Suthren Hirst,2005-03-31 Samkara c 700 CE has been regarded by many as the most authoritative Hindu thinker of all time A great Indian Vedantin brahmin Samkara was primarily a commentator on the sacred texts of the Vedas and a teacher in the Advaitin teaching line This book serves as an introduction to Samkara s thought which takes this as a central theme The author develops an innovative approach based on Samkara s ways of interpreting sacred texts and creatively examines the profound interrelationship between sacred text content and method in Samkara s thought The main focus of the book is on Samkara s teaching method This method is for Samkara based on the Upanishads own it is to be employed by Advaitin teachers to draw pupils skilfully towards that realisation which is beyond all words Consequently this book will be of interest not only to students and scholars of Indian philosophy but to all those interested in the relation between language and that which is held to transcend it The Penguin Handbook of the World's Living Religions John R. Hinnells,2010-03-25 Comprehensive informative and authoritative The Penguin Handbook of the World s Living Religions is compiled by a team of leading international scholars and is the definitive guide to the religious belief systems and practices of the world today This in depth survey of active religions has now been fully updated to include modern developments and the most recent scholarship It explains the sources and history of the world s religions includes material on the phenomenon of Black African and Asian diaspora religions around the world and explores the role of gender in modern religion Women in Ochre Robes Meena Khandelwal,2012-02-01 Meena Khandelwal offers an engaging and intimate portrait of extraordinary Hindu women in India who wear ochre robes signifying their renunciation of marriage and family for lives of celibacy asceticism and spiritual discipline While the largely male Hindu ascetic tradition of sannyasa renders its initiates ritually dead to their previous identities the women portrayed here are very much alive They struggle with and joke about the tensions and ironies of living in the world while trying not to be of it Khandelwal juxtaposes the common refrain that in renunciation there is no male and female with arguments that underscore the importance of gender In exploring these apparent contradictions she brings together worldly and otherworldly values within renunciation and argues that these create tensions that are at once emotional social and philosophical a kara's thought advaita vedānta or non dual vedānta is a tradition focused on brahman the ultimate reality transcending all particular manifestations words and ideas It is generally considered that the transcendent brahman cannot be attained through any effort or activity While this conception is technically correct in The Hidden Lives of Brahman Joël André-Michel Dubois contends that it is misleading Hidden lives of brahman become visible when analysis of a kara's seminal commentaries is combined with ethnographic descriptions of contemporary Brahmins students and teachers of vedānta a group largely ignored in most studies of this tradition Du bois demonstrates that for a kara as for Brahmin tradition in general brahman is just as much an active force fully connected to the dynamic power of words and imagination as it is a transcendent ultimate
