Development of English Literature and Language Alfred Hix Welsh,1891      The Gifts of Near-Death Experiences Sheila Fabricant Linn,Dennis Linn,Matthew Linn,2016-01-01 Near death experiences NDEs are common well documented and similar across cultures throughout the world Current estimates are that between 4 and 15 percent of the world s population have had an NDE Therefore almost everyone has either had one or knows someone else who has had one Some of the fascination with NDEs comes from the fact that they often result in great leaps in personal growth These leaps are characterized by the loss of the fear of death the healing of deep hurts an increase in self esteem and compassion for others a sense of union with all things and a clearer sense of how to fulfill one s purpose in life This is a book that teaches readers how to reap the benefits of NDEs without having to experience trauma In the course of their many workshops around the world the authors have discovered that when one immerses oneself in accounts of NDEs one can experience love hope healing and a sense of purpose This is the only book that systematically encourages the reader to create a spiritual and psychological healing practice based on NDEs Each chapter includes an account of a fascinating NDE followed by a series of questions meditations exercises and video links The reader is encouraged to contemplate these stories and their own lives It is truly a profound guide to both living and dying      The Passion and Death of Our Lord Jesus Christ Alban Goodier,2011-02 Archbishop Alban Goodier S J fills in the many blanks in the historical narratives about the Passion of Jesus Christ with a riveting account based on history culture and his own deep spiritual insights He brings to life and unifies the many observations emotions and subtle and not so subtle actions that revolve around the person of God the Son as he faces his most tragic and triumphant moment The author s unique approach intersperses Scripture accounts with the commentary of an incisive narrator who sifts and judges from the span of hundreds of years He draws from the obvious as well as the obscure and finds supernatural meaning in the most mundane actions that surround the suffering Christ In the hands of this writer the Lord s few words accompanied by the author s commentary challenge contemporary believers as much as they did those who first followed in the footsteps of Christ and his apostles The author was born in 1869 in Lancashire northern England and educated at the prominent Catholic college Stonyhurst which has been the source of many English Catholic politicians intellectuals and business people After a degree from the University of London he was ordained a Jesuit in 1903 He served as archbishop of Bombay from 1919 to 1926 and returned to England to write and serve as a chaplain until his death in 1939
