Love or Die: Finding Oneness in a Me-First World Sandy Meadows, Stan Wenck, 2018-11-20 Love or Die delivers a critical look at two false beliefs that contribute to so much of the suffering and violence in the world today the beliefs that 1 we are separate and 2 we are incomplete Once the reader understands that every action he takes affects the Whole since we are all connected as part of that Whole he will realize that extinction awaits us if we continue to be self-indulgent at the expense of others or the environment To destroy any part of nature is to destroy a part of ourselves We must awaken from our self-destructive ego consciousness move into higher levels of awareness and begin functioning with cooperation rather than competition Failing this our quality of life will rapidly deteriorate and humans will go the way of the dinosaurs We must learn how to love or we will perish

The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene, 2017-08-01 In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr's pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty Wielding Stephen Colbert's word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene's call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and

The Passion of Love in the Summa Theologiae of Thomas Aquinas Daniel Joseph Gordon, 2023-05-19 This book is an introduction to three questions on love according to St Thomas Aquinas Summa Theologiae I II qq 26 28 These three questions reflect on the nature of love q 26 the causes of love q 27 and the effects of love q 28 It is thus an introduction to the entire phenomenon of love both as a bodily passion and an act of the will The purpose is to present the Thomistic and broadly scholastic account of human and divine love from a philosophical and theological perspective It aims to be a theological and philosophical study of the topic useful both for a graduate professional audience as part of an undergraduate or graduate course and perhaps for the educated reader The thesis of the book is that contrary to contemporary conceptions not all loves are created equal Some loves perfect us and some loves corrupt us The worth of a love depends on its object and end St Thomas thus presents an objective and teleological account of human and divine love that is of philosophical and theological interest The method is broadly exegetical presenting a careful reading of the text and supplying the philosophical and theological background which the text of Aquinas assumes The scope of the work is limited to three questions ST I II qq 26 28 References to interpretative disputes of Aquinas and references to further resources in the secondary literature will be mostly limited to the footnotes making the body of the text accessible to more readers
