Do I Love God? Rod Culbertson, 2017-08-31 Do I Love God The Question That Must

Be Answered is written for the purpose of helping believers in Christ as well as those curious about God evaluate their relationship with God. The most important priority and assurance in life is knowing God. Because God is a trinity of persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—who have loved one another in full and perfect relationship from eternity and is thus relational, we who are made in his image can actually know him personally and walk in loving relationship with him. God is not impersonal; he is love. Loving God is why we are created. Using the three domains of the heart—know, feel, do—the reader is encouraged to take a personal look into what he believes about Christ, how he loves others, and how he seeks purity of life. Assurance of a relationship with God is gained through proper doctrinal belief, passionate spirituality, and godly obedience. These three tests of assurance are evidence that one loves God. God is a God of grace. Do I Love God will help the reader explore the depth of God's grace and his love.

Walking the Way of Love Courtney Cowart, 2020-09-17. The presiding bishop's advisors lay out a step-by-step way to nurture a profound friendship with God in Christ. Walking the Way of Love is organized according to seven practices: Turn, Learn, Pray, Worship, Bless, Go, and Rest, and three ways of being: We Seek Love, We Seek Freedom, and We Seek Abundant Life. The wisdom in this book allows people to move from the first tentative stages of wanting an experiential relationship with Jesus to having a real relationship that grows deeper every year. The seven simple practices spelled out in this book by highly experienced teachers and practitioners will enhance the reader's spiritual growth and open up love, freedom, and abundant life. The stories and wisdom of these advisors will be helpful not just to seekers of faith but also supportive to faith leaders who are guiding others in their development across the church. Proceeds support The Way of Love Scholarship Fund.
