Baird, Thomas H. Jackson, 1983-10. Security Interests under the Cape Town Convention on International Interests in Mobile Equipment Sanam Saidova, 2018-06-28. This book provides an extensive analytical examination of the Cape Town Convention and its Protocols. The Convention aims to facilitate asset based financing and leasing of aircraft, railway and space objects by establishing a uniform legal regime for the creation and protection of security and related interests in these types of equipment. The book provides a detailed treatment of issues arising from the creation of security and other international interests under the Convention from the need to ensure their priority among competing interests to the enforcement of remedies in the case of the debtor's default or insolvency. Security interests in aircraft, railway and space objects are among the most frequently invoked mechanisms used to ensure repayment of the debt. It is their significance, effectiveness and frequency of use that explains this work's focus and scope. Security Interests in Personal Property Randal C. Picker, Douglas G. Baird, Thomas H. Jackson, 2002. This law school casebook focuses on Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code dealing with secured transactions in personal property. It incorporates and discusses recent revisions to the Code which made the most significant changes in three decades. Part of the University Casebook Series, it features expertly edited cases and problems for classroom discussion. Personal property law in Nigeria Mike A.A. Ozekhome, 2019. This book addresses core issues of personal property law in Nigeria from a comparative perspective. It offers a detailed account of the laws governing personal property and the different lightweight reforms undertaken mainly through case law before the enactment of the Secured Transactions in Movable Assets Act in 2017. The book draws insights from the United States UCC article 9 being unarguably the first law that introduced the concept of modern secured transactions law and was influential to many common and civilian law systems in reforming their personal property laws. Given that personal property law is fairly new in Nigeria and also in Africa in general, the main aim of the book is to provide judges and academic researchers with a rich collection of tested solutions from jurisdictions that have experimented with modern secured transactions law for several decades. The primary and secondary works that were referenced in the book have tracked the different epochal shifts in legal thinking and their significances. This may assist scholars and judges in Nigeria to come up with bespoke interpretations of the Act and solutions to underlying problems on credit and security that will satisfy the local conditions as opposed to copying the unaltered solutions from the United States and other advanced systems.

Towards Reforming the Legal Framework for Secured Transactions in Nigeria Chima Williams Iheme, 2016-08-16

This book offers a valuable guide to one of the most challenging areas of commercial law now frequently referred to as secured transactions with a focus on Nigerian, Canadian, and United States perspectives. A debtor's ability to provide collateral influences not only the cost of the money borrowed but also in many cases whether secured lenders are willing to offer credit at all. The book proposes that increasing access to and indeed lowering the cost of credit could tremendously boost economic development while at the same time arguing that this would best be achieved if the legal framework for secured transactions in Nigeria and of course any other country with similar experiences were designed to allow the use of personal property and fixtures to secure credit. Similarly, the creation, priority, perfection, and enforcement of security interests in personal property should be simplified and supported by a framework that ensures that neither the interests of secured lenders nor debtors are hampered so as to guarantee the continuous availability of affordable credit as well as debtors' willingness to borrow and do business. The book further argues that in addition to the obvious preference for real property over personal property by secured lenders due to the unreformed secured transactions legal framework in Nigeria, its compartmentalized nature has also resulted in unpredictability in commerce and the concomitant effects of poor access to credit. Through the comparative research conducted in this book utilizing the UCC Article 9 and Ontario PPSA as benchmarks, the author provides reformers with a repository of tested secured transactions law solutions which law reformers in the Commonwealth countries in Africa and beyond as well as the business community will find valuable in dealing with issues that stem from secured transactions.

Cases, Problems, and Materials on Bankruptcy Douglas G. Baird, Thomas H. Jackson, Barry E. Adler, 2001. The new edition of Cases Problems and Materials on Bankruptcy retains the sophistication of the
