Restitution and the Politics of Repair Magdalena Zolkos, 2020-09-21 Analyses the social imaginary of undoing repair and return underpinning the international norm of restitution making Approaches restitution not just as a legal norm of property return but as a social imaginary and a cultural psychoanalytic scene of undoing repair and return Brings together philosophic political socio legal and cultural psychoanalytic approaches to the study of restitution Outlines a heterogeneous and multifaceted idea of restitution emergent in modernity and looks at the peripheries of the modern restitutive tradition in the search for alternatives and counter traditions This book takes a unique approach grounded in political and cultural discourse to develop a political theory of restitution Challenging assumptions about restitution in the Western legal and political tradition where it has become nearly synonymous with reacquisition and where legal studies focus on material objects and claims to their ownership Zolkos argues that the development of restitutive norms has been auxiliary to the emergence of modern state sovereignty and excavates the restitutive tradition s mythical religious substrate Bringing together texts from within and outwith the Western canon of political theory and philosophy including the writings of Grotius Durkheim Freud and Klein as well as Mary Shelley s Frankenstein the book undertakes a dual task reading literary texts as a political theorising of restitution and reading political or sociological texts as literary narratives with distinctive restitutive tropes of repair undoing and return The remains insightful understanding of psychic reality through a disciplined experiencing of the transference and countertransference the setting and the method however much Bion s terminology might suggest otherwise remains rigorously psychoanalytic Novel Education Deborah P. Britzman, 2006 What is a novel education like The surprising reply supposes that fiction affects the crisis of understanding work within the human professions of teaching and psychoanalysis The studies of learning and not learning presented begin with the delicate surprise made from representing affective experiences and conflicts within self other relations Freud s question of presenting psychoanalysis to others and the accidental pedagogy made continues to animate our debates on the uses of affected learning Novel Education analyzes the perils and pleasures of inviting narrating and interpreting emotional experience in learning and not learning Drawing upon contemporary psychoanalytic debates on the relation between understanding and therapeutic action these studies open discussion on the unusual world of psychoanalytic methods and link free association and the transference to the aesthetic conflicts made from thinking about sexuality and the difficulties of inhibition in learning listening and the teacher s memory of remembering learning to teach Novel Education highlights a discussion of the teacher's depression and the difficulty of formulating subjective knowledge from practices philosophies and theories in the human professions It raises the question of how fields of thought and practice affect themselves How may we describe the human idiom made in pedagogical and psychoanalytic relationships And why join learning to not learning This thought provoking book is essential reading on a broad range of fields for undergraduate and graduate students as well as faculty members Approaching
