Carroll, 1989 Imagine a heart which has been ripped from a man's body wrapped with thorns pierced with a knife and then placed on the man's chest or a group of people who believe that wearing a small rectangle of wool next to their skin ensures that they will go to heaven as long as it is brown wool and worn continuously Although psychoanalysts have long investigated similar ideas and beliefs they have ignored popular Catholicism even though behaviour such as this occurs over and over again in the history of Catholic cults and devotions Melanie Klein Deborah P. Britzman, 2015-11-07 This volume introduces the psychoanalyst Melanie Klein to the general field of education and traces her theories of mental life as an emotional situation through to problems of self other relations in our own time The case is made for Klein's relevance and the difficulties her theories pose to the activities of learning and pedagogical relation Klein's vocabulary the paranoid schizoid and depressive positions phantasy object relations projective identification anxiety envy and the urge for reparation and gratitude are discussed in terms of their evolution and the designs of her main questions all stemming from the problem of inhibition Her contribution to an understanding of symbolization and the shift from concrete thinking to greater freedom of mind is analyzed The essay develops the following questions why is learning an emotional situation How did Klein's life and larger history influence her views What are her central theories of mental life Why did Klein focus on anxiety and phantasies as making up the life of the mind What is object relations theory And what does Klein's model of the self proffer to contemporary education in schools and in universities Marxism and Human Nature Sean Sayers, The Complete Works of W.R. Bion W. R. Restitution and the Politics of Repair Magdalena Zolkos, 2020-09-21 Analyses the social imaginary of undoing repair and return underpinning the international norm of restitution making Approaches restitution not just as a legal norm of property return but as a social imaginary and a cultural psychoanalytic scene of undoing repair and return Brings together philosophic political socio legal and cultural psychoanalytic approaches to the study of restitution Outlines a heterogeneous and multifaceted idea of restitution emergent in modernity and looks at the peripheries of the modern restitutive tradition in the search for alternatives and counter traditions This book takes a unique approach grounded in political and cultural discourse to develop a political theory of restitution Challenging assumptions about restitution in the Western legal and political tradition where it has become nearly synonymous with reacquisition and where legal studies focus on material objects and claims to their ownership Zolkos argues that the development of restitutive norms has been auxiliary to the emergence of modern state sovereignty and excavates the restitutive tradition's mythical religious substrate Bringing together texts from within and outwith the Western canon of political theory and philosophy including the writings of Grotius Durkheim Freud and Klein as well as Mary Shelley's Frankenstein the book undertakes a dual task reading literary texts as a political theorising of restitution and reading political or sociological texts as literary narratives with distinctive restitutive tropes of repair undoing and return

Britzman, 2006 What is a novel education like The surprising reply supposes that fiction affects the crisis of understanding work within the human professions of teaching and psychoanalysis The studies of learning and not learning presented begin with the delicate surprise made from representing affective experiences and conflicts within self other relations Freud's question of presenting psychoanalysis to others and the accidental pedagogy made continues to animate our debates on the uses of affected learning Novel Education analyzes the perils and pleasures of inviting narrating and interpreting emotional experience in learning and not learning Drawing upon contemporary psychoanalytic debates on the relation between understanding and therapeutic action these studies open discussion on the unusual world of psychoanalytic methods and link free association and the transference to the aesthetic conflicts made from thinking about sexuality and the difficulties of inhibition in learning listening and the teacher's memory of remembering learning to teach Novel Education highlights a discussion of the teacher's depression and the difficulty of formulating subjective knowledge from practices philosophies and theories in the human professions It raises the question of how fields of thought and practice affect themselves How may we describe the human idiom made in pedagogical and psychoanalytic relationships And why join learning to not learning This thought provoking book is essential reading on a broad range of fields for undergraduate and graduate students as well as faculty members      On Freud's Mourning and Melancholia Thierry Bokanowski, 2018-05-08 Both melancholia and mourning are triggered by the same thing that is by loss The distinction often made is that mourning occurs after the death of a loved one while in melancholia the object of love does not qualify as irretrievably lost      The Uninvited Guest James V. Fisher, 2018-05-30 This book brings together a deep thoughtfulness about the insights of psychoanalysis and its application to work with troubled couples with an original and closely argued reading of some classic plays about marriage It will be of use to readers interested in psychoanalysis and literature
