Black Angel Nouritza Matossian, 2002-08-01 A biography of the Armenian painter that adds immeasurable to the interest of his art Carefully researched well written and enlightening The New York Review of Books In this first full scale biography Nouritza Matossian charts the mysterious and tragic life of Arshile Gorky one of the most influential painters of the twentieth century Born Manoug Adoian in Armenia he survived the Turkish genocide of 1915 before coming to America where he posed as a cousin of the famous Russian author Maxim Gorky One of the first abstract expressionists Gorky became a major figure of the

New York School which included de Kooning Rothko Pollock and others But after a devastating series of illnesses injuries and personal setbacks he committed suicide at the age of forty six In Black Angel arts journalist Matossian analyzes Gorky s personal letters as well as other new source material She writes with authority insight and compassion about the powerful influence Gorky s life and Armenian heritage had upon his painting Remaking the Conquering Heroes J.

Willoughby,2001-02-23 Remaking the Conquering Heroes shows that American policymakers and Army officers had to confront and take control over a lawless US military in the aftermath of World War II Money laundering theft racial antagonism between black and white GIs unregulated sex and high rates of venereal disease threatened to undermine American authority in occupied Germany as much as Soviet American conflict Willoughby argues that it was the creative if disorganized reaction of American officials in Germany that helped create both a foreign policy framework and more inclusive familial military establishment capable of consolidating and extending US power during the Cold War Works of

Harper's Monthly Magazine ,1921 Manhunts Grégoire Chamayou,2012-07-22 A comprehensive history of manhunting in the West from ancient times to the present Touching on issues of power authority and domination Manhunts takes an in depth look at the hunting of humans in the West from ancient Sparta through the Middle Ages to the modern practices of chasing undocumented migrants Incorporating historical events and philosophical reflection Gr goire Chamayou examines the systematic and organized search for individuals and small groups on the run because they have defied authority committed crimes seemed dangerous simply for existing or been categorized as subhuman or dispensable Chamayou begins in ancient Greece where young Spartans hunted and killed Helots Sparta s serfs as an initiation rite and where Aristotle and other philosophers helped to justify raids to capture and enslave foreigners by creating the concept of natural slaves He discusses the hunt for heretics in the Middle Ages New World natives in the early modern period vagrants Jews criminals and runaway slaves in other eras and illegal immigrants today Exploring evolving ideas about the human and the subhuman what we owe to enemies and people on the margins of society and the supposed legitimacy of domination Chamayou shows that the hunting of humans should not be treated ahistorically and that manhunting has varied as widely in its justifications and aims as in its practices He investigates the psychology of manhunting noting that many people from bounty hunters to Balzac have written about the thrill of hunting when the prey is equally intelligent and cunning An unconventional history on an unconventional subject Manhunts is an in depth consideration of the dynamics of an age old form of violence Report of the Royal Commission on Alien Immigration Great Britain. Royal Commission on Alien Immigration,1903 Never Had the Like Occurred John Tait,2016-09-16 Never Had the Like Occurred examines Ancient Egypt's own multifaceted encounters with its past As Egyptian culture constantly changed and evolved this book follows a chronological arrangement from early Egypt to the attitudes of the Coptic population in the Byzantine Period Within this framework it asks what access the Egyptians had to information about the past whether deliberately or accidentally acquired what use was made of the past what were the Egyptians attitudes to the past what sense of past time did the Egyptians have and what kinds of reverence for the past did they entertain This is the first book dedicated to the whole range of these themes It provides an explanatory context for the numerous previous studies that have dealt with particular sets of evidence particular periods or particular issues It provides a case study of how civilizations may view and utilize their past Aporophobia Adela Cortina,2022-11-15 Why aporophobia rejection of the poor is one of the most serious problems facing the world today and how we can fight it In this revelatory book acclaimed political philosopher Adela Cortina makes an unprecedented assertion the biggest problem facing the world today is the rejection of poor people Because we can't recognize something we can't name she proposes the term aporophobia for the pervasive exclusion stigmatization and humiliation of the poor which cuts across xenophobia racism antisemitism and other prejudices Passionate and powerful Aporophobia examines where this nearly invisible daily attack on poor people comes from why it is so harmful and how we can fight it Aporophobia traces this universal prejudice's neurological and social origins and its wide ranging pernicious consequences from unnoticed hate crimes to aporophobia's threat to democracy It sheds new light on today's rampant anti immigrant feeling which Cortina argues is better understood as aporophobia than xenophobia We reject migrants not because of their origin race or ethnicity but because they seem to bring problems while offering nothing of value And this is unforgivable in societies that enshrine economic exchange as the supreme value while forgetting that we can't create communities worth living in without dignity generosity and compassion for all Yet there is hope and Cortina explains how we can overcome the moral social and political disaster of aporophobia through education and democratic institutions and how poverty itself can be eradicated if we choose In a world of migrant crises and economic inequality Aporophobia is essential for understanding and confronting one of the most serious problems of the twenty first century Current Research in Egyptology 2014 Massimiliano S. Pinarello,Justin Yoo,Jason Lundock,Carl Walsh,2015-04-17 Presents the latest research in Egyptology on the theme of Ancient Egypt in a Global World This selection of 23 papers from the 15th annual Current Research in Egyptology symposium addresses the interregional and interdisciplinary theme of Ancient Egypt in a Global World This theme works on a number of levels highlighting the current global nature of Egyptological research and it places ancient Egypt in the wider ancient world The first section presents the results of recent excavations including in the western Valley of the Kings and analysis of the structures construction techniques food production and consumption remains at Tell Timai Thmuis in the Delta Part II focuses on the cross cultural

theme with papers including discussions on the presence in India of terracotta figurines from Roman Egypt the ancient Egyptian influence of Aegean lion headed divinities Libyan influence in New Kingdom and Third Intermediate Period Egyptian administration and the identification of ancient Egyptian finds from the British countryside reported to the Portable Antiquities Scheme The third part of the book includes current research undertaken across the world of Egyptology including analysis of late Roman crocodile mummies though non invasive radiographic imaging techniques and the study of infant jar burials in ancient Egypt and Sudan to identify differences in regional socio economic contexts and the interaction between people and local resources The editors of this volume are all PhD candidates at University College and King s College London
