Love Plays A Part:

Love's Knowledge Martha C. Nussbaum, 1990 This volume brings together Nussbaum's published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements Baconiana ,1900 The Eclectic Magazine John Holmes Agnew, Walter Hilliard Bidwell, 1869 Attachment and Character Edward Harcourt, 2021 Attachment and Character presents new essays by philosophers and psychologists exploring the illumination that attachment theory can offer for philosophers working in moral psychology or in virtue ethics in the triangle of relationships between the concepts of human nature human excellence and the best life for human beings The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1869 Quotable English couplets Mulki Radhakrishna Shetty, 2007 The Universal Songster; Or, Museum of Mirth: Forming the Most Complete ...
