D., 2006-05-01 Twice as many women as men will experience depression sometime in their lifetime and episodes for women are likely to start at earlier ages last longer and recur more frequently according to the American Academy of Family Physicians Many women are given medication to treat the disease but medication alone does not always address the underlying emotions which trouble the mind and spirit Counselor Elyse Fitzpatrick and Dr Laura Hendrickson provide biblical guidance on how to balance medical intervention with biblical encouragement

Architectures of Grace in Pastoral Care Douglas B. Olds, 2023-05-23 An updating of virtue ethics for modern pastors and the souls they care for this book proposes innovations for the craft of ministry in the theology of grace how virtues radiate to tame strife and other destructive behaviors It presents a comprehensive alternative to the top down proclamations of biblical counseling approaches that try to impart from an eclectic biblicist lens cognitive authorities for consequential change Instead Christ's bottom up practice of virtues heals and fulfills by focusing on neighbor first and subordinating the ego's strategic considerations more graciously spreading God's will in ministry through participatory and experiential knowledge Virtuous pastoral ministries integrate the common grace of humanist learning to address the range of the care seeker's contemporary context her upbringing struggles and affiliations This book presents more the how than the what of pastoral theology more how the dance of mutuality and chivalry enters the spiritual flow of healing metaphysical grace than the what of right belief Even so pastoral care from the virtue ethical approach inevitably reconsiders vending machine theologies destructive doctrinal boundaries and context lite biblicisms This presentation introduces how virtue ethics apply to ministry the household individual trauma and addictions and the contemporary political and cultural arena
