Louder Than Bombs Interviews From The Progressive Magazine:

Louder Than Bombs David Barsamian, 2004 Media activist David Barsamian dubbed the Studs Terkel of our generation by Howard Zinn has been broadcasting voices of dissent from around the world for over a quarter of a century Barsamian's radical weekly radio program Alternative Radio or simply AR to his fans has been a north star in the mass media wilderness for people across the country since 1986 Ralph Nader calls it a ray of light in the media darkness featuring voices of proposals to strengthen our democracy Barsamian's latest volume brings together over 20 interviews culled from The Progressive magazine Here he talks with luminaries of the left activists academics and progressive celebrities about their areas of expertise their hopes for the future and the biggest obstacles facing movements for radical change With his well informed questions and engaging manner Barsamian encourages his subjects to reflect on their lives and the world In turn they open their hearts and minds to him offering nuggets of both personal and political insight Barsamian invites readers to listen in as he converses with some of the best minds of our time and skillfully weaves their analyses and wisdom into a digest of the world's most pressing issues The lively and accessible conversations highlight the urgency of globalizing dissent and remind readers of the power of dialog to inform and inspire While the people interviewed for this book are a diverse group they share a common understanding that political change must be fundamental not cosmetic All of these thinkers have dedicated their lives to organizing for progressive change None has lost faith in the capacity of working and poor people to change society even in the face of the rapidly expanding corporatization of the world Perhaps this is the book's most inspiring message there's still reason enough to hope

The Death Gap David A. Ansell, MD, 2021-06-16 We hear plenty about the widening income gap between the rich and the poor in America and about the expanding distance separating the haves and the have nots But when detailing the many things that the poor have not we often overlook the most critical their health The poor die sooner Blacks die sooner And poor urban blacks die sooner than almost all other Americans In nearly four decades as a doctor at hospitals serving some of the poorest communities in Chicago David A Ansell MD has witnessed firsthand the lives behind these devastating statistics In The Death Gap he gives a grim survey of these realities drawn from observations and stories of his patients While the contrasts and disparities among Chicago's communities are particularly stark the death gap is truly a nationwide epidemic as Ansell shows there is a thirty five year difference in life expectancy between the healthiest and wealthiest and the poorest and sickest American neighborhoods If you are poor where you live in America can dictate when you die It doesn't need to be this way such divisions are not inevitable Ansell calls out the social and cultural arguments that have been raised as ways of explaining or excusing these gaps and he lays bare the structural violence the racism economic exploitation and discrimination that is really to blame Inequality is a disease Ansell argues and we need to treat and eradicate it as we would any major illness To do so he outlines a vision that will provide the foundation for a healthier nation for all As the COVID 19 mortality rates in underserved communities proved inequality is all around us and often the distance between high and low life expectancy can be a matter of just a few blocks Updated with a new foreword by Chicago mayor Lori Lightfoot and an afterword by Ansell The Death Gap speaks to the urgency to face this national health crisis head on Social Work in a Diverse Society Williams, Charlotte,Graham, Mekada J.,2016-04-13 Understanding how to work with racially and ethnically diverse populations is crucial to effective social work practice and planning and it will only become more so as society continues to become more diverse This textbook brings together academics and practitioners who draw on real life scenarios and detailed case studies to help social workers consider the many dimensions of working in a diverse society and to enable them to uncover innovative well tailored ways to ensure successful delivery of essential services A World Scientific Encyclopedia Of Business Storytelling, Set 1: Corporate And Business Strategies Of Business Storytelling (A 5-volume Set) ,2023-08-17 This set of multi reference works is meant to be read together as the five volumes interlace one another like the laces of a shoe in the famous painting by Vincent van Gogh Who will wear the shoes is a question long debated in art history and philosophy If we take these five volumes from different points of view on the theory and practice of business storytelling then we have a crisscrossing a new and impressive dialogue for the reader This set is presented as a new way to lace up the laces of business storytelling Volume 1 aims to recount narratives in a variety of ways so that the precepts of entrepreneurial storytelling can be made accessible to a variety of audiences academic practitioner student and community member Entrepreneurship has a long history and tradition but there are disputed ways of doing business storytelling in entrepreneurship that the next four volumes articulate Volume 2 provides insights into stories fostering the idea of business and not necessarily business itself It focuses specifically on history contributing to the current debates within management and organizational history around the idea of the historic turn It reflects on the idea of business and beyond could there be more to history and business storytelling than what has previously been accepted in the field This book sets out to explore a diverse array of alternative modes and multiple ways of storying organizations The editors intentionally sought to involve an international network of authors with diverse storytelling accounts of history as a way of helping build out this new storytelling paradigm in a diverse and inclusive ethic As a result this volume showcases a broad spectrum of critical storytelling from geographically diverse authors working in universities small businesses and public service throughout Brazil Canada Finland the United Kingdom and the United States To reflect these dynamics and for the stories in this volume to fit together chapters were organized into three themes stories of processing history tales of history as method and narratives of history through a business opportunity Volume 3 features stories that reflect the exacerbated inequalities of race gender and income across the world These inequalities and power relations remain continuously con tested particularly in these trying times despite being captive to a particular economic ideology built on the premise of exploitation and subjugation The stories told in this volume tell against the orthodoxy the colonizer and the seemingly powerful They are organized as stories of resistance emancipation and transformation They

Places in the Making Jim Cocola,2016-05-01 Places in the Making maps a range of twentieth and twenty first century American poets who have used language to evoke the world at various scales Distinct from related traditions including landscape poetry nature poetry and pastoral poetry which tend toward more idealized and transcendent lyric registers this study traces a poetics centered upon more particular and situated engagements with actual places and spaces Close generic predecessors of this mode such as topographical poetry and loco descriptive poetry folded themselves into the various regionalist traditions of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries but place making in modern and contemporary American poetics has extended beyond its immediate environs unfolding at the juncture of the proximate and the remote and establishing transnational planetary and cosmic formations in the process Turning to geography as an interdisciplinary point of departure Places in the Making distinguishes itself by taking a comparative and multiethnic approach considering the relationship between identity and emplacement among a more representative demographic cross section of Americans and extending its inquiry beyond national borders Positing place as a pivotal axis of identification and heralding emplacement as a crucial model for cultural intellectual and political activity in a period marked and imperiled by a tendency toward dislocation the critical vocabulary of this project centers upon the work of place making It attends to a poetics that extends beyond epic and lyric modes while relying simultaneously on auditory and visual effects and proceeding in the interests of environmental advocacy and social justice often in contrast to the more orthodox concerns of literary modernism global capitalism and print culture Focusing on poets of international reputation such as Elizabeth Bishop Pablo Neruda Charles Olson and William Carlos Williams Places in the Making also considers work by more recent figures including Kamau Brathwaite Joy Harjo Myung Mi Kim and Craig Santos Perez In its larger comparative multiethnic and transnational emphases this book addresses questions of particular moment in American literary and cultural studies and aspires to serve as a catalyst for further interdisciplinary work connecting geography and the humanities Equality in Water and Sanitation Services Oliver Cumming, Tom their ancestral inheritance and define their contemporary identities Drawing on the concept of postmemory a paradigm developed to describe the relationship that children of Holocaust survivors have to their parents traumatic experiences Maria Bellamy examines narrative representations of this inherited form of trauma in the work of contemporary African American and ethnic American women writers Focusing on Gayl Jones s Corregidora Octavia Butler s Kindred Phyllis Alesia Perry s Stigmata Cristina Garc a s Dreaming in Cuban Nora Okja Keller s Comfort Woman and Edwidge Danticat s The Dew Breaker Bellamy shows how cultural context determines the ways in which traumatic history is remembered and transmitted to future generations Taken together these narratives of postmemory manifest the haunting presence of the past in the present and constitute an archive of textual witness and global relevance that builds cross cultural understanding and ethical engagement with the suffering of others Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. The Working Class Ian Gilbert, 2018-03-27 In The Working Class Poverty education and alternative voices Ian Gilbert unites educators from across the UK and further afield to call on all those working in schools to adopt a more enlightened and empathetic approach to supporting children in challenging circumstances One of the most intractable problems in modern education is how to close the widening gap in attainment between the haves and the have nots Unfortunately successive governments both in the UK and abroad have gone about solving it the wrong way Independent Thinking founder Ian Gilbert s increasing frustration with educational policies that favour no excuses and compliance and that ignore the broader issues of poverty and inequality is shared by many others across the sphere of education and this widespread disaffection has led to the assembly of a diverse cast of teachers school leaders academics and poets who unite in this book to challenge the status quo Their thought provoking commentary ideas and impassioned anecdotal insights are presented in the form of essays think pieces and poems that draw together a wealth of research on the issue and probe and discredit the current view on what is best for children from poorer socio economic backgrounds Exploring themes such as inclusion aspiration pedagogy and opportunity the contributions collectively lift the veil of feigned equality of opportunity for all to reveal the bigger picture of poverty and to articulate the hidden truth that there is always another way This book is not about giving you all the answers however The contributors are not telling teachers or schools leaders how to run their schools their classroom or their relationships the field is too massive too complex too open to debate and to discussion to propose off the shelf solutions Furthermore the research referred to in this book is not presented in order to tell educators what to think but rather to inform their own thinking and to challenge some of the dominant narratives about educating the feckless poor This book is about helping educators to ask the right questions and its starting question is quite simple how can we approach the education of young people from disadvantaged backgrounds in a way that actually makes a difference for all concerned Written for policy makers and activists as well as school leaders and educators The Working Class is both a timely survey of the impact of current policies and an invaluable source of practical advice on what can be done to better support disadvantaged children in the school system Edited by Ian Gilbert with contributions from Nina Jackson Tim Taylor Dr Steven Watson Rhythmical Mike Dr Ceri Brown Dr Brian Male Julia Hancock Paul Dix Chris Kilkenny Daryn Egan Simon Paul Bateson Sarah Pavey Dr Matthew McFall Jamie Thrasivoulou Hywel Roberts Dr Kevin Ming Leah Stewart Real David Cameron Sir Al Aynsley Green Shona Crichton Floyd Woodrow Jonathan Lear Dr Debra Kidd Will Ryan Andrew Morrish Phil Beadle Jaz Ampaw Farr Darren Chetty Sameena Choudry Tait Coles Professor Terry Wrigley Brian Walton Dave Whitaker Gill Kelly Roy Leighton Jane Hewitt Jarlath O'Brien Crista Hazell Louise Riley Mark Creasy Martin Illingworth Ian Loynd David Rogers Professor Mick Waters and Professor Paul Clarke Narrating History, Home, and Diaspora Maia L.
