yanakiev, Daniel P. McDonald, 2025-07-26 As a toolkit for the issues and challenges of diversity and inclusion in defence and security organizations this state of the art book allows leaders managers practitioners and personnel to examine international perspectives on the current research best practices lessons learned and strategies for promoting greater teamwork collaboration trust cohesion and organizational performance Authors discuss critical areas such as a gender ethnic and cultural diversity b international case studies that employ diverse and inclusive management practices c inclusive team based and transformational leadership d evidence based approaches to understanding best practices and lessons learned in diversity and inclusion and e methods innovative strategies programs and recommendations to help promote greater team engagement resilience and adaptability in defence and security This book moves beyond theoretical discussions and provides practical approaches and recommendations to generate effective problem solving innovation and creativity across organizations By embracing team diversity and inclusion practices organizations can better leverage diverse knowledge skills and experiences to help build a sustainable culture where people work together to achieve effective solutions to real world problems

Regionalization and Security in Southern Africa N. Poku, 2001-02-02 Once torn by ideological conflicts and the dominance of command economies Southern Africa is now moving towards economic liberalism and openness In general the ascendancy of market economics is acknowledged by its governments albeit with different degrees of enthusiasm Theoretically rich and empirically engaging this timely book offers a critical insight into the ensuing debate on regionalism and the process of regionalization in southern Africa

Securing South Africa's Democracy Gavin Cawthra, 1997

Demilitarisation and Peace-Building in Southern Africa Peter Batchelor, 2018-12-17 First published in 2004 this work is based on a collaborative research project this trilogy considers the dynamics of demilitarisation and peace building in southern Africa in the aftermath of major violent conflicts The overall aim of the research is to support and facilitate the achievement of sustainable peace and human development in southern Africa by analysing demilitarisation and peace building processes in the region and identifying policy options and interventions for peace building The central focus of the research is the extent to which demilitarisation following the termination of wars has contributed to broad processes of peace building in the affected region Has the military in southern Africa downsized and refocused towards new roles Has there been a peace dividend allowing more investment in economic and human development thereby dealing with some of the root causes of conflict Volume I provides a conceptual framework for the analysis of demilitarisation and peace building processes applicable particularly in the southern Africa context This volume argues that a broad concept of peace building has to take into account economic political social and cultural factors at the local national and regional level Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick Fawn,2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples

Africa's Challenge to International Relations Theory K. Dunn,T. Shaw,2001-02-20 Africa has been noticeably absent in international relations theory This new collection of essays by contemporary Africanists convincingly demonstrates the importance of the continent to every theoretical approach in international relations This collection breaks new ground in how we think about both international relations and Africa re examining such foundational concepts as sovereignty the state and power critically investigating the salience of realism neo liberalism liberalism in Africa and providing new thinking about regionalism security and identity

Theory, Change and Southern Africa P. Vale,L. Swatuk,B. Oden,2001-06-26 As dramatic changes unfold throughout the world and the new millennium begins many in South Africa have begun to ask what next The scale and pace of change have led to a feeling of powerlessness How to cope with globalization regionalization a depleting ozone layer new diseases rampant militarization let alone unseen structures of influence and oppression like race class and gender While there is no shortage of theoretical models on offer many feel that they are inadequate for the case of Southern Africa In this book scholars of both international relations and Southern Africa present a wide variety of thoughts on the future of the reign and the place of theory in helping us to understand the bewildering array of events characterizing the late modern early twenty first century world This book marks a call to theory if Southern Africans are to overcome the divisive legacy of the past and to move toward a more prosperous and sustainable collective future theory must be placed at the centre of everyday life For it is our understanding of the world that shapes both it and us

Beyond Settlement Vanessa E. Shields,Nicholas Baldwin,2008 Political ideological and ethnic conflicts have resulted in countless deaths the creation of millions of refugees the destruction of livelihoods and widespread human suffering to say nothing of the economic destruction This book examines institution building and security sector reform in conflict states by analyzing eighteen case studies covering eleven countries and six decades With regard to institution building there is an analysis of four democratic levers elections the legislature the executive and devolution focusing on how the structure and function of these political institutions contribute to the management and reduction of conflict and to the consolidation of fragile democracies Concerning security sector reform there is an analysis of how military police and intelligence institutions are reformed in states that are coming out of conflict states that are moving beyond settlement Some of the conflicts in this study are ongoing Palestine while others have been resolved Spain South Africa while still others are in a peace building or immediate post conflict stage Northern Ireland

Neoliberalism, Civil Society and Security in Africa P. Carmody,2007-10-17 Free market policies have been in operation across Africa for the past 25 years yet they have failed to reverse deepening poverty This book explores with case studies why such policies continue to be implemented and the ways in which they have been reinvented by socialization depoliticization regionalization and securitization The Liberal Model and Africa K. Good,2001-12-17 This book critically examines the realities of liberal democracy its elitism and non accountability and its inequalities and injustices Participatory systems and movements whether in Athens seventeenth and nineteenth century England or South Africa 1970 1990 are more effective in satisfying the democratic aspirations of the people and in curtailing ambitious elites than what is passed off now as democracy By interrogating contemporary democratic regimes in the United States and in Botswana and South Africa the severe limitations and constraints inherent in liberal democracy are highlighted The need for a clear evaluation of what constituted democracy emerges as a powerful message of Kenneth Good s argument Economic Recovery in Africa V. Makhan,2002-05-17 African countries have experienced modest economic recovery during the 1990s But these countries are caught in a vicious circle in which the existing economic structure cannot generate enough savings and export earnings needed to finance their development and mount a sustained assault on widespread poverty Yet foreign aid has been cut back sharply and the continent receives only a trickle of foreign investment flows New policy regimes are now in place creating the right environment for external financing to make a major difference Development finance is one of the foremost challenges facing African countries and the international community in the new century Twenty Years of Independence in Zimbabwe S. Darnolf,L. Laakso,2016-01-13 This collection offers comprehensive insights into pivotal areas of concern regarding developments in Zimbabwe since its independence By disclosing the intra elite competition assessing the performance of Zimbabwe s economy and explaining how the country s natural resources have been managed we can better understand the ruling ZANU PF s increasing reliance on the so called war veterans and the land reform issue for its political survival Macroeconomic and Structural Adjustment Policies in Zimbabwe Clever Mumbengegwi,2001-12-17 The policy relevant analysis of this volume examines nearly twenty years of Zimbabwe s macroeconomic and structural adjustment experiences since independence Part One analyses the impact on economic growth inflation employment and labour markets Part Two deals with financial liberalization and the financial turmoil and currency crisis experienced in the wake of reforms Part Three examines trade liberalization and its impact on investment and income distribution Part Four gives sectoral perspectives on the agricultural manufacturing and health sectors Demobilization in Sub-Saharan Africa K. Kingma,2016-04-30 In the early and mid 1900s several African countries demobilized part of their armed forces This book analyzes in the light of Africa s large development challenges and continuing wars and insecurity the question of how demobilizations have contributed to peace and human development It also explores what we can learn from the different approaches that have been taken Neo-liberalism and AIDS Crisis in Sub-Saharan Africa C. O'Manique,2004-05-13 O Manique critically examines the evolution of the policy response to AIDS in Sub Saharan Africa through a feminist political economy lens focusing on the relationship between neo liberalism the spread of AIDS and the hegemonic policy response It explores the ways in which AIDS has been constructed as a development problem and how AIDS knowledges and institutions have evolved and have shaped interventions in the AIDS sector Central to the analysis is a historical case study of Uganda
