Love and Hate David Mann, 2013-11-12 Love and hate seem to be the dominant emotions that make the world go round and are a central theme in psychotherapy. Love and Hate seeks to answer some important questions about these all-consuming passions. Many patients seeking psychotherapy feel unlovable or full of rage and hate. What is it that interferes with the capacity to experience love? This book explores the origins of love and hate from infancy and how they develop through the life cycle. It brings together contemporary views about clinical practice on how psychotherapists and analysts work with and think about love and hate in the transference and countertransference and explores how different schools of thought deal with the subject. David Mann together with an impressive array of international contributors represent a broad spectrum of psychoanalytic perspectives including Kleinian, Jungian, Independent Group and Lacanian psychotherapists, psychoanalysts and analytical psychologists. With emphasis on clinical illustration throughout, the writers show how different psychoanalytic schools think about and clinically work with the experience and passions of love and hate. It will be invaluable to practitioners and students of psychotherapy, psychoanalysis, analytical psychology and counselling.

Like Subjects, Love Objects Jessica Benjamin, 1995-01-01 In this important book a well-known psychoanalyst and feminist makes a case for what she calls gender heterodoxy, a highly original view of the similarities and differences between the sexes and in the process illuminates aspects of love, sexuality, aggression and pornography.

Narrative Mourning Kathleen M. Oliver, 2020-07-17 Narrative Mourning explores death and its relics as they appear within the confines of the eighteenth-century British novel. It argues that the cultural disappearance of the dead, dying body and the introduction of consciousness as humanity's newfound soul found expression in fictional representations of the relic object or relict person. In the six novels examined in this monograph: Samuel Richardson's Clarissa and Sir Charles Grandison; Sarah Fielding's David Simple; and Volume the Last of Henry Mackenzie's The Man of Feeling and Ann Radcliffe's The Mysteries of Udolpho, the appearance of the relic relict signals narrative mourning and expresses often obliquely changing cultural attitudes toward the dead. Published by Bucknell University Press. Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press.
