Hanley,1992-10-22 Leading American and British textual editors respond to the recent radical overhaul in the editing of Romantic texts in the light of developments in critical theory Lars von Trier's Cinema Rebecca Ver Straten-McSparran,2021-11-11 This book offers a bold and dynamic examination of Lars von Trier s cinema by interweaving philosophy and theology with close attention to aesthetics through style and narrative It explores the prophetic voice of von Trier s films juxtaposing them with Ezekiel s prophecy and Ricoeur s symbols of evil myth and hermeneutics of revelation The films of Lars von Trier are categorized as extreme cinema inducing trauma and emotional rupture rarely paralleled while challenging audiences to respond in new ways This volume argues that the spiritual biblical content of the films holds a key to understanding von Trier s oeuvre of excess Spiritual conflict is the mechanism that unpacks the films notorious excess with explosive centrifugal force By confronting the spectator with spiritual conflict through evil von Trier s films truthfully and prophetically expose the spectator s complicity in personal and structural evil forcing self examination through theological themes analogous to the prophetic voice of the transgressive Hebrew prophet Ezekiel his prophecy and its form of delivery Placed in context with the prophetic voices of Dante Milton Dostoyevsky O Connor and Tarkovsky this volume offers a theoretical framework beyond von Trier It will be of great interest to scholars in film studies film and philosophy film and theology Sexual Personae Camille Paglia,1990-09-10 In this brilliantly original book Camille Paglia identifies some of the major patterns that have endured in western culture from ancient Egypt and Greece to the present According to Paglia one source of continuity is paganism which undefeated by Judeo Christianity continues to flourish in art eroticism astrology and pop culture Others she says are androgyny sadism and the aggressive western eye which has created our art and cinema Paglia follows these and other themes from Nefertiti and the Venus of Willendorf to Apollo and Dionysus from Botticelli and Michaelangelo to Shakespeare and Blake and finally to Emily Dickinson who along with other major nineteenth century authors becomes a remarkable example of Romanticism turned into Decadence Paglia offers provocative views of literature art history psychology and religion She focuses for example on the amorality voyeurism and pornography in great art that have been ignored or glossed over by most critics She discusses sex and nature as brutal daemonic forces and she criticizes feminists for sentimentality or wishful thinking about the causes of rape violence and poor relations between the sexes She stressed the biologic basis of sex differences and sees the mother as an overwhelming force who condemns men to lifelong sexual anxiety from which they escape through rationalism and physical achievement She examines the culture and style of modern male homosexuals She demonstrates how much of western life art and thought is ruled by personality which she traces through recurrent types or personae such as the female vampire Medusa Lauren Bacall the pythoness the Delphic oracle Gracie Allen the beautiful boy Hadrian's Antinous Dorian Gray the epicene man of beauty Lord Byron Elvis Presley and the male heroine Baudelaire Woody Allen Her book will stimulate and awe readers everywhere Altering Fate Michael Lewis, 1998-07-13 Few people question the pervasive belief that early childhood exerts an inordinate power over adult achievements relationships and mental health Once robbed of our potential by the inadequacies of our upbringing the theory goes we risk being trapped in maladaptive patterns and unfulfilling lives But does early experience really seal our fate Daring to challenge prevailing models of child development this provocative book argues that what enables us to survive and sets us free from our pasts is our astonishing adaptability to change shaped by the uniquely human attributes of consciousness will and desire Fueling Culture Jennifer Wenzel, Patricia Yaeger, 2017-02-01 How has our relation to energy changed over time What differences do particular energy sources make to human values politics and imagination How have transitions from one energy source to another from wood to coal or from oil to solar to whatever comes next transformed culture and society What are the implications of uneven access to energy in the past present and future Which concepts and theories clarify our relation to energy and which just get in the way Fueling Culture offers a compendium of keywords written by scholars and practitioners from around the world and across the humanities and social sciences These keywords offer new ways of thinking about energy as both the source and the limit of how we inhabit culture with the aim of opening up new ways of understanding the seemingly irresolvable contradictions of dependence upon unsustainable energy forms Fueling Culture brings together writing that is risk taking and interdisciplinary drawing on insights from literary and cultural studies environmental history and ecocriticism political economy and political ecology postcolonial and globalization studies and materialisms old and new Keywords in this volume include Aboriginal Accumulation Addiction Affect America Animal Anthropocene Architecture Arctic Automobile Boom Canada Catastrophe Change Charcoal China Coal Community Corporation Crisis Dams Demand Detritus Disaster Ecology Electricity Embodiment Ethics Evolution Exhaust Fallout Fiction Fracking Future Gender Green Grids Guilt Identity Image Infrastructure Innervation Kerosene Lebenskraft Limits Media Metabolism Middle East Nature Necessity Networks Nigeria Nuclear Petroviolence Photography Pipelines Plastics Renewable Resilience Risk Roads Rubber Rural Russia Servers Shame Solar Spill Spiritual Statistics Surveillance Sustainability Tallow Texas Textiles Utopia Venezuela Whaling Wood Work For a full list of keywords in and contributors to this volume please go to <http://ow.ly/4mZZxV> Becoming Audible Austin McQuinn, 2020-12-22 Becoming Audible explores the phenomenon of human and animal acoustic entanglements in art and performance practices Focusing on the work of artists who get into the spaces between species Austin McQuinn discovers that sounding animality secures a vital connection to the creatural To frame his analysis McQuinn employs Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's concept of becoming animal

Genetic Codes of Culture? William R. Schultz, 2016-08-19 In this text first published in 1994 the author examines the interdisciplinary significance of the theory of science literature and philosophy according to the figures who achieved prominence in those fields Kuhn Bloom and Derrida Each scholar s theory is discussed in terms of its major concepts and the book then relates their fields within the context of deconstruction s interdisciplinary movement This title will be of interest to students of literature and philosophy Music and the Irish Literary Imagination Harry White,2008-11-13 Harry White examines the influence of music in the development of the Irish literary imagination from 1800 to the present day He identifies music as a preoccupation which originated in the poetry of Thomas Moore early in the nineteenth century He argues that this preoccupation decisively influenced Moore s attempt to translate the meaning of Irish music into verse and that it also informed Moore s considerable impact on the development of European musical romanticism as in the music of Berlioz and Schumann White then examines how this preoccupation was later recovered by W B Yeats whose poetry is imbued with music as a rival presence to language In its readings of Yeats Synge Shaw and Joyce the book argues that this striking musical awareness had a profound influence on the Irish literary imagination to the extent that poetry fiction and drama could function as correlatives of musical genres Although Yeats insisted on the synonymous condition of speech and song in his poetry Synge Shaw and Joyce explicitly identified opera in particular as a generic prototype for their own work Synge s formal musical training and early inclinations as a composer Shaw s perception of himself as the natural successor to Wagner and Joyce s no less striking absorption of a host of musical techniques in his fiction are advanced in this study as formative rather than incidental elements in the development of modern Irish writing Music and the Irish Literary Imagination also considers Beckett s emancipation from the oppressive condition of words in general and Joyce in particular through the agency of music and argues that the strong presence of Mendelssohn Chopin and Jan cek in the works of Brian Friel is correspondingly essential to Friel s dramatisation of Irish experience in the aftermath of Beckett The book closes with a reading of Seamus Heaney in which the poet s own preoccupation with the currency of established literary forms is enlisted to illuminate Heaney s abiding sense of poetry as music
