Bell, David Blumenfeld, 1995 Seventeen essays on the ways racism and sexism have intersected and buttressed each other in the United States They include I just see people exercises in learning the effects of racism and sexism conjuring race reflections on the meaning of white changing the subject studies in the appropriation of pain hard to handle anger and the problem of speaking for others Paper edition unseen 22 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Racism in Mind Michael P. Levine, Tamas Pataki, 2018-08-06 This philosophical analysis of the phenomenon of racism brings together some of the most influential analytic philosophers writing on racism today The introduction by Tamas Pataki outlines the historical and thematic development of conceptions of race and racism and locates the following essays against the backdrop of contemporary reactions to that development While the framework is primarily analytic the volume also includes essays deeply informed by psychoanalysis phenomenology and feminist and social theory The fourteen chapters in this collection address three interrelated questions What is racism What are the causes of racism And what are the moral and political implications of racism Although their approaches are wide ranging the contributors to Racism in Mind broadly endorse a psychological characterological approach to the understanding of many aspects of racism

Teaching Against Global Capitalism and the New Imperialism Peter McLaren, Ramin Farahmandpur, 2005 This book will address a number of urgent themes in education today that include multiculturalism the politics of whiteness the globalization of capital neoliberalism postmodernism imperialism and current debates in Marxist social theory The above themes will be linked to critical educational praxis particularly to teaching activities within urban schools Finally the book will develop the basis for a wider political project directed at resisting and transforming economic exploitation cultural homogenization political repression and gender inequality Recent and widespread scholarly attention has been given to the unabated mercilessness of global capitalism Little opposition exists as capital runs amok unhampered and undisturbed by the tectonic upheaval that is occurring in the geopolitical landscape that has recently witnessed the collapse of the Soviet Union and the regimes of the Eastern Bloc As we examine education policies within the context of economic globalization we attempt to address the extent to which the pedagogy and politics of everyday life has fallen under the sway of what we identify as cultural and economic imperialism Finally the book raises a number of urgent questions What are the current limitations to educational reform efforts among the educational left What are some of the problems associated with certain developments within postmodern education How can a return to Marxist theory and revolutionary politics revitalize the educational left at a time when capitalism appears to be unstoppable What actions need to be taken in both local and global arenas to overcome the exploitation that the globalization of capital has wreaked upon the world

Men in Color Josep M. Armengol, 2011-01-18 Comprising seven different chapters the collection Men in Color attempts to analyze and revisit the representation of ethnic masculinities both white and non white in and through contemporary U S literature and cinema If most of the existing studies on masculinity and race have centered on one specific model of racialized masculinities Men in Color attempts to provide an introductory perspective on different racialized masculinities simultaneously including African American Asian American Chicano Arab American and also white masculinity which is analyzed as another ethnic and gendered construct rather than as a paradigm of normalcy and universality By exploring several ethnic masculinities in relation to each other the present volume aims to highlight both the differences and the similarities between different patterns of masculinity showing how even as gender is inflected by race certain aspects or features of masculinity remain unchanged across the ethnic board Ultimately the volume as a whole illustrates both the changing nature of masculinities as well as the recurrence of certain stereotypes such as the hypersexualization and or the feminization of ethnic males which recur in and across several ethnicities The constant tension and intersection between gender and race is the subject of this book which hopes to contribute some notes and reflections on ethnic masculinities to the much more complex and larger discussion about gender and racial identities in our increasingly multicultural and globalized 21st century world

Critique, Action, and Liberation James L. Marsh, 1995-01-01 Critique Action and Liberation is an original work in critical social theory that develops an approach to and method for social and political science Drawing on the work of Habermas Marcuse Adorno Offe Marx and David Harvey Marsh develops an ethics and a social phenomenology of the self as communicative subject He then advances an interpretation and critique of modernity late capitalism and state socialism

Race/Sex Naomi Zack, 2016-01-08 Race Sex is the first forum for combined discussion of racial theory and gender theory In sixteen articles avant garde scholars of African American philosophy and liberatory criticism explore and explode the categories of race sex and gender into new trajectories that include sexuality black masculinity and mixed race identity

Harassment Sylvia Veronica Scott, 2007-08 This book HARASSMENT VICTIMS AND THEIR VICTIMIZERS will attempt to expose the truth about the sources and reasons for the preponderance of sexual harassment in the workplace and academia Harassment is a pervasive social problem directed mostly toward females of all ages and races by males of all races The underlying causes of harassment are sexism and racism that have been established in this patriarchal society as the norm for the behavior of males This norm is not normal rather it is a type of psychopathologic behavior that is dangerous Actually these occurrences may border on fascism within a democratic and liberal society The male entitlement theory manhood theory and the masculine mystique all contribute to the harassment of women because males believe that they have a right to control females with physical and or psychological violence The reasons why women are victims will be followed by why men victimize women Both chapters will cover the assessments relevant to the problems both women and men face in this Western culture due to our socialization practices Men are not cognizant of the scope of their behavior women are not often certain about how to handle difficult situations with men in the workplace and academia Some women may be becoming too complacent and will accept abuse while others will in turn

become aggressors toward other women and then with men in relationships

Moral Issues in Global Perspective - Volume 2: Human Diversity and Equality - Second Edition Christine Koggel, 2006-03-27 Now available in three thematic volumes the second edition of Moral Issues in Global Perspective is a collection of the newest and best articles on current moral issues by moral and political theorists from around the globe Each volume seeks to challenge the standard approaches to morality and moral issues shaped by Western liberal theory and to extend the inquiry beyond the context of North America Covering a broad range of issues and arguments this collection includes critiques of traditional liberal accounts of rights justice and moral values while raising questions about the treatment of disadvantaged groups within and across societies affected by globalization Providing new perspectives on issues such as war and terrorism reproduction euthanasia censorship and the environment each volume of Moral Issues in Global Perspective incorporates work by race class feminist and disability theorists Human Diversity and Equality the second of the three volumes examines issues of equality and difference and the effects within and across borders of kinds of discrimination on the basis of race ethnicity gender disability class and sexual orientation Nine essays are new four of which were written especially for this volume Moral Issues in Global Perspective is available in three separate volumes Moral and Political Theory Human Diversity and Equality and Moral Issues

Leading Toward the Future Dr. Carol A. Kotlowski, 2019-11-29 The face of leadership has changed Fewer organizations now rely on the leadership techniques of the past and the stereotypical image of old white men in suits seems less connected to the reality of leadership with each passing year In today's world leadership comes in many styles wears diverse faces and can emerge from any level of the organizational hierarchy Navigating this landscape can be tricky especially when relying on outdated advice In Leading Toward the Future Dr Carol Kotlowski takes a closer look at the realities of contemporary leadership This book examines the challenges modern leaders face and the various methods that can be used to overcome them By drawing on her experience in the military and the private sector Dr Kotlowski brings a unique perspective to the question What makes a good leader With its emphasis on increasing diversity and navigating change Leading Toward the Future is a modern leader's handbook for success

Clergy Killers G. Lloyd Rediger, 1997-01-01 Clergy Killers offers remedial strategies for pastors and congregations who want to protect themselves against the abuse of parishioners with personality disorders mental illnesses and mean streaks in situations that go well beyond mere church conflict

Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory Dave Hill, 2002-01-01 Written by renowned British and American educational theorists Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory a substantially revised edition of the original 1999 work examines the infusion of postmodernism and theories of postmodernity into educational theory policy and research

Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory Mike Cole, Dave Hill, Peter McLaren, 2002-12-11 Postmodernism has become the orthodoxy in educational theory It heralds the end of grand theories like Marxism and liberalism scorning any notion of a united feminist challenge to patriarchy of united anti racist struggle and of united working class movements against capitalist exploitation and oppression For postmodernists the world is fragmented history is ended and all struggles are local and particularistic Written by internationally renowned British and American educational theorists Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory a substantially revised edition of the original 1999 work Postmodernism in Educational Theory critically examines the infusion of postmodernism and theories of postmodernity into educational theory policy and research The writers argue that postmodernism provides neither a viable educational politics nor the foundation for effective radical educational practice and offer an alternative politics of human resistance which puts the challenge to capitalism firmly on the agenda of educational theory politics and practice

Economy, Gender and Academy Mario Enrique Vargas

Sáenz, Laura Andrea Cristancho Giraldo, Marisol Salamanca Olmos, Gloria Nancy Rios Yepes, 2023-08-22 Relying on a variety of examples from Latin America and the Caribbean this book counteracts the gender gap by focusing on what you need to know to analyze the modernization of business management and economic growth as well as design effective public policies that allow for greater participation of women in society

Flesh and Spirit: Revisiting Race and Sex Relations in the Americas Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-05 In the tapestry of human history race and sex relations have played a pivotal role shaping societies fueling conflicts and leaving an enduring mark on the lives of countless individuals In the Americas this interplay has been particularly pronounced with the legacies of colonialism slavery and ongoing discrimination continuing to cast a long shadow over contemporary realities Flesh and Spirit delves into the intricate web of race and sex relations in the Americas providing a comprehensive examination of their historical roots evolving ideologies and enduring consequences Through a multidisciplinary lens this book explores the ways in which race and sex have shaped individual and collective identities influenced legal and political systems and impacted education employment healthcare and family life At the heart of this exploration lies the recognition of the profound impact that race and sex have on identity formation The book examines the construction of racial and gender identities the intersectionality of multiple social categories and the challenges faced by marginalized communities It sheds light on the ways in which these identities are shaped by societal norms historical narratives and personal experiences Furthermore Flesh and Spirit analyzes the legal and political dimensions of race and sex relations examining the role of law and policy in shaping equality and discrimination It explores landmark legal cases legislative changes and affirmative action policies highlighting the complex interplay between law politics and social change The book also delves into the impact of race and sex on education employment healthcare and family life It examines the historical and ongoing patterns of discrimination in these spheres and how they continue to perpetuate inequalities in access opportunities and outcomes It explores the challenges faced by marginalized communities in achieving educational and economic success accessing quality healthcare and building stable and fulfilling family lives Ultimately Flesh and Spirit seeks to contribute to a transformative understanding of race and sex relations in the Americas By providing a comprehensive analysis of these complex issues it aims to foster dialogue promote empathy and inspire action towards

Exploring Women's Silences in Dialogue on Race and Ethnicity Anna Crombach Hope,2004 Overcoming America / America Overcoming Stephen C. Rowe,2021-07-27 In this new edition of Overcoming America Stephen Rowe shows how the COVID 19 pandemic in tandem with Trumpism have brought basic dynamics of the American situation to high relief and hence provide opportunity to address them before it is too late The dynamics he identifies are those of moral disease and political paralysis as symptomatic of the fact that America herself has been overtaken by the modern values which she exported to the rest of the world He points to a way out of the current and potentially fatal malaise and violence join other societies which are also struggling to move beyond the modern and consciously reappropriate those elements of tradition which have to do with cultivation of the mature human being To avoid fundamentalism Rowe discusses how this reappropriation must be undertaken in dialogue with those who also have come to recognize the unsustainable quality of the modern life and who have been able to live beyond the nihilistic wish to tear it down This book supports the call for an emerging global ethic and spirituality providing resources of articulation and interpretation that allow for an ongoing dialogue between traditional and modern values both worthy and problematic in their own ways through which reliable policy and healthy living become possible

Socialist Feminism Frieda Afary,2022-10-20 What is socialist feminism and why is it needed to fight the global rise of authoritarianism and fascism Frieda Afary brings the insights gained through her study of feminist philosophy her international activism and her work in community education as a public librarian in Los Angeles offering a bold new vision of an alternative to capitalism racism sexism heterosexism and alienation Socialist Feminism A New Approach reclaims theories of women s oppression through a return to humanism enriched by social reproduction theories Black feminist intersectionality abolitionism queer theories Marxist Humanism and the author s own experiences as an Iranian American feminist scholar and activist She looks at global developments in gender relations since the 1980s the impact of the Covid 19 pandemic the distinct features of twenty first century authoritarianism and current struggles against it drawing out lessons for revolutionary theorising organising and international solidarity including the MeToo and Black Lives Matter movements This book also contains a study guide which transforms it into a useful pedagogical tool for teachers and activists

Everyday Courage Niobe Way,1998-04 Developmental psychologist Way interprets first person accounts of what it means to be among the nearly 40 percent of poor and or ethnic minority adolescents in the 1990s drawing upon 71 interviews protocols appended with a sample of the 95 plus percent who do not meet the media stereotypes of destructive urban teens or superheroes With relational themes clustered in conceptual matrices and statistics belying perceptions of the degree of high risk behavior among youth she challenges the pathological pictures which emerge from quantitative studies representing them in preconceived categories Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Our Worlds in Our Words Mary Dilg,2015-04-17 How can teachers help their students to meet high standards of reading and writing while also preparing them to become thoughtful and productive members of a multicultural society And why is it important to do this In her new book Mary Dilg brings us into her high school English classroom where we see students reach across the social cultural and economic lines that divide them to build lifelong literacy skills The book explores what happens when we introduce students to the words of a broad spectrum of American scholars writers and artists and then invite them to examine debate and negotiate the ideas presented Dilg provides a safe space to explore complex issues and includes samples of classroom writing to demonstrate how students use their language arts classroom to make sense of themselves and their world

The Thinking Christian Gene Wesley Marshall, 2020-04-13 The practice of Christianity is going through a transition that is deeper than the Reformation The Thinking Christian explores two main questions 1 What is religion as a general social process that can link humans to Profound Reality and 2 what is a meaningful and appropriate mode of Christian theologizing communal life and mission to this planet for a viable and vital next Christian practice These are profound probes and they are communal and activist guidelines for general readers Such union of the profound and the practical pertains to the needs of scholars as well
