Sing No Sad Songs Jean Carew, 1940 Sing No Sad Songs for Me Sister Mary Damian, 1971 Twenty three Catholic nuns and priests mostly New Zealanders and Australians write about their lives Dance with Me Daddy Claris Fraley, 2012-09-20 NOW AND THEN Ive played in summer sunshine and Ive been left out in the rain Ive known moments of sweet ecstasy and Ive lived with fear and pain Ive run barefoot through meadow and nearly drowned in tear filled streams but even in the worst of times Ive clung by faith to dreams And so my friend I thank the Lord for all Hes brought me through If I hadnt been where I was then I couldnt be here now with you I will never forget your commandments for you have used them to restore my joy and health Psalms 119 93 Christina Rossetti Constance W. Hassett, 2005 Although the cultural and literary influence of Christina Rossetti has recently been widely acknowledged the belatedness of this critical attention has left wide gaps in our understanding of her poetic contribution Often focusing solely on her early work and neglecting her later volumes many critics minimized her relevance by measuring her stature through either her early poems or her relationships with well known Victorian literary figures In Christina Rossetti The Patience of Style Constance W Hassett argues against this diminishment by reopening Rossetti s canon challenging both critics and readers to trade their silent appreciation of her most familiar verse for a patient and active scrutiny of her body of work which contains some of the finest lyric poetry of the nineteenth century Keeping her primary focus on the poems themselves Hassett traces Rossetti s career through her five poetry collections Goblin Market and Other Poems 1862 The Prince s Progress and Other Poems 1866 Sing Song A Nursery Rhyme Book 1872 A Pageant and Other Poems 1881 and Verses 1893 In a comprehensive account of Rossetti s evolving style and genre Hassett analyzes the strengths and failures of the poetry its attention to the resources of rhythm and the shifts of diction its momentum and reserve and the rationale for its revision The book also explores Rossetti s innovative poetry for children her daring reconfiguration of religion and poetry in a late life commentary on the Apocalypse and the influences both of female precursors she admired and outgrew and of the male circle of Pre Raphaelite poets For art historians of the Pre Raphaelites scholars of women s writing and gender studies students of children s literature and researchers in religious studies not to mention readers in Victorian poetry Christina Rossetti The Patience of Style will serve as an indispensable and eye opening guide The Golden Treasury of the Best Songs and Lyrical Poems in the English Language Francis Turner Palgrave, 1912 Palgrave's Golden Treasury of Songs and Lyrics Francis Turner Palgrave, John Henry Fowler, 1921 Funerals Without God Jane Wynne Willson, 2009-12-02 The main purpose of this booklet is twofold to help Humanists who are thinking of becoming officiants on a regular basis and to help families and friends who are faced with the need to organize a ceremony themselves at short notice A third group who may find parts of it useful are funeral directors coping with funerals where there is no officiant and the family has no wish to play an active role The booklet aims to set out clearly the basic format of a Humanist ceremony to suggest possible readings and turns of phrase and to state simply the various practical measures that need to be taken In short it is a straightforward working manual It was the first funeral I had attended where I felt comfortable and comforted by the words spoken it gave me a sense of great peace To hear others publicly proclaim their love respect and admiration for my husband made the funeral an uplifting experience Afterwards so many who had attended told me that it was the most interesting most moving most relevant and best funeral that they had ever been to Their remarks gave me a great deal of comfort and I knew that I had treated my husband s atheism with the respect and dignity that it deserved A large number of those present from a wide range of beliefs and backgrounds later expressed what we can only call enthusiasm for an experience that was new to them and in many cases compared very favourable with the often awkward and impersonal alternatives with which they were familiar Bearing in mind that this is a form of ceremony which has not yet gained wide acceptance we consider ourselves fortunate to have received such expert and personal attention
