Oxford Buildings From Medieval To Modern:

Oxford Buildings from Medieval to Modern David Alban Hinton, 1977-01-01 Oxford Buildings from Medieval to Modern: Exteriors David Alban Hinton, 1972 The Middle Ages Revisited: Studies in the Archaeology and History of Medieval Southern England Presented to Professor David A. Hinton Ben Jervis, 2018-11-17 This volume produced in honour of Professor David A Hinton's contribution to medieval studies revisits the sites archaeologists and questions which have been central to the archaeology of medieval southern England Contributions are focused on the medieval period from the Anglo Saxon period to the Reformation in southern England Modern Construction Handbook Andrew Watts, 2013-07-17 The Modern Construction Handbook has become a building construction classic and is used as a textbook in many courses Its systematic approach with chapters on materials walls roofs construction and environment offers clear and efficient orientation Digital fabrication techniques are included as well complementing traditional production processes and presented in an instructional book for the first time The third edition has been thoroughly updated and now provides More information more annotation of drawings more text on the page Updated future chapter with more emerging construction techniques Updated essays on construction in the introduction Chapter 1 More technical data in the Materials Chapter The content in this third edition has been completely reworked which makes it an even more valuable companion for students and young practitioners British Sources of Information P. Jackson, 2003-09-02 This comprehensive and versatile reference source will be a most important tool for anyone wishing to seek out information on virtually any aspect of British affairs life and culture The resources of a detailed bibliography directory and journals listing are combined in this single volume forming a unique guide to a multitude of diverse topics British politics government society literature thought arts economics history and geography Academic subjects as taught in British colleges and universities are covered with extensive reading lists of books and journals and sources of information for each discipline making this an invaluable manual Buildings and Landmarks of Medieval Europe James B. Tschen-Emmons, 2016-11-14 Through the use of images diagrams and detailed descriptions this book enables readers to appreciate how the construction design and function of famous structures inform our understanding of societies of the past Buildings and Landmarks of Medieval Europe The Middle Ages Revealed makes use of significant buildings as representative structures to provide insight into specific cultures historical periods or topics of the Middle Ages The explanations of these buildings construction original intended use and change over time and design elements allow readers to better comprehend what life in European societies of the past was like covering social political economic and intellectual perspectives Readers will be able to apply what they learn from the discussions of the structures to improve their understanding of the historical period as well as their skills of observation and assessment needed to analyze these landmark structures and draw meaningful conclusions about their context and significance The book's supporting features a chronology biographical appendix glossary and subject index help researchers in successfully completing their papers or projects Building Anglo-Saxon England John Blair, 2021-10-12 Shortlisted for the Wolfson History Prize A radical rethinking of the Anglo Saxon world that draws on the latest archaeological discoveries This beautifully illustrated book draws on the latest archaeological discoveries to present a radical reappraisal of the Anglo Saxon built environment and its inhabitants John Blair one of the world's leading experts on this transformative era in England's early history explains the origins of towns manor houses and castles in a completely new way and sheds new light on the important functions of buildings and settlements in shaping people's lives during the age of the Venerable Bede and King Alfred Building Anglo Saxon England demonstrates how hundreds of recent excavations enable us to grasp for the first time how regionally diverse the built environment of the Anglo Saxons truly was Blair identifies a zone of eastern England with access to the North Sea whose economy prosperity and timber buildings had more in common with the Low Countries and Scandinavia than the rest of England The origins of villages and their field systems emerge with a new clarity as does the royal administrative organization of the kingdom of Mercia which dominated central England for two centuries Featuring a wealth of color illustrations throughout Building Anglo Saxon England explores how the natural landscape was modified to accommodate human activity and how many settlements secular and religious were laid out with geometrical precision by specialist surveyors The book also shows how the Anglo Saxon love of elegant and intricate decoration is reflected in the construction of the living environment which in some ways was more sophisticated than it would become after the Norman Conquest

Traditional Buildings in the Oxford Region John Steane, James Ayres, 2013-11-29 The pivotal position of the Oxford region in the geological and therefore building history of England is of fundamental importance to the study of traditional construction Oxford occupies a central position on the ancient route between Northampton and Southampton and on the east west road between London The West Country Wales and Ireland For this reason unusually for vernacular architecture the buildings of the region were subject to a wide range of influences This book the fruit of twenty years research provides an account of vernacular architecture in the Oxford region from Anglo Saxon times to the 19th century It begins with a discussion of methods and procedures followed by a description of building materials stone brick slate and thatch This serves as an introduction to the heart of the book eleven chapters dealing with surveys of cruck buildings manorial and moated sites town houses with particular emphasis on Abingdon and houses in the countryside from farmhouses to cottages There are then chapters on fire hazards public houses and public buildings Several appendices are devoted to wall paintings ferramenta apotropaic marks carpentry details secrets under the floorboards fireplaces staircases and windows The book is richly and profusely illustrated with over 500 illustrations photographs maps and a particular strength a large number of drawings of architectural details and sketch perspectives Medieval Allegory and the Building of the New Jerusalem Ann Raftery Meyer, 2003 The chantry movement in late medieval England is situated in this context and leads to a demonstration of the movement's associations with the highly wrought poem Pearl and its companion poems the book analyses Pearl as

Mass Education and the Limits of State Building, c.1870-1930 L. Brockliss,N. Sheldon,2012-02-21 The first comparative study of the spread of mass education around the world in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries this unique new book uses a bottom up focus and demonstrates to an extent not appreciated hitherto the gulf between the intentions of the government and the reality on the ground The National Geographic Magazine ,1929 Indexes kept up to date with supplements

Louis H. Sullivan and a 19th-Century Poetics of Naturalized Architecture LaurenS. Weingarden,2017-07-05 For most of the twentieth century modernist viewers dismissed the architectural ornament of Louis H Sullivan 1856 1924 and the majority of his theoretical writings as emotional outbursts of an outmoded romanticism In this study Lauren Weingarden reveals Sullivan s eloquent articulation of nineteenth century romantic practices literary linguistic aesthetic spiritual and nationalistic and thus rescues Sullivan and his legacy from the narrow role imposed on him as a pioneer of twentieth century modernism Using three interpretive models discourse theory poststructural semiotic analysis and a pragmatic concept of sign functions she restores the integrity of Sullivan s artistic choices and his historical position as a culminating figure within nineteenth century romanticism By giving equal weight to Louis Sullivan s writings and designs Weingarden shows how he translated both Ruskin s tenets of Gothic naturalism and Whitman s poetry of the American landscape into elemental structural forms and organic ornamentation Viewed as a site where various romantic discourses converged Sullivan s oeuvre demands a cross disciplinary exploration of each discursive practice and its rules of accumulation exclusion reactivation The overarching theme of this study is the interrogation and restitution of those Foucauldian rules that enabled Sullivan to articulate architecture as a pictorial mode of landscape art which he considered co equal with the spiritual and didactic functions of landscape poetry St Peter-On-The-Wall Johanna Dale,2023-05-15 The Chapel of St Peter on the Wall built on the ruins of a Roman fort dates from the mid seventh century and is one of the oldest largely intact churches in England It stands in splendid isolation on the shoreline at the mouth of the Blackwater Estuary in Essex where the land meets and interpenetrates with the sea and the sky This book brings together contributors from across the arts humanities and social sciences to uncover the pre modern contexts and modern resonances of this medieval building and its landscape setting The impetus for this collection was the recently published designs for a new nuclear power station at Bradwell on Sea which if built would have a significant impact on the chapel and its landscape setting St Peter on the Wall highlights the multiple ways in which the chapel and landscape are historically and archaeologically significant while also drawing attention to the modern importance of Bradwell as a place of Christian worship of sanctuary and of cultural production In analysing the significance of the chapel and surrounding landscape over more than a thousand years this collection additionally contributes to wider debates about the relationship between space and place and particularly the interfaces between both medieval and modern cultures and also heritage and the natural environment The Builder ,1890

State Building in Putin's Russia Brian D. Taylor, 2011-02-21 This book argues that Putin's strategy for rebuilding the state was fundamentally flawed Taylor demonstrates that a disregard for the way state officials behave toward citizens state quality had a negative impact on what the state could do state capacity Focusing on those organizations that control state coercion what Russians call the power ministries Taylor shows that many of the weaknesses of the Russian state that existed under Boris Yeltsin persisted under Putin Drawing on extensive field research and interviews as well as a wide range of comparative data the book reveals the practices and norms that guide the behavior of Russian power ministry officials the so called siloviki especially law enforcement personnel By examining siloviki behavior from the Kremlin down to the street level State Building in Putin's Russia uncovers the who where and how of Russian state building after communism University

Planning and Architecture Jonathan Coulson, Paul Roberts, Isabelle Taylor, 2010-09-23 The environment of a university what we term a campus has long been the setting for some of history's most exciting experiments in the design of the built environment Christopher Wren at Cambridge Thomas Jefferson at Virginia Le Corbusier at Harvard Louis Kahn at Yale and Norman Foster in Berlin the calibre of practitioners that have worked for universities is astounding This book comprehensively documents the worldwide evolution of university design from the Middle Ages to the present day uncovering the key developments which have shaken the world of campus planning A series of detailed and highly illustrated case studies profile universally acclaimed campuses that through their planning architecture and landscaping have succeeded in making positive contributions to the field Drawing on these examples the book turns to the strategies behind campus planning in today's climate Exploring the importance of themes such as landscape architecture place making and sustainability within university development the book consolidates the lessons learnt from the rich tradition of campus development to provide a good practice guide for anyone concerned with planning environments for higher education

The Building of Britain and the Empire Henry Duff Traill, 1909 State-Building in the Middle East and North Africa Mohammad-Mahmoud Ould Mohamedou, 2021-10-21 Why have state building projects across the MENA region proven to be so difficult for so long Following the end of the Ottoman Empire in the early 1920s the countries of the region began a violent and divisive process of state formation But a century later state building remains inconclusive This book traces the emergence and evolution of state building across the MENA region and identifies the main factors that impeded its success the slow end of the Ottoman Empire the experience of colonialism and the rise of nationalistic and religious movements The authors reveal the ways in which the post colonial state proved itself authoritarian and formed on the model of the colonial state They also identify the nationalist and Islamist movements that competed for political leadership across the nascent systems enabling the military to establish a grip on the security apparatus and national economies Finally in the context of the Arab Spring and its conflict filled aftermath this book shows how external powers reasserted their interventionism In outlining the reasons why regional states remained hollow and devoid of legitimacy each of the contributors shows that recent conflicts and crises are deeply connected to the foundational period of one century ago Edited by Mohammad Mahmoud Ould Mohamedou the volume features contributions by stellar scholars including Faleh Abdel Jabar Lisa Anderson Bertrand Badie Fran ois Burgat Benoit Challand Ahmad Khalidi Henry Laurens Bruce Rutherford Jordi Tejel and Ghassan Salam British Architects, 1840-1976 Lawrence Wodehouse,1978 A History of the University in Europe: Volume 1, Universities in the Middle Ages Hilde de Ridder-Symoens,1992 This is the first volume on the medieval University as a whole to be published in over a century It provides a synthesis of the intellectual social political and religious life of the early University and gives serious attention to the development of classroom studies and how they changed with the coming of the Renaissance and the Reformation
