Garland of Visions Jinah Kim, 2021-02-16 Garland of Visions explores the generative relationships between artistic intelligence and tantric vision practices in the construction and circulation of visual knowledge in medieval South Asia Shifting away from the traditional connoisseur approach Jinah Kim instead focuses on the materiality of painting its mediums its visions and especially its colors She argues that the adoption of a special type of manuscript called pothi enabled the material translation of a private and internal experience of seeing into a portable device These mobile and intimate objects then became important conveyors of many forms of knowledge ritual artistic social scientific and religious and spurred the spread of visual knowledge of Indic Buddhism to distant lands By taking color as the material link between a vision and its artistic output Garland of Visions presents a fresh approach to the history of Indian painting The Jains Paul Dundas,2024-11-01 The Indian religion of Jainism whose central tenet involves non violence to all creatures is one of the world s oldest and least understood faiths Dundas looks at Jainism in its social and doctrinal context explaining its history sects scriptures and ritual and describing how the Jains have over 2500 years defined themselves as a unique religious community This revised and expanded edition takes account of new research into Jainism Chakshudana or Opening the Eyes Pika Ghosh,Pushkar Sohoni,2023-09-20 Chakshudana or rituals of opening the eyes are practiced across multiple South Asian communities by artists sculptors and priests The ritual offers gods access to the mortal world This practice applied to the study of material and visual culture offers a distinctive perspective to interrogate the complex engagements with paintings sculptures found objects fragments built environments and ecologies This volume takes the process of seeing as its focus to look closely remaining true to the object but also to see widely from multiple subjective stances and diverse bodily engagements such as walking to dreaming glancing to looking askance hypnotic stares and to see beyond the visible It examines art history through nuanced considerations of materiality aesthetics and regional specificities The essays emerge from current research that builds on the contributions of Michael W Meister W Norman Brown Distinguished Professor of History of Art and South Asia Studies at the University of Pennsylvania whose works laid the foundations for the study of South Asian visual and material culture The essays in this book underscore methodological resonances rather than privileging conventional categories of media or chronology exploring artistic media including temples and paintings as well as Bengali quilted textiles manuscript lozenges and metal repousse This volume part of the Visual Media and Histories Series will be of interest to students and researchers of history of art religious studies and history as well as the allied disciplines of anthropology and folklore studies Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND 4 0 license The History of the Book in South Asia Francesca Orsini,2016-12-05 The History of the Book in South Asia covers not only the various modern states that make up South Asia today but also a multitude of languages and scripts For centuries it was manuscripts that dominated book production and circulation and printing technology only began to make an impact in the late eighteenth century Print flourished in the colonial period and in particular lithographic printing proved particularly popular in South Asia both because it was economical and because it enabled multi script printing There are now vibrant publishing cultures in the nation states of South Asia and the essays in this volume cover the whole range from palm leaf manuscripts to contemporary print culture      El arte de India Eva Fernández del Campo, 2020-10-15 El presente libro constituye sin duda un hito en la producción histórica artística de nuestro país. Más allá de la simple recopilación y escrutinio de fuentes y bibliografía y fruto del estudio y la investigación in situ la obra de Eva Fernández del Campo ofrece una visión de conjunto de la creación en India inédita hasta la fecha. No se limita como suele ser frecuente a los periodos hindú e islámico sino que la considera como un continuum que parte de la prehistoria y llega hasta nuestros días de modo que cada nueva etapa evolutiva se entiende a partir de la asunción y superación de los aportes de estratos previos. De este modo las diferentes manifestaciones artísticas se entienden no como entes aislados sino ubicadas en un contexto amplio que permite comprender todas sus características distintivas así como sus diversos niveles de significado. Acompañado de un riquísimo corpus gráfico amplias bibliografías y cuadros cronológicos que constituyen un instrumento fundamental para guiarse por un universo tan complejo y distante de nuestra cultura como es el de la India y poniendo especial énfasis en una cuidadosa transcripción del sánscrito El arte de India es una referencia incuestionable no sólo en el ámbito nacional sino también en el internacional para cualquier persona que quiera conocer y profundizar una de las culturas más antiguas del planeta que ha mantenido su vigencia hasta nuestros días.

The contributors to this book explore various topics of recent research which throw light on the major and some minor Rajasthani schools of painting and their social historical and religious background. The articles are based on material from a multitude of public and private collections in India and throughout the world and wall paintings in situ.
