Namely, His Epigrams ... 1550; Voyce of the Last Trumpet ... 1550; Pleasure and Payne ... 1551; Way to Wealth ... 1550; An Informacion and Peticion* Early English Text Society,1872 Literature and politics in the English Reformation Tom Betteridge,2017-10-03 This book is a study of the English Reformation as a political and literary event Focusing on an eclectic group of texts unified by their explication of the key elements of the cultural history of the period 1510 1580 the book unravels the political poetic and religious themes of the era Through readings of work by Edmund Spenser William Tyndale Sir Thomas More and John Skelton as well as less celebrated Tudor writers Betteridge surveys pre Henrician literature as well as Henrician Reformation texts and delineates the literature of the reigns of Edward VI Mary Tudor and Elizabeth I Ultimately the book argues that this literature and the era should not be understood simply on the basis of conflicts between Protestantism and Catholicism but rather that Tudor culture must be seen as fractured between emerging confessional identities and marked by a conflict between those who embraced confessionalism and those who rejected it This important study will be fascinating reading for students and researchers in early modern English literature and history A False Tree of Liberty Susan Marks,2019-12-05 This book is concerned with the history of the idea of human rights It offers a fresh approach that puts aside familiar questions such as Where do human rights come from and When did human rights begin for the sake of looking into connections between debates about the rights of man and developments within the history of capitalism The focus is on England where at the end of the eighteenth century a heated controversy over the rights of man coincided with the final enclosure of common lands and the momentous changes associated with early industrialisation Tracking back still further to sixteenth and seventeenth century writing about dispossession resistance and rights the book reveals a forgotten tradition of thought about central issues in human rights with profound implications for their prospects in the world today The bibliographer's manual of Gloucestershire literature, by F.A.
