Bruce,2009-09-22 A witty round up of writers habits that includes all the big names such as Dickens Flaubert Tolstoy Hemingway At public events readers always ask writers how they write The process fascinates them Now they have a very witty book that ranges around the world and throughout history to answer their questions All the great writers are here Dickens dashing off his work Henry James dictating it Flaubert shouting each word aloud in the garden Hemingway at work in caf s with his pencil But pencil or pen trusty typewriter or computer they all have their advocates Not to mention the writers who can only keep the words flowing by writing naked or while walking or listening to music and generally obeying the most bizarre superstitions On Shakespeare s works Fantastic And it was all done with a feather Sam Goldwyn I write nude seated on a thick towel and perhaps with a second towel around me Paul West I ve never heard of anyone getting plumber s block or traffic cop s block Allan Gurganus I m a drinker with a writing problem Brendan Behan Creating Books for the Young in the New South Africa Barbara A. Lehman,Jay Heale,Anne Hill,2014-10-08 This collection of essays analyzes the work of 29 authors and illustrators South African children s and youth literature has a long history The country is the most prolific publisher of children s books on the continent producing perhaps the highest quality literature in Africa Its traditions resonate within the larger world of children s literature but are solidly grounded in African myth and archetypes The African diaspora in the U S and elsewhere have stories rooted in these oral traditions Much has changed in South African literature for children since the 1994 transformation of the country A field once dominated by all white and mostly female writers and illustrators has diversified adding many new voices Censorship across Borders Alberto Lázaro,Catherine O'Leary,2011-07-12 This volume brings together twelve essays which explore European censorship of English literature in the last century Taking into consideration the various social political and historical contexts in which literary controls were imposed and the extent to which they were determined by national and international concerns these essays comment on political and moral censorship self censorship and the role of the translator as censor Besides systematic state control other hidden and insidious forms of censorship are also surveyed in the essays This study considers why certain works and authors many of them now regarded as canonical were targeted in various states and often under opposing ideologies such as those dominated by conservative Catholic morality and those governed by communism or socialism The essays contain previously unpublished material cover a wide range of authors including Beckett Eliot Joyce and Orwell and analyse diverse censorship systems operating across Europe thus serving as a useful comparative resource Despite the variety of structures of suppression the study shows that certain common practices can be discerned across national borders and that general conclusions can be drawn about the complex and ambiguous nature of the state s relationship with culture and about the immediate and long term impact of censorship not only on the author and publisher but on society as a whole Finally the essays are also significant for what they tell us about the survival of literature despite the best efforts of the censors Writing Marketing Stephen Brown,2005-09-15 Marketing is a very diverse discipline dealing with everything from the costs of globalization to the benefits of money back guarantees However there is one thing that all marketing academics share They are writers They publish or perish Their careers are advanced and their reputations are enhanced by the written word Despite its importance writing is rarely discussed much less written about by marketing scholars It is one of the least understood yet most significant academic competencies It is a competency in need of careful study Writing Marketing is the first such study It offers a detailed reading of five renowned marketing writers ranging from Ted Levitt to Morris Holbrook and draws lessons that can be adopted with profit by everyone else Although it is not a how to book there are no lengthy lists of dos and don ts Writing Marketing reveals that the rules of good writing are good for nothing Written by Stephen Brown whose own writing skills are much commented upon Writing Marketing is insightful illuminating and iconoclastic It is a must read for every marketing academic irrespective of their methodological inclinations or philosophical preferences The Word on the Wind Alison Morgan,2013-03-07 The average age of churchgoers in Britain is now 47

Almost every denomination is experiencing steady decline How sure can we be that we are still offering something people want to hear Alison Morgan identifies four clear reasons to be confident 1 The gospel still speaks to confused teens and weary sceptics By embracing doubts and welcoming questions it remains open to us to present something which answers people s real needs 2 The word of truth and the Spirit of power still exercise authority and compel attention Alison s own experience of ministry in the UK and abroad provides illustrations 3 Spiritual gifts given not to excite individuals but in order to renew the church for its core task of mission are powerfully present and widely recognised and practised 4 In a time of rapid cultural change new expressions of church are constantly emerging this is necessary to guard against vital spirituality sliding into drab religion The Postcolonial Exotic Graham Huggan,2002-09-26 Graham Huggan examines some of the processes by which value is given to postcolonial works within their cultural field using both literary critical and sociological methods of analysis
